77th, 1949. Her smiling way and pleasant face. Are a pleasure to recall. She had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all. Someday we hope to meet her. To clasp her hand in the better land. Never to part again. Lovingly remembered by The Family.

CHANDLER - In loving memory of our Dear Father, John Chandler, North Milton, who passed away, September 27, 1948. Loved in life, treasured in death. Beautiful memories with us he has left. Ever remembered by his daughter, Mae.

QUIGLEY - In loving memory of my dear pop, Harry Quigley, who was killed in a car-tractor collision at North Tryon, P.E.I. on Sept. 26, 1957. Two years have passed since that sad day. When God above called my dad away. Though sudden his passing and great the shock I'll always remember my dear pop. Though on earth his smiling face I'll see no more. I know I will on that other shore. Ever remembered and sadly missed by his daughter Charlotte of Hamilton, Ontario.

QUIGLEY - In loving memory of husband and father, who was killed Sept. 26, 1957. Today recalls sad memories of our dear one gone to rest. And the ones who think of him today. Are the ones who loved him best. Always remembered by wife George and son Russell.

Fashion Favourite 1910-1959

Few Canadian men seem to wear hoods and liripipes today.

Nor, for that matter, do even the most elegant ladies wear crispines and filets. But there is and always has been general agreement on the comfort and quality of British Woollens. There's not only an imaginative variety of patterns and colours to choose from, but a distinctive range of expertly woven tweeds and twists, worsteds and crisp mohair tropicals, for anything from liripipes to modern suits and dresses. Verily: daylight or darkness, winter or summer, for all occasions no cloth is more suitable than British Woollens.
