Taxi Driver Seriously Injured Near S'side

Roy Pidgeon, Summerside taxi driver, was rushed to the Prince County Hospital yesterday morning about 3:30 a. m. after being thrown through the windshield of the car he was operating for Flicker Taxi. He suffered severe internal injuries and last night was reported to be in serious condition. The accident occurred a short distance east of "The Diner" on the west side of Summerside, when the car he was driving towards Summerside left the highway, went into a ditch and struck a bridge. There were no passengers in his car at the time, and the cause of the accident is not known. Claude Waugh, driver of a car operated by Tessa's Taxi was proceeding towards the R. C. A. F. station and had met Pidgeon's car a few moments before the accident. Hearing the crash he and his passenger returned to the accident and found Pidgeon lying unconscious on the bank near his smashed taxi. Dr. Austin Delaney was summoned and the injured man was rushed to the Prince County Hospital.

Holy Name Society Communion Breakfast

Mr. M. Alban Farmer, Charlottetown, was guest speaker yesterday morning at the annual communion breakfast of the Holy Name Society held in the church basement. Members of the society attended Mass at seven o'clock which was celebrated by Rev. A. J. LeClair, spiritual adviser of the society. Mr. Farmer took as the theme of his address "Citizenship". He traced briefly the history of the society since its inauguration in the thirteenth century by St. Dominic to combat the Albigensian heresy and to restore respect for the name of God. Dr. Aubin Dolron, president of the society, presided. Mr. T. Earle Hickey, C.A., introduced the guest speaker. A vote of thanks to Mr. Farmer was moved by Mr. Elmer Murphy. Mr. Elmer Pineau thanked the ladies of the Catholic Women's League for the splendid breakfast served on the occasion. Rev. A. J. LeClair, spiritual adviser, addressed the members on the duties and privileges of a member of the Holy Name. - S.

Just last month, he recorded the speeches here of Anthony Eden, British Foreign Minister and Dean Acheson, retiring chief of the State Department of the United States. Mr. Hubbard is no stranger to the great of the present day. He has "taken" speeches by United States President-elect Eisenhower, Winston Churchill, former British Labor Prime Minister Clement Attlee, Indian Prime Minister Nehru, the late Ernest Bevin, former British foreign secretary, and scores of lesser lights. Mr. Hubbard's son Thomas Hubbard, Jr., is following in his father's footsteps and currently is on the Hansard staff of the Senate. During World War II, he served with the Canadian Army, which made use of his special skills, among his overseas duties was reporting the trial of Kurt Meyer, German SS general who was found guilty of the murder of Canadian prisoners of war.

Greenmount Lady Passes Away In Sleep

The death of Mrs. John Barbour occurred at the home of her brother, Mr. Arthur Hammill, Greenmount, Tuesday morning. She was eighty-five years of age and had apparently been in her usual health. On Tuesday morning it was learned that she had entered into eternal rest during the hours of sleep.

The former Jessie Hammill, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hammill of Greenmount. She was twice married, first to Mr. Lahore of Worcester, Mass. and later to Mr. John Barbour of Alma who predeceased her about seven years ago. Since that time she has lived at her childhood home in Greenmount.

Mrs. Barbour is survived by two sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Trenton (Janie) of Greenmount; Mrs. Willard Wellman (Lottie) of Union, Maine; Arthur of Greenmount; David and Chester of Worcester, Mass.; also two stepsons, Roy and Neil Barbour of Montrose. The funeral at the home of her brother in Greenmount, was conducted by Rev. A. R. Wallis, minister of Tignish, assisted by Rev. J. M. Sheen of Montrose United Church and Rev. A. Staples of Greenmount Church of Christ. Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Lead Kindly Light." Pall bearers were Messrs. Frank Barbour, Gordon Barbour, Russell Rayner, Wallace Donald, John E. Mountain and Eldon Barbour. Flowers were borne by Blanche Hammill, Anita Hammill, Blanche Mountain, Kenneth Gordon, Roscoe Barbour and John Barbour. Interment was in Montrose cemetery.

S'side Athletic Ass'n Meeting

The executive of the S. A. A. A. met over the week-end in the office of the president, W. Chester MacDonald, to clear up some matters which needed immediate attention. The association decided to sponsor a girls' basketball team in Summerside, and to promote minor hockey again this year. Four capable coaches will be sought for the four minor divisions: Paperweight, Pee Wee, Bantam, and Midget, and the association will work in cooperation with the Kinsmen who are operating the only rink in Summerside for the coming winter.

It was decided to approach the Town Council with the object of opening another open-air rink in the town. The following hockey referees and coaches will go down to the hockey school in Charlottetown this week: Lippy Gaudet, Gord and Russ Kelly, Jack Schurman, Charles and James Hogan, Dennis Carroll and Frank Dunster will attend from the R. C. A. F. Station. - S.

Celebrated 99th

Continued from page 1. last war, when her advanced age might well have excused her from the effort. Today, as at that time, her needles continue to click in turning out winter comforts but now for her many young descendants.

Mrs. MacRae resides with her son, Major MacRae and his wife and also their son Arthur and his wife with their two children, Barbara and Gordon, the four generations being domiciled in the spacious farm home. Her other son Fred lives on his farm at nearby East Royalty and most of the descendants of her daughter, the late Mrs. Frank Roper, live in the city. Two sons, eleven grandchildren, and 18 great grandchildren make up the immediate family, most of whom are in constant touch with Mrs. MacRae. While two of her brothers, Charles and Dave Taylor, died last summer in Colorado, Mrs. MacRae keeps up a regular correspondence with another brother, Dr. Angus Taylor, in Pueblo, Colorado, who passed his 93rd year last summer.

Move To Increase RCMP Charges For Policing Towns

OTTAWA, Dec. 6 - (CP) - Some 121 municipalities in six provinces will be affected by an R. C. M. P. move to increase charges for policing of small towns, the R. C. M. P. said today. The force is seeking an increase to $2,000 from $1,400 per man now charged for its services in policing municipalities. Negotiations for renewal of contracts, which are made on a year-to-year basis, are going on.

This does not involve contracts with the eight provinces—all except Ontario and Quebec—where the R. C. M. P. handles provincial policing. Most of the towns involved are under 5,000 population. There are 45 centres in British Columbia using the services of 247 R. C. M. P. officers; 21 in Alberta using 52 policemen; 28 in Saskatchewan using 70; 18 in Manitoba using 48; eight in New Brunswick with 30 police and one town employing one policeman in Prince Edward Island.

SMALLER BERRIES - ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. - (CP) - Although the number of boxes of blueberries harvested this fall was about the same as last year's, the berries were much smaller owing to a dry growing season. Had the berries been of good size the 1952 harvest would have reached a record total.

Potato Load Ditched To Avoid Collision

Five hundred bags of potatoes loaded on a trailer truck at Summerside by the Atlantic Wholesalers Ltd., landed in the ditch at the intersection of Station Street and the Trans-Canada Highway at Borden shortly before noon on Saturday when the driver attempted to avoid a collision with a 1946 Plymouth car owned and driven by Bowley Leard of Tryon. The heavily loaded trailer was destined to the Boston market and booked to catch the noon Ferry crossing. Mr. Leard had been at the Borden station and the accident occurred when the cars met at the entrance to the highway, near the Borden Service Station. The truck collided with the front of the car and in trying to avoid the accident, the heavily laden truck was thrown off balance and landed on its side across the pavement, heading into the ditch. In the late afternoon the potatoes were loaded in smaller trucks and the trailer righted and towed away. The Plymouth was badly damaged in front and the truck slightly so. No one was injured.
