FOR SALE.

RARE CHANCE

The property occupied by J. J. Gay and son situated in the village of Pownal, 7 miles from Charlottetown, is offered for sale. The proprietors have carried on a large market garden nursery and seed business for thirty years, and the purchaser will no doubt retain a large share of the local trade. The premises comprise a large dwelling house, a store, warehouse, barn, shed, orchard, and about 15 acres of the most fertile land on the island. This land has been manured year after year, for so long that an old man said the other day: "It is all a bed of manure and could be hauled for top dressing." This would be an ideal spot for a country merchant, or it would be admirable for a summer resort. The situation is one of the most beautiful on the island. Good bathing, fishing, boating, shooting and within easy distance, churches, post office school telephone and shops all at the door. For terms and further particulars, apply to Von Clure Gay, J. J. Gay & son or to, JOHN T. MELLISH, Solicitor Charlottetown

Dairy and Creamery.

Two hundred cows will keep a creamery going if they can furnish 4,000 pounds of milk daily. Five hundred cows would not suffice for it unless they yielded that much. In considering the question of starting a creamery you must find out whether the cows within reach are able to give 4,000 pounds of milk per day. Listen not to the honeyed words of the creamery shark who wants to sell machinery. Take counsel rather of the inner light of your own common sense.

A little New York Jersey heifer less than 14 months old last winter dropped a fine bull calf and is giving plenty of milk.

A creamery cannot be made to pay that only runs eight months a year. The best system is that which takes up cheesemaking in summer and butter making in winter.

From $2,000 to $2,500 will be required to build and start a creamery.

It is a poor time now to start in the creamery business except in localities where there are plenty of dairy cows and no creamery already upon the ground. The prices of dairy products are low, and the risk of a new creamery is great. It is best at present to bring those already established up to the highest efficiency.

MESSAGE TO MEN

Proving that True Honesty and True Philanthropy still Exist

If any man who is weak, nervous and debilitated, or who is suffering from any of the various troubles resulting from youthful folly, excesses or overwork, will take heart and write to me, I will send him confidentially and free of charge the plan pursued by which I was completely restored to perfect health and manhood, after years of suffering from Nervous Debility, loss of Vigor and Organic Weakness.

I have nothing to sell and therefore want no money, but as I know through my own experience how to sympathize with such sufferers, I am glad to be able to assist any fellow-being to a cure. I am well aware of the prevalence of quackery, for I myself was deceived and imposed upon until I nearly lost faith in mankind but I rejoice to say that I am now perfectly well and happy once more and am desirous therefore to make this certain means of cure known to all. If you will write to me you can rely upon being cured and the proud satisfaction of having been of great service to one in need will be sufficient reward for my trouble. Absolute secrecy assured. Send 5c silver to cover postage and address Mr. G. Strong, North Rockland, Mich. 135 p & w.

Bumps and Brains.

The president of the British Phrenological institution has asked Miss Marie Corelli whether she will allow her head to be "phrenologically examined" by an "expert" in such matters and the result published in the institute's current year book. The novelist has answered the application in the following lively fashion:

DEAR SIR-I have always been under the impression that my head is to all intents and purposes my own and that the secrets of its working power are, so to speak, a strictly personal matter between it and myself, in which outsiders have no right whatever to share. Erroneous as that impression may be, I still retain it, and if the old customs of Tower Hill were yet in force I should think it consistent with dignity rather to lay down that head on the block for a "cause" than submit it to the prying observation of a "phrenological expert," in order that his opinion thereon should be published in a year book of egregious modern "celebrities." Permit me to add that I do not consider myself a "celebrity," and have no wish to "pose" as such. Pray take this letter in the friendly spirit with which it is indited and understand that, like the "play" of which Mr. Forbes-Robertson in his unrivaled impersonation of Hamlet speaks, "There's no offense in't." Faithfully yours, MARIE CORELLI.

Family Roll Call.

The household of Louis Hano, who died in Philadelphia recently, was conducted upon a rather unusual scale. Mr. Hano was the father of 15 children and had 9 grandchildren, and in order to accommodate his family not one dwelling, but two made into one, was found necessary. It was more like New York apartment house life than the domesticity indigenous to the City of Homes. It is said that each morning upon arising and each night before going to bed it was the custom to call the roll for the entire family.

We are in the Dairy Supply business to stay, notwithstanding the unfair competition of an official whose travelling expenses are paid out of the public funds. We pay our own, and will compete with any of the Quebec houses thus represented, for quality of workmanship in cheese vats, cream vats, either single or duplex, portable or stationary, tempering or receiving vats, and all other Dairy Supplies in stock or to order at short notice.

We have on hand Alpha Separators which return more money to the patrons than any other. Separator oil that will insure safer running at extreme speed than any other on the market. Butter Boxes for storing and shipping butter in. Dairy plants that will run without an expert engineer on hand. Boilers that will save fuel over any other that has been imported so far. Engines that do not require to be driven to extreme speed to obtain enough power. All work warranted for one year.
