Trades Prison Uniform For Spot With Yanks

MCALESTER, Okla., (AP)—Billy Joe Moore, strapping 24-year-old first baseman, traded his state prison baseball uniform Wednesday for the chance of a lifetime with New York Yankees.

Moore was on his way to an undisclosed Class C club in the Yankee organization, signed by the same scout who spotted center-fielder Mickey Mantle. And Tom Greenwade, the scout who helped get the promising young six-foot-two, 220-pound Negro paroled from a burglary sentence, said Moore is headed for the big leagues.

Greenwade said Moore, a sensation in prison baseball, boxing, basketball and football since his arrival in 1948, was signed for $250 a month. With the approval of
