SWEET HOME OF CHILDHOOD.

Though sweet Birds are singing
In the sweet Month of May,
And Nature is bringing
Her stores to the day.
Yet pretty birds singing
So sweet on each tree
And pretty flowers springing
Are charmless to me.

'Tis not love's cruel goadings
Nor fortune's dark scowl,
Nor the future's dark bodings
That press on my soul.
My heart's in the the wildwood
Where all nature roves free;
Sweet home of childhood
I languish for thee.

BILL TO PREVENT THE SALE OF QUACK MEDICINES.—A special committe of the House reported this morning, throgh Dr Winslow Lewis of Boston, ä bill regulating the compounding and selling of medicines. The first section provides that no druggist, apothecary or persons engaged in manufacturing medicines or compounds to be administered as medicine—except such as are published in standard works of chemistry, materia medica or pharmacopeia—shall offer the same for sale in any way till he has filed a complete recipe in English, sworn to before a legal authorty constituted for such purpose. The remaning sections of the bill secure by penalties the operation of the first, and direct that the recipe of the practising physician temporarily given, shall not be included in the action of the bill. Thus the components of all patent medicines will be made public, and, the community be enable-to reject quack nostrums, while truly valuable discoveries will become common property.

The bill and report were placed in the orders of the day and ordered to be printed—[Boston Traveller.

THE SABBATH IN FRANCE.—When an election is ordered in France, Sunday is generally the day the ballots are cast. Sunday is the chosen time there, for fairs of all sorts—for public meetings, for parades, and so on. It was only the other day that the new Emporer Napoleon himself went a hunting in the forest of Fontainbleau, with a royal retinue, on Sunday. The fourth commandment is universally ignored. A nation which thus holds in contempt the christain institution of the Sabbath, is not likely to be greatly moral in other respects. Yet some people are all the while puzzling their brains to descover why France is not a Republic insead of a Monarchy—a democracy instead of a despotism. A republic implies self-government, yet how can a nation govern itself when it neglects the only means that enables it, individually and in the aggregate to govern itself?

A SERMON By an old and eccentric English divine, that is so brief, terse, and to the point, that we cannot resist the inclination to print tt. Many a discourse of an hour's length has contained not half its impressive inculcatious:

"'Be sober, grave, temperate.'—TITUS ii. 9.

"I. There are three companious with whom you should always keep on good terms.
"First, Your Wife.
"Second, Your Stomach.
"Third, Your Conscience.

"II. If you wish to enjoy peace, long life, and happiness, preserve them by temperance. Intemperance produces:
"First, Domestic misery.
"Second, Premature death.
"Third, Infidelity.

"To make these points clear, I refer you:
"First, To the Newgate Calendar.
"Second, To the hospitals, lunatic asylum, and work-houses.
"Third, To the experience of what you have seen, read, and suffered, in mind, body, and estate. "Reader, decide! which will you choose? TEMPERANCE, with happiness and long life; or INTEMPERANCE, with misery and premature death?"

THE SOLDIER AND THE KING.—The King of Prussia had heard that a brave and favorite corporal in one of his regiments, who was known as a handsome young man, wore, out of vanity, a watch chain suspended from a bullet in his fob. Having the curiosity to investigate the fact, he walked purposely to him one morning, and said:

"Why, corporal, you are a brave fellow to have saved enough to buy a watch."

"Sire," said the corporal, "I flatter myself I am brave, but as for my watch, it is of little signification."

Pulling out his splendid gold watch, the King continued:

"By my time piece, it is five; what is it by yours?"

The corporal, pulling out his bullet with a trembling hand, replied:

"My watch tells me neither five nor six, but shows me clearly that I must be ready at any time to die for your Majesty."

A smile lighted up the usually stern countenance of the King.

"Keep, then, your time-piece," said he, "since it reminds you of your duty; and accept mine, also"—throwing the chain over his neck, "in token that your King appreciates, and can reward the loyalty and devotion of a gallant soldier."

There is reason to fear that the following, which comes from New Hampshire, is, as the newspapers say, 'to good to be true:'

"As two men in Enfield, in the upper part of Keene, were last week crossing a pond in persuit of a moose, one of them being thirsty, and perceiving a hole which had been cut through the ice by some fishermen, he stooped down to drink. Being possessed of a long red nose, a fish supposed he had some bait, and made bold to snap at it, when the man suddenly throwing his head back, drew out a trout which weighed three ponnds and four ounces!"

IT is situated Nine miles from Charlottetown on the entrance of the New Glasgow Road, and consists of a 100 acres more or less; the property of JOHN HUDSON, late of the 8th (King's) Regt., and on which he now resides,—the farm will be let for a term of 10 15, or 20, years. The dwelling house is very comfortable but not very large, there is a well of water at the kitchen door; the office houses are very commodious and will contain a number of cattle. There are two barns, one for hay, with a granary on it, and the other for thrashing, containing a new set of machinery, both thrashing mill and fanners. The thrashing mill is of four horse power, and of great speed, thrashing at the rate of 50 stooks an hour. The fanners are quite new and very good ones. The land is all clear and in good condition, except about 3 acres of swamp. There is a brook passes through the land in the pasture ground, and also a spring rises about 20 chains higher up. The House is situated on the eastern side of a hill. The land is well fenced in fields of 6 or 7 acres each; there is a Grist Mill about half a mile from the residence, and a saw mill nearly the same distance. Good accommodations can be had in the Church of England, distant from the dwelling about a mile and a half.

Terms may be known by applying at Haszard's Gazette office.

Never Failing Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsbro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter, from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31, Bailey Street, in this town, to inform you, that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied by a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this, she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states that in a wonderful short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS—AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully,

(Signed) WALKER & Co.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

Bad Legs	Chiego-foot	Fistulas
Bad Breasts	Chilblains	Gout
Burns	Chapped hands	Glandular swellings
Bunions	Corns (Soft)	Lumbago
Bite of Mosquitoes and Sand Flies	Cancers	Piles
	Contracted and Stiff Joints	Rheumatism
Coco-bay	Elephantiasis	Sore Nipples
Sore-throats	Skin-diseases	Scurvy
Sore-heads	Tumours
Wounds	Yaws
Ulcers

Sold at the establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar,) London, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the Civilized World, in Pots, at 2s 5s 8s
