Black Hawks Moving Away

By CHRIS ANNETT

The Habs are in trouble. At one point less than three weeks ago they enjoyed a four point margin over their closest rivals, the Black Hawks...

Despite the fact that they were hurting physically, the Habs need not be ashamed of their performance Wednesday night.

Bobby Hull, managed to pot another two markers, both of which came in the first two periods.

However the Hawks did manage to pull out the win and it gave them a very important three point lead.

OH TO BE A?

I am quite sure that not too many people have ever given any thought to this subject because it is only fantasy.

Many factors would affect his choice but the main one would undoubtedly be that "green stuff".

On the other hand the region in which you live makes a great deal of difference. A wholesome young Canadian boy would probably like nothing better than to be getting a good salary and starting for an NHL hockey team.

Just what would you be? Take into consideration all the angles such as money, the period of time you could participate, personal preferences and others.

Yankees' Roger Maris Signs 1966 Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris signed a contract Thursday to play for the same salary he received last year — an estimated $70,000 — but the New York Yankees outfielder is looking forward to an entirely different year in 1966.

"Last year was one long nightmare," said the man who has captured two American League most valuable player awards and holds the record for most major league home runs in a single season.

The 31-year-old slugger hit 54 home runs in 1961 but skidded to only eight in 1965, largely because two major injuries confined his activity to only 46 games.

Maris underwent surgery Sept. 28. His hand was in a cast for six weeks. Last Tuesday he was given a clean bill of health by a pair of bone specialists.

"My hand feels good," said Maris, who flew in from Independence, Mo., to become the first Yankee to sign his 1966 contract.

HUNTER'S CORNER

King Winter Holds Breath Fishermen Take Advantage

King Winter is holding his breath tonight and the morrow could be most anything. Whatever it is there will be no punches pulled if its for the worse and a plain ordinary morning if the storm in the offing swings off course.

A number of complaints have come in with respect to out of season trout fishing. The head of North River Causeway is reported to be one of the "hot spots" with Covehead runner up.

A number of rabbit hunters have spoken to this columnist about my remarks regarding the current scarcity of rabbits.

One party stated they shot 15 rabbits one afternoon. There are areas in the Covehead and Pleasant Grove sector and in the wilds of the old Frisland Road region where I searched for "Stills" in the days with the black duck population.

There is no sense in the rabbit hunting clan deluding themselves into the belief that our rabbit hunting is standing up under the pressure that is being applied in the days with the black duck population.

It was obvious from the first whistle that the new PVI club has not jelled and PWC dominated the play throughout the first period.

The 12 goal barrage with a soft shot along the ice that went through Reed's pads. Less than three minutes later Bob Doherty dug a loose puck from a scramble in front of the net and passed it to Ballem on the point.

Kennedy opened scoring in the second with a shot from an extreme angle to the left of the net that penetrated a mass of surging players.
