CAUTION.

I HEREBY caution and forbid all persons to purchase or pay any money or other security on a certain Note of Hand, bearing date 26th Sept., 1868, payable to Alex. McDonald, or order, then of Lot 38, in King's County. On the 26th of March, 1870, would be value for £36 10s., and still is, when certain conditions made at the time of making of said Note, are complied with, viz: The undersigned purchased 50 acres of land on said Township, from said Alex. McDonald, on these conditions: That the undersigned would be placed in possession of the same, free of all rents and arrears of rents, up to the time of sale, viz: 26th Sept., 1868. Now finding the proprietor claims a balance of back-rent, to the amount of £11, which the said seller has not paid. So soon as said claim is liquidated we will be answerable for the amount of the note in question.
