Giants Defeat Yankees 9-0
-In a regular Little Bigger League game at the Queen Elizabeth Park yesterday morning, the Giants beat the Yankees 9-0. Wilf Barlow on the mound for the victors, allowed only four hits, and aided his own cause with a triple and a double. Duggey Arsenault pitching for the Yankees, gave up seven bingles. Garland Harris hit one for two, and Ulric Gallant, Stan Gay, and Roy Laughlin each cracked out a brace of safe blows. Michael Scott made a spectacular catch going away back in centre field to gather in the sphere.

Popular classes at the Stafford (England) Jail education centre are music appreciation and hair-cutting.

Speaks Tonight

Hon. Wilfred Arsenault will give an address over CJRW, Summerside, this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Hon. Mr. Arsenault is a forceful and interesting speaker and his talk should be well worth hearing.

The time again—7:30 o'clock over CJRW. Advt.

At a special meeting of the Summerside Board of Trade held last night with Mr. William Hayward presiding, a motion was passed that starting Saturday, July 25, Summerside stores would close at nine o'clock on Saturday night instead of the present closing hour of nine thirty. This arrangement to remain in effect all through the year.

Eleven members present voted in favor of the motion and eight voted against. However, it was indicated that those who were not in favor of the change in closing hours would cooperate with the desire of the majority.

The meeting was held as a result of a request from the officials of the Summerside Raceway that in order to allow the employees of these stores an opportunity to attend the races that an earlier closing hour be put into effect.

Rev. Alexander MacKay, Kensington, took the services at Cornwall, New Dominion and Kingston last Sunday in absence of the regular pastor, Rev. A. S. Weir, who attended the Orwell Head community service. Mr. and Mrs. MacKay were guests at Cornwall Manse.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Proffitt, Burlington, on Sunday, July 12, were the Rev. W. Eric Ingraham, Kensington, Senator and Mrs. G. H. Barbour and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Thompson, Charlottetown; Mr. Frank Myers, L. A. Mrs. Myers and son Sheldon, Capraud; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Casseley and their son, Errol and daughter, Sheila, Kelvin Grove.

Andy's Aces took a close game from their bitter town rivals, George's Gals, at the Queen Elizabeth softball diamond last night. The final score was 11-9 in a contest that was called on account of darkness at the end of the fifth inning.

At the end of the third, the Aces were out in front 9-4, and looked to have the game wrapped up. But Shirley Arsenault walked four in the last inning, and then Lorinda Gaudet doubled to start the Aces on their way to victory. Arsenault gave way to Carmen Smith, but the Aces kept right on to score seven runs in that one big inning, and salt away the ball game. Marion Rogers went the route for the Aces, and had one of her best days, limiting the Gals to seven hits.

The Aces got only five safe bingles, but were issued enough free passes to more than make up the difference. The win did not topple the Gals from their proud position at the top of the league, but had the effect of tightening up the race.

Umpires were, behind the plate, Glen DesRoches, and on the bases, Gordon Sullivan.

Among Speakers

Hon. Forrest Phillips, Speaker of the Provincial Legislature, will be among the speakers at the Liberal meeting in O'Leary tonight (Tuesday). Other speakers will include Senator Geo. H. Barbour, Hon. W. E. Darby and Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, Q.C.

On the morning of June 17 the immaculate Conception Church, Palmer Road, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Julia Agnes Meyers, St. Louis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Meyers was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Clarence Leonard Toole, Green Road, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Toole. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Richard.

As the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, Mr. Gallant played the Wedding March. The bride wore a floor-length gown of white net over satin, with inserts of chantilly lace and fitted bodice fashioned with long sleeves coming to a point over the wrists and small buttons to the collar which was embroidered with pearls. Her finger-tip veil fell from a tiara of beaded pearls and she carried a bouquet of red roses and maiden fern.

She was attended by her sister-in-law, Miss Marion Toole, who wore pink net over taffeta, and matching mitts, and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations.

The groom was attended by his brother Mr. Stephen Toole. Mrs. Meyers, mother of the bride wore a flowered crepe dress with white accessories and Mrs. Toole, mother of the groom wore navy sheer with white accessories.

After the wedding ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a dainty wedding breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Toole motored to Charlottetown. The bride's going-away costume was a blue ensemble with white hat and accessories to match.

Adams-Wall Wedding

A quiet wedding was solemnized in the Presbyterian Manse, Summerside, Saturday afternoon, July 11, when Rev. Donald MacKay united in marriage, Muriel Beatrice, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wall, Baltic, and Roland Benjamin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams, Conway.

The bride chose a ballerina-length gown of white nylon net over satin and fashioned with a fitted lace jacket. She wore a nylon three-quarter length veil held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses, and her only ornament was a gold expansion bracelet, a gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid was Miss Jean Adams, sister of the groom. She wore a ballerina-length gown of blue nylon net over taffeta, with matching headdress, and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The groom was attended by Mr. Harry Wall, brother of the bride. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wall chose a navy dress with which she wore a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Adams, mother of the groom wore a dark blue dress and a corsage of white carnations. A reception for immediate relatives of the bride couple was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Presiding over the tea urn was Mrs. John E. MacLeod, Mrs. Reuben Wall, Mrs. Ivan Adams, and Miss Lydia Tuplin.

The couple left on a short honeymoon trip throughout the Maritimes.

Prior to their marriage the bride was tendered a shower and was the recipient of many gifts. On their return, they will reside in Conway where the groom is employed by the Canadian National Railways.
