A RAGACIOUS MULE.

He Was Willing to Work Full Hours, but No Overtime.

I once spent some months on a cotton plantation down in Mississippi. Fastened to the top of the ginhouse was a large bell. It had been the custom on this plantation, even before the war and up to the present time, for all hands to go to work and quit by the sound of this bell. The bell rang at 6 a. m., 12 m., 1 p. m. and 6 p. m. There was on the plantation a mule who had constituted himself a self-organizing and independent "labor organization."

This cuss of a mule would not go to work until the bell rang. At 12 o'clock he would quit work at the first stroke of the bell, would not go to work again until the bell rang and would quit in the afternoon the moment the bell sounded. This may seem strange, but it is as true as gospel. The mule would not tighten his traces after the bell sounded at noon. No matter if he was in the middle of a cotton row in the field or pulling a wagon, he struck the moment the bell sounded. All the whipping and abuse you could heap upon him only made him more determined. He would stand and bray and kick at you as fast as his hind feet could fly and finally wind up by kicking himself out of harness.

One day his regular driver was sick, and the owner of the plantation put Uncle Sam, a new hand, who had only gone to work on this place the day before, to drive this team and haul seed cotton out of the field to the ginhouse. At noon the bell rang, and Pete struck for grub, as usual, half way between the field and the ginhouse. Uncle Sam wanted to go on to the ginhouse with the load before he unharnessed for dinner, but Pete differed with him on this point. The old negro and the mule took up the whole noon hour trying to see which would have his way, and finally the mule came out victor. Uncle Sam had to give in and unharnessed out in the field and went leading the mule to the house. The owner of the place and myself were watching the whole show and were enjoying it hugely. Uncle Sam led the mule up to where we stood in the barnyard and said, "Mars Bob, dis 'ere rectified mule are dun struck for higher wages." The owner said, "Sam, that mule has been striking for higher wages for the last 20 years, but he has never got any advance yet."—Forest and Stream.

The Privilege of Peers.

There is a curious case in Fortescue's "Reports" relating to the privilege of peers, in which the bailiff who arrested a lord was fined by the court to kneel down and ask his pardon, though he alleged that he had acted by mistake, for that his lordship had a dirty shirt, a worn-out suit of clothes and only sixpence in his pocket, so that he could not believe that he was a peer, and arrested him through inadvertence.—Green Bag.

The man whose home is menaced by midnight marauders isn't slow to grasp a weapon to defend it. The same man when threatened by an enemy ten thousand times more dangerous, will calmly go his way and make no effort at defence. The most dangerous of all mankind's enemies is consumption. There is but one effective weapon with which to combat this grim destroyer.

It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, laryngitis, weak lungs, spitting of blood and throat and nasal troubles. Thousands have testified to their recovery under this remedy after they were given up by the doctors, and all hope was gone. Many of these have permitted their experiences, names, addresses and photographs to be printed in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Any sufferer may write to them. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It makes the appetite hearty, the digestion and assimilation perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and rich with the life giving elements of the food and the nerves strong and steady. Acting directly on the lungs, it drives out all impurities and disease germs. It is also a wonderful medicine for all nervous troubles. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

Jno. M. Hite, of Audubon, Audubon Co., Iowa, says: "I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs and chest. Several of our best physicians gave up all hopes of my recovery. I would cough and spit blood for hours. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and recovered."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is a book of 1,008 pages and over three hundred illustrations. This book is free. You may have it in all its usefulness, and in strong paper covers, for 31 one-cent stamps, which pays the cost of customs and mailing only, or in cloth binding for 50 stamps. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

We know that Cod-liver Oil is a fat-forming food because takers of it gain rapidly in weight under its use and the whole body receives vital force. When prepared as in Scott's Emulsion, it is quickly and easily changed into the tissues of the body. As your doctor would say, "it is easily assimilated." Perhaps you are suffering from fat starvation. You take fat enough with your food, but it either isn't the right kind, or it isn't digested. You need fat prepared for you, as in Scott's Emulsion.

Chinese Similes.

Some of the ordinary expressions of the Chinese are pointedly sarcastic enough. A blustering, harmless fellow they call "a paper tiger." When a man values himself overmuch, they compare him to "a rat falling into a scale and weighing itself." Overdoing a thing they call "a hunchback making a bow." A spendthrift they compare to "a rocket" which goes off at once. Those who expend their charity on remote objects, but neglect their family, are said to "hang a lantern on a pole, which is seen afar, but gives no light below."
