GAME UNDER PROTEST

Gregory's Slam Powers Lions To 7-1 Triumph

With first baseman Sammy Gregory supplying the plate power and coach Lorne Israel the pitching, Barry's Lions roared to a 7-1 victory over Rollaway Aces in the opening game of the City Softball League semi-finals at Memorial Field last night.

Gregory swung the big stick for the Lions as he clubbed a grand slam home run in the fifth inning to put the lid on what had been a close contest. Coach Israel allowed three hits in the first two innings, but settled down to hold the hard fighting Aces to a single bingle over the last five frames.

The Lions, league champions in 1957, scored all seven runs in two big innings. They spotted Aces a single tally in the top of the second, but came back with three in the second half of the same frame, despite getting only two hits. Gregory's fifth-inning slam gave the Lions a 1-0 lead in the best-of-five series.

UNDER PROTEST

However, the final outcome of the game may rest with league officials. Aces' Coach Willis Hennessey played the game under protest from the first inning.

Cause of the protest was a play in which Aces base-runner Irv MacKinnon was called out in an attempt to gain third base after teammate Reg Hughes grounded foul attempting to bunt a third strike.

Hughes was automatically out and Hennessey contended that the ball was no longer in play and MacKinnon should heve been sent back to second base rather than be called out.

Israel went the distance for the Lions and was never in any real trouble. He gave up only four singles, walked but two and fanned two. After the second, the Aces threatened in the fifth when they got the sacks loaded with two out. But Israel got Reg Hughes to ground out, forcing Ralph Pineau at third.

Pineau started for the Aces and hurled good ball. A streak of wildness, when he walked three, cost him three runs in the second. He allowed six hits.

He gave way in the fifth to Henry Hartinger, who was tagged for one hit.

The Lions and Aces go at it again Thursday evening in the second game of the series. This evening B.I.S. Shamrocks and the pennant winning B.Y.C. start series "A".

Jack Ready called the balls and strikes. Red MacFadyen and Len Arsenault were on the bases.

LITTLE NELLIE STRETCHES

For a little man Nellie Fox, Chicago White Sox 2nd baseman, does a mighty stretch to put out Harry Chiti, Kansas City catcher, at 2nd base in 5th inning of the game in Chicago. Chiti was forced out when Joe DeMaestri, KC shortstop, grounded to Sox, 3rd baseman Billy Goodman, who threw to Fox. White Sox won the game 5-2.

Stuart Romps At Chicago's Expense; Giants Tip Reds

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Dick Stuart of minor - league home run fame continued Tuesday to fatten up on Chicago Cub pitching. The rookie blasted a two-run homer to give Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-3 victory.

Also in the National League, in the only other daytime game in the majors, San Francisco Giants downed Cincinnati. The score in this case was 4-3, also, as Johnny Antonelli pitched five-hit ball and Willie Kirkland tripled in the 10th inning to drve in the winning run.

Stuart now has collected 10 homers since he was recalled from Salt Lake City after the all-star game. Four of these have been at the expense of the Cubs, including a grand slammer.

Bill Mazeroski drove in the other two Pittsburgh runs with his 15th home run.

The victory went to Curt Raydon, boosting him to a 7-3 mark. He was yanked for a pinch hitter in the seventh and Bob Porterfield checked the Cubs the rest of the way. Taylor Phillips, shifted in the sixth, was the loser, making him 6-7.

ANTONELLI BIG GUN

At San Francisco, Antonelli was superb until the ninth when Pete Whisenant cracked his seventh homer with one on to tie the score at 3-3.

Antonelli homered in the third and the Giants stayed ahead until the fateful ninth.

Hal Jeffcoat, who relieved ex-old Giant nemesis, Bob Purkey, in the seventh, was the Cincinnati loser. His record is five wins, eight losses. Antonelli's is 14-8.

Patterson's Title Defense Successful Financially Too

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's successful title defence against Roy Harris was a financial as well as an artistic victory.

Promoter Bill Rosensohn, trying his hand at the fight game for the first time, said Tuesday that Patterson's 12th - round knockout over the big fellow from Cut and Shoot, Tex., attracted 21,680 fans to Wrigley Field Monday night.

The gross was $234,183.25 and the net $202,764.83.

The gross broke the California record of $233,331 for the Sugar Ray Robinson-Bobo Olsen middleweight fight here in May, 1956.

Harris, 25 - year - old school teacher, was in seclusion Tuesday with his pretty wife Jean.

Dr. Rudolph Ponce of the state athletic commission said it took 14 stitches to sew up three cuts on Harris' face. Two were slight cuts about the left eye. Ten stitches were needed for a jagged slash above the right eyebrow.

Otherwise, Harris, who lost his first fight after 22 straight wins, was in good physical shape and his bankroll was enriched by his $100,000 guarantee.

Patterson, floored for a four-count in the second round, got up to give Harris a merciless beating. The champion reduced the challenger's face to a cut, bloody mess and knocked him down four times.

Harris' trainer called it quits after the 12th round and it went into the records as a knockout.

Patterson, 23, of Mt. Vernon, N.Y., was unmarked and he, too, could count his third winning defence of the title a most lucrative one.

Patterson got 50 per cent of the net live gate and a similar share of the closed circuit theatre television. He clears an estimated $300,000.

ALOUETTES FALL, 27-14

Faloney Hurls 4 T.D. Passes

MONTREAL (CP) — Hamilton Tiger-Cats shook off a lacklustre start Tuesday night and rode the passing arm of import quarterback Bernie Faloney to a 27-14 victory over Montreal Alouettes in the team's Big Four football opener, a twilight affair.

Faloney, considered more of a ground attack pilot, threw passes for all four of the Grey Cup defenders' touchdowns.

They were scored by Canadians Gerry McDougall, Ronnie Howell and Bill Graham and import end Paul Dekker. Graham converted two and Cam Fraser booted a single for the final point.

Montreal counted all their points, two converted touchdowns, before the Ti-Cats got on the scoresheet. Joel Wells capped an 82-yard Montreal drive at 7:05 of the first quarter by scooting over from the Hamilton 12.

WELLS AGAIN

Wells also scored Montreal's second touchdown after Dick Hunter intercepted a Faloney pass midway through the second suarter.

Hunter lateralled to Hal Patterson who carried to the Hamilton 38 and six plays later Wells bullied over for the score from the one.

Both were converted by Bill Bewley.

The Ti-Cats struck for two touchdowns a minute and a half apart before the second quarter ended as the big Hamilton offensive line began to find itself.

At 12:55 McDougall gathered in a short heave from Faloney on the Montreal six and outraced the secondary.

C. MacDonald, Summerside, P.E.I., took a two-stroke lead after the first 18 of a 36-hole match for the Maritimes senior title which will be decided today.

In second-division play, Mrs. E. Colter, Dartmouth and Gail Mustard, Charlottetown, meet in the final.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

This evening the team that nobody gave any chance a short time ago of making the City Softball League playoffs find themselves opponets of The Junior Basilica Youth Club in the semi-final bracket.

The B.I.S. Shamrocks are the outfit that floundered helplessly while most of the other teams were piling up much coveted points. They are the same crew that managed to salvage four wins in their first 22 starts. They are the same gang that refused to believe that their chances were all used up and that their playoff hopes had completely vanished.

It's true that Junior B.Y.C. finished on top in the regular schedule, but it's also true that the same Juniors are not taking anything for granted in this playoff series with the Fighting' Irish. The Shamrocks had fairly good success with the Juniors in regular play. B.Y.C. know that full well and aren't making any rash predictions about the outcome of this best-of-five set.

If memory serves us right it was Liguorian Youth Club a few years back that just managed to squeeze into the playoffs and then ran away with the league championship. Mind you, we are not predicting the Irish are going to duplicate the feat of the L.Y.C. but history does have a habit sometimes of repeating itself.

The Irish know that they have the chance of a lifetime and they believe to a man that they can go all the way. But before they even make the final round they must dispose of the B.Y.C. and that looks like quite an order. The regular schedule winners have a pretty fair softball team, otherwise they would never have finished on top in regular season play.

The Irish must beat fellows like hurlers john Hughes, Mike O'Brien and Father Roche. They must sideline a team that all summer has played fine defensive ball. And they must stop fellows like Frank "Bull" Dunn, Apps Arsenault and a few others from slamming the ball all over the lot.

"It's a tall order and one that even the Fightin' Irish will have much trouble in carrying out. We'll just wait and see.

Tonight's game is a big one and the winner will be in the driver's seat, no question about that.

So don't miss the action which gets underway at 5.45 at Memorial Field. It should be a real thriller.

* * * * *

The great majority of major league pitchers are mighty useless when it comes to swinging a bat. A few fellows like Don Newcombe, Don Larsen, Mickey McDermott and Warren Spahn were exceptions to the rule but the most of the other hurlers are lucky if they get one in 20 trips to the plate.

Los Angeles pitcher Carl Erskine doesn't think it's strange that moundsmen make such a poor showing at the plate.

Erskine claims that pitchers can't hit for the same reason that they don't bring in Snider or Mays or Aaron to pitch. Carl argues that although these great sluggers have strong arms, heir ability doesn't lie in pitching. Pitching, claims Carl, is an art in itself.

Erskine continues: "The same principle applies to pitchers as hitters. It's not just their cup of tea.

I've always maintained that a pitcher at bat should concentrate on not striking out. If he only bounces the ball back to the opposing pitcher or makes some infielder handle the ball, he has a chance to move men on the bases. It's inexcusable to walk a pitcher. You should bear down on him as hard as you do on a slugger, because he figures to be an automatic out. Since pitchers aren't expected to hit anyway, they don't pursue it like the players who have to hit to hold their jobs. But that doesn't mean that a pitcher is less an athlete than a fence buster."

* * * * *

The wise ones were having a field day of late when the New York Yankees started dropping ball games. These students of the game had it all figured out. The Bombers just weren't trying to win.

It's true that unless something really terrible happens to Casey Stengel's men, they'll be representing the American League in the World Series come October. As far as pressure goes—that's pennant pressure—we can't see for a moment that any is weighing down on the New Yorkers.

But we do think the Yankees try to win ever ball game and when they don't win they feel mighty bad about it. An utterance by Gil McDougald makes us believe we are right in this regard.

Just before the Yankees hit the skids a bit, Gil said:

"I don't want to get too close to Casey Stengel today. He's been real rough the last couple of weeks. Casey's tougher when we're winning. Here's the way h figures it. He gets to thinking that if we should blow it, then he'd look like a bum.

It sounds hard to believe, but that's the way he thinks. He's real sympathetic when we're going bad. He figures when we lose a few it's not going to improve us if he gets on us. It's only when we're winning that he goes to the whip. On this club the players don't get tired of winning. They drill it into you too much. You live with it, and if you don't want to win, you wake up some morning in another town."

All of which is most interesting but it just doesn't agree with yesterday's wire story telling us that Casey had blown his top because his ball club had dropped eight out of eleven ball games, that's not including yesterday's game.

McDougall's story may be 100 percent but if it is, then Old Case must have changed his tactics lately. When a team like the Yankees decides to blow 8 out of 11 ball games, surely a fellow like Stengel has a right to adopt a new policy.

While Casey was blasting away, the runner up Chicago White Sox were breathing right down the Yankees necks, a mere eleven games away.

Pardon us while we laugh.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

The 1958 Old Home Week is over and memories of the good racing program will linger for a long time. It set a new record for money's distribution, and for the number of racing programs. The weatherman took a kindly view of proceedings, and although he sprinkled Nova Scotia and New Brunswick quite heavily with rain on Wednesday, all was clear at Charlottetown. Whether you can take that as a favor from him, or just a freak of the elements, it certainly proved of great help in giving the Exhibition directors a chance to end their programs with something to the good.

While Old Home Week held the limelight for some time, there have been happenings away from here that we feel our readers should know about. At Foxboro last week, Tab Direct 2.05 4-5, won an $1100 Pace in 2.06 2-5. He is by Norris Hanover and his dam is June Morning 2.04 3-5 by Calumet Budlong 2.02 3-4. June Morning was owned by George MacDonald of Mermaid, prior to her sale to a party in New Brunwwick.

While the pari-mutuel machines were clicking gaily at Charlottetown, they also set up a new record at Yonkers Raceway on Saturday night, August 9th, when a record crowd of 40,344 pushed $2,292,484 through the machines in the nine-dash program.

The previous record at Yonkers had been $2,154,176 established on November 15, 1954.

TO DRIVE

Friends of Harry Coleman will be glad to learn that he has been selected by the Snow Stables to drive their horses at Bay State Raceway and elsewhere for the remainder of the season. He is a consistent and skilled reinsman and has trained and driven his own trotters and pacers, also those owned by others, during the past years and has won many events. The regular trainer-driver, Ken Russell, will continue to train the string.

A clipping sent us gives the information that the lades are becoming great fans of harness racing, and because of that Bay State Raceway at Foxboro is setting aside every Thursday night as "Ladies Night". It goes on to say that age is not a determining factor among the ladies, either. "Young, middle-aged or old—they all enjoy the sport. Naturally, such enthusiasm is welcome," says Walter Gibbons. "In appreciation of this support from the "fems", Bay State Raceway will present an automatic dishwasher and a clothes dryer after a drawing tonight—a very appropriate gift for housewives, or brides-to-be," Gibbons concluded.

SURPRISE

At Sackville Downs last Saturday night, a large gathering of spectators were treated to a real surprise when the five-year-old pacer Frenchman, owned and driven by Jimmy Given of Halifax, set up a new track pacing record for Sackville Downs. He won the feature event of the night—the free-for-all in 2.06.

Dave Grattan, driven by Lloyd Walker, had won the previous dash of this race in 2.07, with Frenchman second. The summary of the other horses was: Mighty Glib (H. Harrison) 3-4, Newport Chief (D. Walsh) 5-3, Darn Good Pick (E Shaw) 4-5, times 2.07 and 2.06. Dave Grattan owned by the L. and G. Stables, Halifax.

ONE OWNER

The former track record was 2.06 4-5, made last season by Fred Scott and equalled this season by Mighty Glib. Mr. Given is the owner of both these fast steppers.

Other winners were: Races 1 and 4 - Little Deb (R. Johnson) 1-3, Abbasong (L. Walker) 8-1, Runnymeade Darby (Lavers) 2-2, Gay Music (R. Kidney) 3-7, four other starters, time 2.14 4-5 and 2.47 3-5 (one and one - quarter miles in the second heat) Little Deb owned by W. Comstock, Hantsport; Abbasong by the L. and G. Stable.

Races 2 and 6 - Our Conn (D. Walsh) 1-1, Falcourt Hero Mine (Mauger) 2-2, Royal Atom (A. Langille) 3-3, three other starters, time 2.11 3-5 and 2.12 1-5; Our Conn owned by Cruikshank Stables, Halifax.

Race 5 - Angus L. (D. Ratchford) 1, Ronnie Spencer (H. Yorke) 2. Spic 'N Span (L. Smith) 3, Bumpsey (E. Shaw) 4, four other starters, time 2.21; Angus L. owned by John Cruikshank, Halifax. Race 8 - Globetrotter (L. O'Brien) 1, Tenniswood (Gaudet) ., Bobby Hunter (O. Phillips) 3, Gay Three (D. Walsh) 4, four other starters, time 2.13 4-5; Globetrotter owned by C.A. Grainger and R. A. Stewart, Halifax.

BIGGEST EVER

The recent Old Home Week race meet had the largest racing program that has ever been held on a Maritime track, and we believe that our readers will be interested in some of the statistics concerning it. It consisted of six night racing programs and five afternoon programs, commencing on Monday, August 11, and concluding on Saturday night, August 16.

There was a total of 91 dashes, of which 16 were for trotters and 75 for pacers, The fastest mile trotted was by Blake Hanover 2.09 4-5, owned by Stanley Mayhew, Kinkora, P. E. I. and driven by Clarkie Smith - Time 2.10 2-5. The fastest miles paced were by Walter Rosecroft 2.07 1-5, driven by Frank Daniels and owned by R. E. McCoombs, Newcastle, N.B. -Time 2.08 1-5 and 2.08 1-5.

The following horses paced in 2.10 or better: Josedale Clansman, owned and driven by George Turner - 2.09 and 2.10; Ann's Dream, owned and driven by George Callbeck - 2.10; Raven Abbe 2.07, owned by H. R. Bevan and driven by James MacGregor - 2.10; Dixie K., owned by Wilson and Murchison, Saint John, N.B., driven by Collins - 2.10.

The leading driver of the meeting was Clark Smith of Hunter River. He is the youngest driver to win such an award in the history of Maritime racing. "Clarkie," as his friends call him, was born in Hunter River on August 6, 1937, so has just passed his 21st. birthday.

The Smith family is also represented in Maritime turf battles by Clarkie's brother, Elmer L. Smith, age 24, and his "daddy," Cyril Smith, age 45, both of whom have stables at Sackville Downs.

Due credit must also be given to one of the most popular drivers at the Charlottetown track, who was runner - up to Clarkie for the coveted British Consols Trophy. This award, formerly a beautiful trophy, is now given in the form of a cheque from the MacDonald Tobacco Co., to whom credit must be given for interest in our racing. The above man to whom we refer is Lem Neill, who finished second. Roy Barnett took third place. Finally we hand a bouquet to Race Secretary E. Frank for an excellent performance as classifier and announcer.

FROM UTAH

Clarence Hansen of California is having good success with his stable at Foxboro, Mass. Clarence's original home was in the Mormen country in Utah, but years ago he went out to California and located at Beaumont where he trains a stable of trotters and pacers and races at meetings held there during the winter and spring months, then ships to Foxboro where he is now located.

He has 30 years of experience. One of the top horses in his stable is Hawkins Hoss 2.01, owned by Walter S. Found, Merced, Cal., formerly of this province, and we notice that on Friday night. August 15, Hawkins Hoss won thewon teh 2.10 Pace Early Closer, purse $3,000 from a fast field in 2.04.

DOUBLE WIN

And here's good news about Joe O'Brien! In the American National three - year - old pace, purse $15,000, raced at Chicago Downs half - mile track last August 6, Raider Frost, owned by the Camp Stable and driven by Joe, was 1-1 Thorpe Hanover (D. Miller) 2-2, times 2.04 2-5 and 2.05.

So far this season Raider Frost has won $27,134 for his owners, and in his racing career as a two and three - year - old to date he has won $56,038.

And we are also very pleased to note that Gratis Hanover, owned by R. J. Logue of Sydney, N. S., won the A Trot, purse $3,500, at Yonkers Raceway August 5, time 2.04 3-5.

Monday night's racing at Sackville Downs was cut short by a downpour of rain which halted the program after four races. Here are the winners: Race 1 - Just Rita (D. Walsh) 1, Maplewood's Queen (D. Ratchford) 2, Dynamite Volo (S. Daniels) 3, Wait For Me (Moreside) 4, four other starters, time 2.14 2-5; Just Rita owned by the Cruikshank Stable, Halifax.

Race 2 - Hi Gal (L. Walker) 1, Leon Spangler (E. Smith) 2, Direct Mite (Moreside) 3, Don Truax (G. Gaudet) 4, Crystal Maid (Mauger) 5, Abner McGraw (J. Campbell) 6, Minneapolis (J. MacGregor) 7, Theo A. Nick (L. O'Brien) 8, time 2.14; winning owner L. and G. Stables, Halifax.

Race 3 - Runnymeade Beale (H. Mount) 1, Slicker Tass (D. Ratchford) 2, Newport Dean (L. Walker) 3, Darn Good Pick (E. Shaw) 4, Congressional Boy (A. Langille) 5, Mighty Special (Harrison) 6, time 2.11; winning owner - John S. Savage, Fredericton. It will be noted that in the above race, Runnymeade Beale, a trotter, outfooted five fast pacers.

Race 4 - Wait For Me (Moreside) 1, Fresh Girl (Walsh) 2, Just Rita (D. Walsh) 3, Avalon Gal (L. Austin) 4, three other starters, time 2.19 4-5; winner owned by George Gregory, Parkdale, P. E. I.

SPORT ECHOES

BY NORMAN MACDONALD

Summerside Pontiacs lost a tough ball game at Queen Elizabeth Park on Saturday afternoon. If ever a victory was "in the bag" and still managed to trickle out through a hole in the canvas, it was that one. The Summerside Juniors were leading in the fifth inning 7-0 but lost the game 8-7 in eleven innings.

Garth Harris was breezing along like a pro, allowing only two hits in five frames. But none of the pitchers have had enough work this year to be effective for much longer than five innings and the Capital city hoys started to get to him, and to relief pitcher, John Bethel . Bethel has loads of promise but is young for Junior competition.

On the other hand Brian Lewis threw in as reliefer, Roger MacLeod, a brother of "Duck" MacLeod, has had a try-out with Stellarton in the H and D. League this year. He had too much class for our local batsmen who were held hitless while the visitors were making the long up-hill fight to victory.

We hated to be pessimistic but with MacLeod on the mound for Charlottetown we think there are two strikes on the Pontiacs in this series already. Don't mind us, boys. Give it the old college try, by all means. Many, many times players have hit the third strike for a home run.

The Summerside Little Leaguers start their play-offs this week with Rotary capturing top spot in the regular league standing. Also on Thursday of this week, each of the service clubs will play its own Little League Club. With the wisdom of experience (???) sabotaged a little perhaps, by arthritis, bursitis, house-maid's knee and other kindered ailments pitted against flaming youth, something is bound to give even if it's only an achilles tendon.

The Jambouree will finish up with a grand and glorious barbecue, (or cook-out), when the youngsters will almost certainly outeat, if they can't outhit, their older rivals.

We had some wild and wooly wrestling at Civic Stadium on our last card. Somebody, we think it was Duffy, said that the only difference between Grand Opera and real life is that, when a Grand Opera star is stabbed, instead of bleeding he sings.

Roberto Caruso, the wrestler, has another technique. When somebody nicks him, instead of bleeding he pumps out of the ring, tears up the steps, and kicks over the ring-side seats. The card slated for Summerside on Tuesday has been postponed, by the way, because of a mix-up in dates.
