BETTER THAN 5 POUNDS

Johnny (Ross) Young of Red Point is seen holding a 5 lb., 5 oz. sea trout which he caught recently at North Lake. Too big for a landing net, Mr. Young battled the fish for a half-hour before it tired and could be dragged ashore.

The first bite of the day was made while bait fishing and what was described as the granddaddy of all trout broke the line and made off with hook, cast and line.

Town Council At Montague Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the Montague Town Council was held last night in the council chambers with Mayor Bruce H. Yeo presiding.

The regular business was carried out and final arrangements were completed for the visit of the governor-general Massey next Friday.

The committee chairmen presented their reports, and councillor Vanderstine, chairman of the police committee, reported that court will be held bi-weekly in Montague.

Councillors present were Nicholson, Hughes, Vanderstine, Greene, Fraser and Clerk G. A. Wightman.

LITTLE SANDS

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wheeler and daughter Betty, have moved back from Picotou to their home in Little Sands. Lloyd is working on the Charles A. Dunning which stays at Wood Islands at night.

The Charles A. Dunning, started on her Spring schedule, between Caribou, N. S. and Wood Islands, P. E. Island, May 1 and continued to run alone until Monday, when the Prince Nova also started to run between these two ports.

The Lord Selkirk came over to Wood Islands one trip, but owing to the sand that had accumulated in the Harbour during the winter, was not able to start her scheduled trips.

It is reported a dredge came into Wood Islands today (May 6) to start dredging there.

May 1, the bus started to run through here on her way to Charlottetown and back, going the round trip daily with extra trips on Sunday.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Jessie Campbell, of Picotou is not feeling very well. Her many friends and relatives here are wishing her a speedy recovery.

Mr. John D. MacLean, a brother of Mrs. Jessie Campbell, has returned from Caribou, where he spent the winter with his son Cecil and wife and family, to his home in Little Sands.

It's good to see the older people returning here in the Spring.

Mrs. A. D. MacNeill and Mrs. Nestor Beck accompanied Mr. Neil MacNeill to Charlottetown on Wednesday, while in Town the ladies visited Mrs. Beck's sister, Mrs. Mary MacNeill, and Mrs. Beck was an overnight guest of her sister.

Congratulations and best wishes go out to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Griffin, Albion, who were married April 26.

We were sorry to hear that

Mr. Kenzie Emery Wood Islands, met with a painful accident on Saturday, when he had his finger cut while sawing wood, which necessitated a trip to the P. E. Island Hospital. We hope his hand will soon be well again.

Best wishes go out to Mr. John Hughie MacMillan, Wood Islands, for a complete recovery soon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Munn, Marshfield, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munn, Little Sands on Sunday.

Mrs. William White, teacher at Parkdale, and Miss Mary MacPherson, teacher at Ocean View, were weekend guests in their homes in Little Sands.

Miss Kay Fraser, teacher in the Model School in Charlottetown, visited her home in Hopefield over the week-end.

Miss Eleanor Wheeler accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Hume to the city on Monday.

Mr. Neil MacNeill and his mother were visitors to Wood Islands on Sunday.

REV. D.A. CAMPBELL, minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, is seen in the pulpit of the newly renovated church. On his left is Rev. M. Carl Currie of Murray Harbour North, guest preacher at the evening service. Also shown are members of the choir who paid in part with legacies generously left to the church by the late Duncan MacDonald and the late Arthur Gordon.

Greetings were read from the United Baptist Church, Tyne Valley Presbyterian Church, and Murray Harbor North and Peter's Road Presbyterian Churches.

At the morning service flowers were presented by her family in memory of Mrs. Preston MacIntyre, and also by her daughter in memory of Mrs. Ira MacLaren.

Presbyterian Church Is Re-opened After Renovation

Special services, morning and evening, marked the re-opening of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague on Sunday, May 11th after renovation of the interior of the church.

Dedicated at the morning service with the lights was a pulpit fall, the gift of the Ladies Aid and a carpet in the chancel presented by the Young Women's Guild. Also a leather bound "Book of Praise" was the gift of "the Guild".

The Board of Managers of St. Andrew's Church is composed of Messrs. Richard MacLure, John Ballem, Preston MacLure, Glen MacLean, Malcolm Munro, William MacIntyre, and William Hicken.

The cost of the work will be

The walls have been done in birch plywood and the ceiling and floor covered with tiling. The chancel has the divided choir and the communion table in the centre.

Mr. Keith G. Pickard was the architect. The contractor was Mr. William Whiteway, Murray River. The new lighting system was installed by Mr. Preston MacLure, Montague.

Large crowds attended both services.

Contract Awarded For Souris Wharf Extension

OTTAWA (Special) — Extension of the Government wharf at Souris, P.E.I., is to be carried out this summer, John A. MacDonald, Conservative MP for Kings, announced Monday. A contract for $24,684 has been awarded to the firm of Edward Mac-

Callum of Brackley Beach, P.E.I. Mr. MacDonald said the project would be delayed until the closing of the lobster season at the end of June so construction would not hamper fishing operations.

The public works department disclosed Monday that plans and specifications for a new bridge on the Mink River, in King's County, have been approved by the government. Details as to cost and exact site will be announced at a later date.

ber industries that could possibly develop in that area.

Linked with this project—part of Mr. Diefenbaker's election "vision," to push back the northern frontiers—will be a network of northern roads and a program of research "to assist in opening up the mineral resources of our Arctic Islands."

Montague Twin Sisters To Observe 90th Birthday Today

Mrs. Frances Thompson and Miss Martha Townsend, well known and loved twin sisters of Montague, celebrated their 90th birthday today, May 13th. It is quite unusual for twins to reach such an advanced age.

The twins were born at Rollo Bay and are the daughters of the late Charles Worrel Townsend and Harriet Keefe Townsend. They are the fifth generation of Townsends in Canada.

Montague Music Festival Sessions Began Yesterday

The second King's County Music Festival opened yesterday at Montague. Sessions were held in Yeo's Theatre and were well attended. Mr. George A. Smale was the adjudicator.

At the official opening in the afternoon Mrs. E. H. Stewart, vice-president, expressed her appreciation for the splendid cooperation of all festival workers.

Equipment is to be installed in the 265-seat Commons so that English and French speeches can be translated simultaneously. For the first a member of the opposition—a Liberal—is to be named chairman of the public accounts committee to scrutinize expenditures of the previous year.

Others attending the opening were Mayor B. H. Yeo, Mrs. A. Wightman, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Raymond and Judge J. S. DesRoches.
