Inman's May Drop Out

At last there are faint rumblings that Inman, the softball entry in the Prince County League, which has lost 12 straight games, may pull out of the league.

We certainly don't blame them for feeling a bit discouraged, though in about half of those games they made a fairly respectable showing, and in the last two they were ahead in the latter stages of the game and looked as if they might break into the win column at last.

Let's face it, however, the club is lacking a consistently capable defense set-up, the pitching is not much below par, but the infield and outfield can both fold like an accordion when the pressure builds up.

Top Notch Players

In Jim Jenkins, coach, outfielder and extra-base cluster de luxe, and in John McLaren, a boy who divides his time between short stop and third base, and can give that old melon quite a push when he's up there at the plate, the team has two of the best players in the league. They have other good players but apparently not enough of them.

Should the team disband the executive should insist that the best of their players must be divided among the other clubs in a fairly even manner. If they all signed up with one team it would create another problem for the league. From having a team too weak the situation would shift to having a team too strong, and that would be every bit as bad.

Enman Drug, RCAF Eagles and Coastal Movers are sufficiently even in strength to make an ideal set-up if Inman Plumbing pulls out. So let's not jump from the frying pan into the fire. Of course the Plumbers could change their name to the Mets and stay in there. For the Mets are just as popular, if not more so, when they're losing as when they're winning.

Kentville Minor Action

We saw a Little League baseball game in Kentville the other evening between the Dodgers and the Seven-Ups. The brand of ball displayed seemed about on par with our Summerside Little League teams. The crowd watching was quite a bit larger than we have seen in Summerside.

They had a young fellow scoring who seemed to know what he was doing and the two coaches came up to him and reported changes in their teams' line-ups every time a substitute entered the game. The young players were a bit free in voicing objections to the umpire's calls on balls and strikes, and we thought Summerside has a little better control in that way.

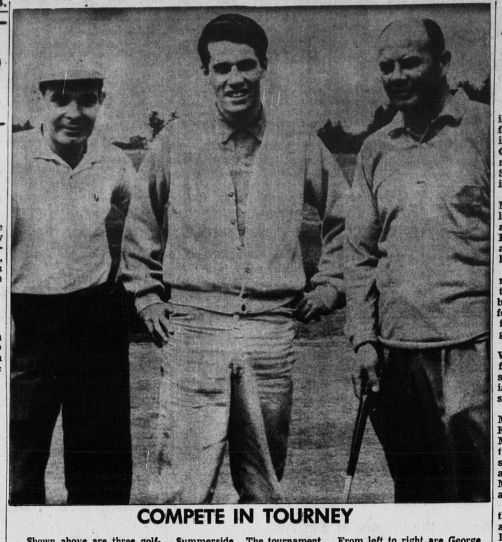
Killebrew Homers Mount

Now that the subject has been brought up, the fans will be focussing their attention on Harmon Killebrew and his chances to beat Roger Maris' 61 homers in 1962. And the more the spotlight turns on Killebrew, the harder it will be for him to break the existing record. Tension will build up as he nears the goal, and a fellow would need ice water in his veins not to be affected in some little way by the increased attention he gets from Mr. Gus Fan. Killebrew is running pretty well along Maris's achievement trail in the home run department, and they say the big fellow is not subject to jitters. We shall see.

Trophies For Islanders?

When the trophies and prizes are being presented after the Eastern Canadian age class track and field championships July 24 and 25, it is in the realm of probability that athletes from off the Island, and especially in Central Canada, will be carrying off the majority of the honors.

Because of larger numbers to choose from, and also perhaps superior coaching, though our local coaches have done and are doing extremely well, local entries are likely to bite a little dust during the meet. It is to be hoped that there will be at least a few trophies and prizes for the best Island athletes. This is one case where charity to some degree should begin at home.



COMPETE IN TOURNEY

Juveniles Down Stars In Exhibition Contest

Charlottetown Legion Juveniles bumped on Lennie Ellsworth for five runs in the opening inning to whip the newly organized Charlottetown All-Star Intermediates 8-3 at Memorial Field Sunday afternoon in an exhibition baseball game.

The Legionaires, defending Maritime Juvenile champs, collected five walks, one single and a double off the control-troubled Ellsworth in the opening inning as the first five batters came home with runs.

Ellsworth yielded two more runs in the second and one in the third before John Kane was brought in in the top of the fourth to go the rest of the way for the Intermediates. Kane gave up no runs on two hits.

Fireballing right-hander Billy Weatherbie continued undefeated on the mound this season as he limited the Intermediates to six scattered hits and six walks. He struck out seven.

Ellsworth issued walks to Tex MacDonald, Denis Ducarfel, Freddie MacDonald, Wayne MacDougall and Mike Doyle in the five run first inning. In the same inning Weatherbie rapped a run producing double and Carl MacQuaid knocked in two with a single.

Kane's single in the bottom of the first scored Wayne MacDonald, who had doubled, with the Intermediates first run.

The Juveniles picked up two more in their half of the second as Weatherbie and Cyril MacDonald singled and MacQuaid and Freddie MacDonald singled.

Errors proved costly for the Juveniles in the bottom of the third as the Intermediates picked up their second run to make it 7-2. The infield committed two miscues, accounting for the run.

Kane's pitching from the fourth inning on for the Intermediates was too much for the Juveniles. They picked up only two hits in the six innings Kane pitched, but managed to leave nine runners stranded on base.

Intermediates scored the final run of the game in the eighth as Forbes Kennedy singled, Bob Rice singled, Billy Sherry walked and Kennedy came home when Luker Pineau reached first on an error. Weatherbie got out of the inning without further trouble.

Weatherbie paced the Legionaires at the plate with a double and two singles in five appearances. Freddie MacDonald and Mike Doyle were 1-for-3 and Carl MacQuaid had three walks and one single.

Forbes Kennedy and Wayne MacDougall were 2-for-4 for the Intermediates. John Kane and Bob Rice rapped singles.

24 Struck Out By MacIntyre

SOURIS — Lawrence MacIntyre tied a Kings County Baseball League strikeout record here Sunday afternoon as he whiffed 21 batters in a nine inning contest to lead Cardigan to a lop-sided 11-1 win over Souris.

In the second half of the double-header here, Georgetown edged Souris 2-1.

MacIntyre's strikeout performance tied the league mark held by Irwin Connolly of 21. MacIntyre was touched for only one hit, a clean double by Maynard Paquet, and gave up one walk.

Paquet went seven innings on the mound to take the loss for Souris. Clarence Creamer came in in the eighth to finish the contest.

Paul Morrison was tops at the plate for Cardigan, rapping out 2-for-3, including a triple.

In Souris' loss to Georgetown Buddy MacCullogh and Joe Martell combined on the mound Martell came in in the third for the win. They allowed five hits, one walk and struck out 11.

Arsenault Wins Mile, 880 For New Track Records

BY NICK FILLMORE

GREENWOOD (SPECIAL) — Andy Arsenault, 18-year-old Charlottetown middle distance runner, turned in the best mile of his career here Saturday and walked off with an easy win in the 880 to steal the spotlight at the 6th annual Annapolis Valley Open track and field championships by establishing track records in both events.

His time for the Open mile was a blistering 4.31.9. In the 880 he was never headed and coasted home in 2:03.8. Eligible for the junior age classification Arsenault was competing in the Open division.

Jack MacEachern, 17-year-old Juvenile of the Islanders Club, Charlottetown Division, had his best day of the season as he bettered competitors from all areas of the Maritimes and U.S.A. in the Juvenile discus, triple jump and javelin.

GETS 15 POINTS

MacEachern's three first place wins placed him second at the meet for the individual men's points championship, behind Larry Archibald, Truro.

The outstanding performance at the meet came from a Chester boy. John Croft, midget, who heaved the shot put 59' 8" for a new Canadian record. At the age of 15, Croft is an amazing 245-pound, 6' 2" athlete.

Competing for Summerside, RCAF, Bob Smith, formerly of Truro, heaved the men's shot 45' 8" for a first place finish.

Ken O'Brien, Islanders Club, 14-years-old faced Maritime competition for the first time Saturday and placed second in the triple jump (36' 9"), fourth in the broad jump (15' 8"), and fourth in the discus (112' 6"). O'Brien was in the midget classification, the one most contested at the meet. There were more than 10 competitors in all midget events.

DEFEATS BEAZLEY

Wayne Beazley, Hantsport, noted for his running feats in the Maritimes for the past eight years, was the heavy pre-race favorite in the mile event.

Arsenault trailed Beazley for ¾ of the race, but on the back stretch of the final turn the Islander turned on a burst of speed that seemed to surprise Beazley. Beazley couldn't gain ground on Arsenault on the final stretch. The fast improving Islander was the winner in 4:31.9. Arsenault's time for the final 440 yards was a blistering 59.1.

In the 880-yard run, his final event of the day, Arsenault led the field from start to finish. No other runner gave him a serious challenge for the lead. He ran the 'moderately heavy' track in 2:03.9, his third best performance of the year.

MacEachern had the best throw of his career, 42' 3½", to win the Juvenile shot put. He bettered Lloyd Anderson of New York, N.Y., by four inches. His javelin mark was 138' 6"; discus, 134'; and 37' 7" in the triple jump for a fourth place finish.

Jim Gannon, RCAF, Summerside, ran the 100-yard dash in 10.8 for a fourth place finish. Vic Iwanurk and Gil Thibeault finished fifth and sixth in the Open mile.

MacKenzie toured the course in 76 strokes Saturday for his 146 total. Another Charlottetown golfer, Jiggs MacDonald was runner up with a 36 hole score of 152. One stroke back of MacDonald were Bill Beer of Charlottetown and Bernie Dunning of Summerside with Identical 153's.

Dunning also had low net for the tourney with a 139, two strokes better than another Summerside competitor, Otto Furchak.

Summerside's Leonce Arsenault headed the first division with a 154, finishing 10 strokes better than runner up Butch McGee of Charlottetown. Fred Jardine, placing third, pushed McGee closely, coming to within one stroke with a score of 163.

Three Summerside men dominated the second division. M. Francoeur finished first with 174 and was followed closely by Ian McHardy and H. Ferguson with totals of 180 and 182 respectively.

Elmer C Takes Park Main Event

The Charlottetown Driving Park staged an eight dash race card at the local track on Saturday night. The program was held under ideal weather conditions after there had been a threat of postponement, due to rain, earlier in the day.

Elmer C an Abner T Clegg gelding reined by Ralph MacFadyen and owned by the Mystery Stables, Hunter River, captured both heats of the fourth and eighth events which was the main attraction of the night. The gelding made the first trip in 2.10:3 and circled the oval for a mile in 2.11 in the eighth event.

The second and sixth dashes saw Miss Cool Eyes lead the way to the wire in both events. Jack Pound was holding the reins as the mare made her fast miles in 2.11:3 and 2.12:1 respectively. Other dash winners were: Dunlop B, Mighty Warrior, Go Along Hal, and Ellen Joyce.

The largest pay of the evening was the exactor which was featured on the fifth event. The winning combination was Mighty Warrior and Fair Sail and a ticket on the twosome was worth $52.60. The first daily double, on the first and second dash returned $17.90 for a ticket on Dunlop B and Miss Cool Eyes. Dunlop B failed to win the fifth dash when his sulky wheel lost a tire. The gelding was on top of the heap at the time and the remainder of the entries barely escaped without an accident.

The Quinella paid $20.30 for a winning combination in the third dash and the second daily double was worth $17.30 for a $2.00 ticket. There will be no racing at the Charlottetown raceway this week due to the lobster carnival celebrations being held in Summerside.
