IN MEMORIAM

FORD—In loving memory of our dear daughter Freda F. Ford, who passed away Jan. 4, 1950, at the early age of 12 years and 35 days.

We cannot forget you dear Freda
Your memory is still dear to us,
You cannot return we know.
So our tears are all in vain.
But in Heaven we hope to meet you,
Where parting is no more.

Sadly missed by Mom, Pop, Brothers and Sisters.

In 1905 he was married to the former Florence, (Vance) Hudson formerly of Birmingham, England.

On Dec. 1st, 1955, the late Mr. O'Brien and Mrs. O'Brien, celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary, very quietly, owing to Mr. O'Brien's severe illness.

DAILY MARKET QUOTATIONS

SUMMARY

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Toronto — Market stronger in heavier trading.

New York—Stocks higher; oils improve.

Montreal — Trading moderate; industrials irregularly higher.

Currencies

MONTREAL (CP) — The U.S. dollar Thursday closed at a discount of 3 15-16 per cent in terms of Canadian funds, unchanged. Pound sterling $2.67⅞ up 1-16.

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO (CP)—Western oils marched ahead and pulled the rest of the stock market with them Thursday in heavy trading. The oil advance was the strongest since Nov. 30.

The western oil index added 3¾ points, making a gain of more than 12 points on its total in the last six sessions.

Base metals slipped a little in the final hour but managed to close with a three-quarter point gain.

Observers said the interest in western oils is mainly caused by a general feeling of an improved oil industry this year.

Eleven of the 15 western oil index stocks showed gains. Strongest among these were Triad and Canadian Atlantic, up 35 cents, Okalta and Sapphire, up 20 cents, New Superior and Trans Empire, up 15 cents, and Bailey Selburn, up two points. Only one of the 15 issues lost ground; Calgary and Edmonton dipped ⅛.

Senior base metals moved in a fractional range but the majority of issues were on the upside. Juniors had gains ranging to 25 cents and losses to 15 cents. Most price changes, however, were 10 cents or less.

Uraniums had twice as many gains as losses but the changes were small. Gunnar added ⅜. Coppers were mixed.

Index gains: golds .56 to 77.43; base metals .81 to 229.25; western oils 3.75 to 159.37.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. B.H. HARMON

Relatives and friends in large numbers assembled at Hampton United Church to convey final tributes of respect for the late Mr. B. H. Harmon, a former resident of our city and previous to going to Toronto to continue his business as an electrical contractor, he became well known and respected as he came in daily contact with many of our people through this business.

Not enjoying perfect health while a resident of Toronto, he received helpful treatment at the Toronto General Hospital, but within a seemingly short duration of time he was stricken by an illness which suddenly removed him from this life, leaving to mourn his passing his young widow and two young sons who accompanied the remains to the home of his wife's people, Mr. John Rogerson and the late Mrs. Rogerson.

The sevice at the church was conducted by the church pastor, followed by the Masonic service at the church and at Crapaud cemetery, where the interment was made. Pall bearers were Frank Myers, William Waddell, Donald Cameron, Guy Sullivan, Ewen Campbell, Heath Delaney.

Mr. Paterson was president of the wholesale grocery firm of Bair and Peters Ltd., of which he became proprietor in 1928.

He authored two pamphlets concerning Maritime rights — The Problems of the Maritime Provinces Within Confederation and The True Story of Confederation, after years of study.

Mr. Paterson entered the political field in 1935,leading the Liberal ticket to victory here and becoming president of the executive council. Before his defeat at the polls in 1939, he also served as minister of education and federal and municipal relations.

HEADED MERCHANTS

At the time of his death he was president of the Maritime Merchants' Alliance, a union of wholesale and retail interests aimed at stimulating Maritime business, which he headed from its birth in 1930.

Winnipeg Seeks To Avoid The Traditional Winter Slow-Down

WINNIPEG (CP) — A special committee is working here to solve the unemployment problem created by harsh winters, with particular emphasis on the construction industry.

Experts say some business firms needlessly "close the shutters after the harvest is in," contributing to unemployment.

In 1956, unemployment in February passed the 20,000 mark. Stoppage of wages cost the city millions of dollars and the unemployment commission office here paid out $5,500,000 on benefits between Jan. 1 and April 30.

Also during February, the city paid out $20,850 to families of unemployed workers compared with $3,870 in August when construction was high.

NEW TECHNIQUES

The committee, a group of prominent citizens, is trying to persuade employers that climatic difficulties of the area can be overcome by adoption of techniques already developed.

Several advantages of winter work have been listed by the committee to support its arguments.

For one thing, businessmen have been told, they must consider fixed overhead for such needs as office staff, rents, equipment and depreciation on equipment and plant. Continuous work enables a contractor to do a greater volume of business each year and lessen the portion of overhead chargeable to each job.

Fixed costs of the job such as watchman, telephones and equipment continue whether a project is shut down or not. Taking a shorter time for a job by working in winter means a saving.

Since most contracting jobs result from competitive bidding, an owner helping a job available for bidding at a time when contractors are not working at full capacity receives the lowest bids possible. Some contractors take winter work at reduced rates.

Since winter construction results in earlier occupancy by an owner, he can realize additional revenue on recents or production.

However, winter weather causes a drop in labor output that one expert has placed at as much as 25 per cent when men are working in the open under severe conditions.

REQUIRES INGENUITY

The loss is cut if heated enclosures are built around a construction job and this technique is used extensively in winter construction. On some winter jobs, concrete is heated before it is delivered.

These extras put costs as much as 10 per cent higher, but experts say the advantages more than make up for the extra cost.

A. K. Stephens, chairman of the Winnipeg committee, said: "Increasing winter employment is not a simple matter, but requires ingenuity and the joint efforts and planning of employers, workers, government and the consuming public.

"None of these groups can accomplish a great deal alone, but I am confident that together we can do much to stabilize employment on a year-round basis."

Truckers Ready For Emergency

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Trucking Associations says the nation's trucking industry is ready to meet the transport emergency resulting from the strike of CPR firemen which began Wednesday.

Curtis Bonnyman of Moncton, N.B., president of the 7,000-member body, said in a statement issued here:

"We are ready—with a fleet of 75,000 public vehicles, combined with plans which we have made for the present emergency."

The statement said the trucking industry's fleet, combined with more than 845,000 trucks owned by firms providing their own transport, "will see the nation through the present emergency."

"Foood, medical supplies, and other urgent priority shipments essential to human life come first in the trucking industry's plans," the statement added. "Next will come the shippers who regularly use our services."

The associations' members are mostly in intercity traffic with some in local business. Runs extend as long as between Montreal and Vancouver.
