[WRITTEN FOR THE EXAMINER.]

Memories.

Fond memories of childhood years,—
How beautiful and bright,
Amid the frowns of life appears
Their warm, consoling light;
Chasing away the lines of care
And shedding gladness everywhere.

The playground just behind the hill,
The beech grove in the rear,
Are pictured on my mind, and still
Not anything so dear
Or half so fair, it seems to me,
Exists in any scenery.

Each ant-hill with its busy throng;
Each nest so snug and fair,
And all the varied, joyful song
The mothers warbled there:
Each hill and nest I well can place;
And song; what songs have half the grace.

The play-house, fashioned by my hand,
Assisted by my brother,
With mats and curtains sister planned
Unaided by our mother.
Mansions with stores of wealth abound
But where can one so rich be found?

The brook, a little runaway,
Went babbling near by,
And oft I sighed as, day by day,
I thought it would run dry:
Yet after all my wanderings here
No other stream seems half so clear.

The sun by day, the stars by night:
How oft my wondering gaze
Was fixed upon those orbs of light
Till lost amid the maze:
The same bright wand'rers shine to-day
But, to my mind, not half so gay.

And every other scene so dear
Stands out in bright array,
Mirrored in mem'ries glass so clear
As if it were to-day,
Only more loved for the tear
Was sooner made to disappear.

Fond mem'ries, ever be our stay
In solitude's lone hours;
In sorrow cheer the mourner's way
With glad, refreshing showers;
Leading us far from present fears
Back to the joys of childhood years.

Advice to a Young Man.

Don't be mean, my boy. Don't do mean things and say mean things. Cultivate a feeling of kindness, a spirit of charity broad and pure, for men and things. Believe the best of everybody, have faith in humanity, and as you think better of other people you will be better yourself. You can with some accuracy, measure a man's character by the esteem in which he holds other men. When I hear a man repeatedly declaring that all men are knaves, I want a strong endorsement on that man's paper before I lend him money. When a man assures me that all the temperance men in his town take their drinks on the sly, I wouldn't leave that man and my empty demijohn—if I had one—together in a room five minutes. When a man tells me that he don't know one preacher who isn't a hyprocrite, I have all the evidence I want that that man is a liar. Nine times in ten, and frequently oftener, you will find that man endeavor to disfigure other men with their own weaknesses, failings and vices. So you, my boy, think well and charitably of all people, for the world is full of good people. —Robt. J. Burdette.

Cast a Line For Yourself.

A young man was listlessly watching some anglers on a bridge. He was poor and dejected. At last, approaching a basket filled with wholesome-looking fish, he sighed: "If now I had these I would be happy. I could sell them at a fair price and buy me food and lodging." "I will give you just as many and just as good fish," said the owner, who had chanced to overhear his words, "if you do me a trifling favor." "And what is that?" asked the other. "Only to tend this line till I come back; I wish to go on a short errand." The proposal was gladly accepted. The old man was gone so long that the young man began to be impatient. Meanwhile the hungry fish snapped greedily at the hook, and the man lost all his depression in the excitement of pulling them in, and when the owner of the line returned, he had caught a large number. Counting out from them as many as were in the basket, on presenting them to the young man, the old fisherman said: "I fulfill my promise from the fish you have caught, to teach you whenever you see others earning what you need, to waste no time in fruitlesly wishing, but cast a line for yourself."

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, lifeless, and indescribably miserable, both physically and mentally; experience a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, or of "goneness," or emptiness of stomach in the morning, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" before the eyes, nervous prostration or exhaustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting, transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity?

If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from that most common of American maladies—Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will subdue it, if taken according to directions for a reasonable length of time. If not cured, complications multiply and Consumption of the Lungs, Skin Diseases, Heart Disease, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, or other grave maladies are quite liable to set in and, sooner or later, induce a fatal termination.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts powerfully upon the Liver, and through that great blood-purifying organ, cleanses the system of all blood-taints and impurities, from whatever cause arising. It is equally efficacious in acting upon the Kidneys, and other excretory organs, cleansing, strengthening, and healing their diseases. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it promotes digestion and nutrition, thereby building up both flesh and strength. In malarial districts, this wonderful medicine has gained great celebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, and kindred diseases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, "White Swellings," Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large Treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a Treatise on Scrofulous Affections.

"FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE."

Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength and bodily health will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. From its marvelous power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now world-famed remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "CONSUMPTION CURE," but abandoned that name as too restrictive for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.

Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or Six Bottles for $5.00.
