SAHPER Conference

Students of Acadia University would like to invite any Health, Physical Education, and Recreation students from your university to attend the 3rd annual SAHPER (Students Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation) conference. The conference will be held at Acadia University from January 22-23, 1982.

The theme of this year's conference is "Breaking Away" (Breaking away from tradition). We are having sessions on Forgotten Special Populations, Coping with Stress, and Family Life in the 1980's. Subjects covered will include items such as: single parents, alcoholic and drug abuse, professional burn-out, and the changing family. The points of view of professionals from Health Education, Physical Education and Recreation along with professionals in other human services will be presented in an informal small group, participant-oriented format.

The weekend will also include activities such as a tobogan/pool party, a pajama party, conference meals, a square dance, and other social activities.

If you are interested in attending our conference please contact us:

Speak Easy

A SHORT COURSE ON EFFECTIVE SPEAKING FOR U.P.E.I. STUDENTS

In a few years you will be assuming an active role in your work, in social and service organizations, and in the community. While at university you should expect to gain the skill and confidence necessary to communicate your ideas to others. This short course is designed for University of P.E.I. students who wish to achieve more effective expression in various forms of speaking such as discussion, seminar participation and social interaction. Emphasis will be on the achievement of self-confidence, determination and the development of human potential. This course is not intended to be a high level course in public speaking or debating.

Method: Exercises in small groups. Stress will be on doing.

Length of Course: Six weeks, beginning January 21, 1982

Day and Time: Thursday 2:30 - 3:45 p.m.

Place: Audio Visual Studio, Robertson Library

Class Limit: 8 participants Fee: $10.00

This is a non-credit course. No examinations will be held or marks recorded. Those wishing more information before registering are asked to contact the:
Department of Student Services

Early Registration is Advised.
