"National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation"

A new comedy to be shown across Canada on December 1st.

Warner Bros. "National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation," a new comedy starring Chevy Chase as hapless, loving family man Clark Griswold, will open across Canada on December 1st. In this latest "Vacation" outing, America's most dedicated fan is determined to stay at home to create "the most fun-filled old-fashioned family Christmas ever" - but life has a particular way of throwing wet logs on Clark's fire!

"National lampoon's Christmas Vacation" also stars Beverly D'Angelo, Randy Quaid, Diane

Ladd, John Randolph, E.G. Marshall, Doris Roberts and Julia Louis-Dreyfus as assorted Griswold family and neighbours. The film is written and produced by John Hughes, who has delighted audiences with such smash successes as "National Lampoon's Vacation," "Mr. Mom," "Sixteen Candles," "The Breakfast Club," "Ferris Bueller's Day Off," "Planes, Trains and Automobiles" and "Uncle Buck." The film is directed by newcomer Jeremiah S. Chechik.

Chevy Chase has appeared in a long string of feature film hits, including the first "National Lampoon's Vacation," its "European Vacation" sequel, "Cad-dyshack", "Fletch," "Spies Like Us," "Three Amigos" and "Fletch Lives". He first became well known to the American public as one of the original writers and ensemble members of "Saturday Night Live."

Warner Bros. presents A Hughes Entertainment Production, Chevy Chase starring in "National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation." The film is produced by John Hughes and Tom Jacobson. Matty Simmons is the executive producer. The director of photography is Thomas Ackerman, with Stephen Marsh as production designer and Jerry Greenberg as editor. The music by Angelo Badalamenti.
