CEREMONIES AT KELLY'S CROSS.

A correspondent writes: Sunday, September 16th, 1900, was a day long to be remembered by the parishioners of Kelly's. From early morn streams of carriages could be seen all converging at St. Joseph's Church, and the cause of this immense throng was a four-fold ceremony to be performed there that day. On Saturday the remains of Father Duffy, laid to rest nearly forty years ago, were disinterred, placed in a beautiful new casket, provided by Mr. P. D. Hagan, undertaker, St. Ann's, Lot 65, and removed to the church, where they remained in front of the high altar till Sunday morning. About 10 o'clock Sunday morning a Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by His Lordship Bishop McDonald, with Rev. J. T. Murphy, deacon, Rev. P. McQuillan, Eccl., sub-deacon, Rev. J. J. McDonald, Thurifer, Revs. J. E. McDonald, and Dr. Doyle, as deacons of honor, while Rev. Dr. Monaghan was master of ceremonies. After the first Gospel an eloquent sermon was preached by a former pastor Rev. Dr. Doyle, of Vernon River, in his usual vigorous, polished manner, on the dignity, the power, the high office of, and the respect due to a priest of the Catholic Church, the remains of one of whom, after 40 years' quietude in the old cemetery such a vast concourse had this day congregated to reverence. Miraculous as it may seem, the remains, upon the grave being opened, were almost in a perfect state of preservation! What a joy re-awakened of the dead past in the breasts of those, who, with loving hands tenderly laid away nearly forty years ago, the remains of their beloved "old Father Duffy," to gaze again on that face they knew so well, resurrected for the moment as it were in the closing days of the 19th century.

The Pontifical Mass concluded, the ablutions were pronounced over the remains by Bishop McDonald, when the procession formed and solemnly wended its way to the newly-made grave under the shadow of the imposing monument erected by the skilled hands of Mr. Edward Duffy, Charlottetown.

Father Duffy was born in the County Monaghan, Ireland, in the year 1802, and was ordained priest in Maynooth College when about 30 years of age. (He had two brothers also priests). Shortly after his ordination he came on missionary work to America, and was for 17 or 18 years in charge of a mission 300 miles in extent, at St. Mary's Bay, Newfoundland. The hardships and sacrifices undergone by Father Duffy while located there, nearly 60 years ago, were vividly portrayed by Rev. Dr. Doyle. From St. Mary's he went to Nova Scotia, and was stationed at Antigonish for 8 or 9 years, at the end of which time he was transferred to Charlottetown, in the year 1858. Soon he was given charge of St. Ann's, Lot 65, Kelly's Cross and Kinkora. Having contracted a cold on the "cold Christmas," 1859, by visiting Kinkora, Kelly's Cross and St. Ann's, in each of which parishes he celebrated Mass, probably his last Mass in these places, he was removed to Charlottetown, and died at the palace on December 1st, 1860, in the 58th year of his age. Before his saintly spirit fled from the clay which was re-interred Sunday morning, he expressed a wish that his body should be buried at Kelly's Cross, whose people almost worshipped him, and whom he naturally loved in return.

At the conclusion of the final obsequies at the grave, the unveiling of the monument took place, the ceremony being performed by Bishop McDonald, assisted by the visiting clergy.

The Sacrament of Confirmation was administered at 3 o'clock, p. m., by the Bishop to about 60 children, after which the cemetery was visited by the Bishop and clergy.

A TEACHER ADDRESSED.

At the close of a well attended and successful oral examination in Mt. Stewart South School, the teacher, who is about to take his departure, was presented with a handsome dressing case and the following address:

Mr. John C. McDonald,
Dear Teacher,—With feelings of sincere regret we learn that you are about to leave us, and as pupils of this school we take the opportunity of expressing our gratitude for the many benefits we received under your instruction for the past five and a half years. Since it has been our privilege to be under your training we have always found you an earnest persevering and efficient teacher, ever ready to devise some means or method for the advancement of your pupils. You have not only done what you considered the most essential for our educational attainment, but for the moulding of our characters as well. In looking back on the past we will always cherish the kindest remembrance of the many pleasant events that have occurred in connection with our school. Trusting that on leaving us, whatever position in life you follow may your labors be crowned with success.
Ere you go, we beg you to accept the accompanying gift, not for its intrinsic value, but as a slight token of our appreciation of your faithful and conscientious work among us, and as a souvenir of your pupils.

Signed on behalf of the school.

A DAILY NUISANCE.

Simple and Easy with W. Interest
est Catarrh Sufferers.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later, the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucus, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuff, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surface.

A new remedy which meets these requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

The tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine as they are composed of such valuable remedies as Sanguinaria, Hydrastin, Eucalypt and similar cleansing antiseptic which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large pleasant-tasting lozenges taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, in this way they reach the throat, faces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole catarrh trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching and local application and further says that probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full sized packages. Ask your druggist and if he is honest he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

MARRIED.

Is there anything in a name? A good deal sometimes, as in the case of the Empress-dowager of China. It reads, in full as follows:—Tsu-hsi-tuan-yu-kang-i-chac-yu-chuang-cheng-shou-kung-ching-hsien-hsi. And yet some are wondering why she despises men who can only muster such simple combinations of syllables as Pichon, Joostens, Macdonald, or Conger!

Attack of Royal Canadians at Paardeberg

It is a time when war pictures are in greater demand than ever. The conduct of the British soldiers on the battlefield has won the plaudits of admiring nations. We have at great expense published four large, beautiful pictures, size 20x24, on heavy, super-royal, calendar paper. A picture that will commend itself and send a thrill to the heart of every true Canadian is the one called Attack of Royal Canadians at Paardeberg. There are literally hundreds of figures on this picture, the mountains or kopjes stretching out into the distance are swarming with men while here and there a prosaic figure speaks only too well of the Boer riflemen. It was on this battlefield the gallant Major Arnold met death unflinchingly. Indeed it is only too true, that many of those gallant hearts that beat so high when the cheering thousands bade them God-speed as they sailed from Canada's shores now lie still forever in lonely graves on the other side of the world under African skies. To every Canadian heart, to every Canadian home, the deeds of their brave soldier boys speak with an irresistible thrill of patriotism and pride. Gordon Highlanders at the Battle of Belmont, Charging the Boer Guns at Elandsbaagte, and the Charge of Gen. French's Cavalry on the Retreating Gen. Cronje's Army. These are all stirring pictures and cannot fail to commend themselves to any one who will examine them. They are RED HOT SELLERS! Agents coin money. Big profits. Enormous success. One agent sold 68 in one day. Samples and terms 25 cts. (None free); four $0.95; $1.75 per doz; 25 for $3.25; 50 for $6.00; 100 for $11.00. Write today for a dozen and make money. # DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR

There's not one cent's difference in the value of a Gold dollar and a dollar's worth of wearing apparel at our prices. Both are face values, and represent one hundred cents on the dollar. The five dollar Jackets at our store are marvellous values and the people are not slow to find it out.

Money Lost

The lost money is what you pay for Jackets that are cheaply made to sell cheap. More money is lost in the effort to economize on the buying of shoddy, cheap Jackets than there is ever saved in the buying. For Three Dollars we offer you your choice of many nice glove-fitting jackets. These Jackets are well made and of very good cloth, and decidedly better looking and better fitting than can be bought in any other store at this price.

Money Found

Every Jacket sold this year at our store will make you find more money in your pocket next morning than if you bought the same quality elsewhere.

Our $7.00 Jacket is a fine German make, well lined and put together right, made in all the popular shapes and shades, its worth more money but we got them cheaper this year, because we bought for two large stores.

Money Saved

Common sense teaches that careful buying means money saved. These Jackets we're offering at $10.00 were bought cheaply because we bought large quantities for two large stores, in both of which the $10.00 Jacket is the most popular seller.

But if you wish to pay more for yours why we have it up to $20.00 the prices between are all you'd ask too.

Money Made

No dollar can be worth more than a dollar portion of any of our Jackets, dollar for dollar, you'll never find more nicely explained than at our great Jacket Department where there is thousands of garments to choose from and all of them right.

You don't need Opera Glasses to see the value in these Jackets either.
