Hinton QC after being convicted of sending in a false alarm during a heavy snow storm on March 18. George R. MacMahon acted for the crown while counsel for accused was J. Watson MacNaught QC. Mr. MacMahon asked for dismissal on the grounds the accused was going through a period of the delirium tremens at the time after a period of drinking and actually thought he saw a fire. Mr. MacMahon told the court drinking was no excuse except in cases of insanity and he felt accused was not insane at the time of the offence.
