..Miss Betty McNeill, New Perth, is spending a few days visiting at the Edge Wood Hotel, Lower Montague.

..Mr. Leland Nelson, Montague, returned home today after being a patient in the King's County Hospital.

..Mr. and Mrs. Claude MacLean and family, who have been residing in Whim Road for the past several years, moved yesterday to Pictou, N. S.

..Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jay, Mt. Stewart, left on Friday morning, Oct. 12th, for Montreal, where they will visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Liowd.

..Miss Christene MacDonald, R.N., who was visiting her brother and sister John K. and Annie MacDonald, R.N., Kilmuir, also her sister, Mrs. W. A. Bruce, Valleyfield, has returned to resume her duties in New York City.

Messrs. Sandy Reynolds, Roy Machon Alan Nelson, of Montague and George Poole of Lower Montague left yesterday morning for Boston, Mass., where they will spend a week visiting friends and relatives.

..SOCIAL EVENING— Mr. and Mrs. Garth Kerr, Brudenell, were hosts to about twenty-five friends recently when an enjoyable social evening was spent at their home. The evening was spent in playing crokinole, chinese checkers, and auction. A jolly sing-song was enjoyed, with Miss Anna MacLaren and Miss Betty Shaw as piano accompanists. A vocal solo by Miss MacLaren, vocal duets by Messrs. Emerson and Seymour O'Connor, and instrumental music by Mr. O'Connor added greatly to the fine entertainment. A buffet luncheon was served featuring corn-on-the-cob, sandwiches and cake.

..FUNERAL AT ALLISTON— The funeral of the late Angus MacDonald, who passed away on October 10th, was held from his late residence in Alliston yesterday afternoon, and was conducted by Mr. Louis Harris. Using for his text Psalm 91, Mr. Harris spoke words of comfort and inspiration to the bereaved, and the large number of friends who came to pay their last respects. The hymns were "Jesus Lover of My Soul", "Rock of Ages", and "Nearer My God To Thee." The pallbearers were Newell MacDonald, Charles MacLeod, Neil MacCallum, Wilfred MacDonald, Wallace Campbell and Neil MacSwain. Burial took place in Peter's Road cemetery.

..IMPROVING ROAD — The Brudenell road extending from the cemetery to the National site on Brudenell Point is being enlarged this week to an 18-foot roadway. The former road was so narrow that two cars were unable to pass except at certain points. The bulldozer has pushed back the brush on either side to clear the way for the maintainer which is building a round top road to provide better travelling surface to the point which many visit during the summer to see the first settlement of Count De Roma at Brudenell. Also under road construction is a short strip of road to Perth Station. Truckloads of clay from a pit near Perth Station have been put on the road, and yesterday a maintainer levelled the fill-in.

HOLDS SERVICES LONDON—(CP)—Regular visitor aboard ships moored in the Thames Rev. D. N. Clarkson Piper, who was a missionary in India for 22 years. Well known to all the river workers, he holds services aboard ship when requested.

Brooklyn Trio Feature Attraction At Legion Carnival

The Brooklyn Trio, well-known vocalists, appeared as the feature attraction last evening at the Montague Legion carnival being held at the Curling Rink. A large crowd of over 400 was in attendance for the third night of a four-night run.

The trio, Messrs. John Beers, William Bruce and Mac Munroe, sang "Letting Tonight", "Let the Best of The World Go By", "Nutt Brown Maiden", "Till We Meet Again" and "Found A Peanut". The many amusements were well patronized by the crowd who enjoyed themselves with the evening's activities.

Miss Betty Vuozzo, Montague, held the lucky ticket for the door prize, an electric cooker, donated by Eric Duvar Radio Service, Montague.

The carnival is scheduled to close tonight. Feature attraction on the program will be bagpipe selections by Donald MacLeod of Glen William.

Begin Repair Of Wharf At Montague

Workmen yesterday began the job of repairing the Stevens Wharf in Montague, which has fallen into disrepair during the past few years.

Plans call for new crib work to the rear of the main deck, new breast-work on the east end, two new creosoted walings on the water front, and new creosoted sheathing.

The cribwork will involve reworking part of the present clay fill, and laying in tie-in poles to connect with the rear stringers. This work is usually undertaken when high tide prevents working on the sheathing.

Workmen engaged at present are Messrs. William MacEachern, Henry Munroe, and Raymond Dewar.

The importance of this work is recognizable since the shipping season will get under way in a few weeks, and with the river dredged out, large draught ships can easily come into Montague. Wharfage space will then be at a premium, and the completion of the work on the Stevens Wharf will provide much needed space.

Island Contestant At Big Plowing Match

Frank Clay of Bridgetown, in an interview over the C.B.C. Farm Broadcast yesterday, said that apart from the fact that it is much larger, the International Plowing Match is "not much different from our own on the island." He was impressed, however, by the quantity of farm machinery on display.

Mr. Clay, who was accompanied by his son Ed. to Woodstock is the only entry from outside Ontario to compete in the plowing match. He qualified for the Esso Special Class by winning the Provincial tractor class at Dundas last month, and his expenses to attend the Woodstock match were defrayed by an award of $50 by the Provincial Plowing Match Association. The winner of the Esso class receives an all-expenses-paid month long trip to the United Kingdom, awarded by the Imperial Oil Company.

TIMELY NOTES ON TOPICS CONNECTED WITH Silver Fox and Mink Farming

H. J. Montgomery of the Montgomery Fur Farms, Wetaskawin, Alberta, paid a brief visit to this Province last week and was warmly welcomed by his many friends. Mr. Montgomery left Bedouque over thirty years ago to work with his uncle on a farm, which is his present holdings. The west was then in a far different state from what it is now and farming meant a great deal of hard work. However, he liked the Province, liked the people and decided to stay permanently there. There were many Islanders nearabouts and they visited each other frequently and kept well informed through newspapers and letters of the doings of their homeland.

Through his brother Frank he became interested in the silver fox industry and Frank sent a number of pairs west to form the nucleus of a farm. Frank had been connected with the industry when it was in its heyday in 1913 and the writer remembers going with him to the farm of J. R. Dennis on the Mount Edward Road in September 1914 to take delivery of two pairs of silver black fox pups. They had been purchased in the spring on option at $12,000 a pair, but when war broke out on August 4th silver fox prices slumped from peaks of $17,000 a pair for pups to the most that could be obtained for them.

Mr. Dennis had received $2,400 as 10% option on the $24,000 worth of matured foxes and I think Frank paid him $3,600 more. Mr. Dennis showed us some thirty or forty pups and selected what we thought was the best two pairs. They were very dark and very clear bluish black with, I would say, about one-quarter silver, with lovely brushes and nice white tips and well developed. We talked about the big mistake the Dennis Company had made in not accepting a bid from a party of Americans the previous year of some $300,000 for their breeding foxes but of course everything looked mighty rosy with no shadow of war in sight.

Frank kept the two pairs at his ranch in Bedouque and it was from them and other good quality foxes he had that the ranch in Wetaskawin was supplied. Afterwards they added other strains and became one of the best known ranches in Western Canada—in fact in all Canada—winning championships at shows in Western Canada and receiving high prices for their pelts at the various auctions. This championship skill has not been lost, neither have they ceased to produce good pelts and last year the Montgomery ranch was well to the front as usual. From being one of the largest breeders of foxes in the west Mr. Montgomery has cut down to something over 200 females from which he has raised 800 pups, platinum, pearl platinum, some white marked, but the majority silvers. Montgomery pelts have always been distinguished for size and he says they have not lost that characteristic. In addition to this he has produced 3,000 mink this season, mostly standards but also quite a number of mutations.

The past few years the Government has been taking quite an interest in fur farming and has also interested itself in the marketing problem. The Hudson's Bay Company has co-operated in exhibitions of fur garments and furs and all the ranchers are on the alert to publicize their products as much as possible. Quite a number of furs are sold locally, the present oil boom helping in that respect. Speaking of oil Mr. Montgomery says it has completely changed the financial picture of the Province. The Government receiving immense revenues from it has cut down the public debt and

IRON FOR SUCKLING PIGS THE EASY WAY!

Nixon Laboratories have recently developed "Pelagrex Paint" an adhesive preparation containing iron, vitamins A, D, B, compound, B12 (the growth factor) folic acid. And trace minerals—to be applied to the nursing sow's teats, to prevent and help correct anemia and deficiency diseases in suckling pigs.

For healthy, fast growing pigs, try this simple, easy to use preparation on your next litter. A 4 oz. bottle ($1.25) is sufficient for the average litter during the entire suckling stage.
