Best of All

Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in return of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding from the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

Local and Other Items.

THE STANLEY.—The steamer Stanley which arrived at Georgetown from Pictou yesterday afternoon, at five o'clock, sailed on return at seven this morning.

FAST HORSES.—Mr. W. S. McKie shipped yesterday, on board the Stanley, eight very fine horses—some of them trotters. This is likely his last shipment this season.

DEAFNESS CURED.—A very interesting 132 page illustrated book on deafness. Noise in the head. How they may be cured. Post free 3d.—Address, Dr. Nicholson, St. John St., Montreal.

CHRISTMAS BOX.—The employees of Lea's planing mill, Moncton, about twenty in number each received a fine turkey on Saturday evening—one of the many evidences of the good feeling existing between employer and workmen in this establishment.

BURGLARS ABROAD.—Burglars recently broke into the residence of Rev. Father Murray, Cornwall, Ont., stole $35, the collection at Sunday's Mass, and a valuable silver pair of fish servers. They also broke into the church, but were disturbed before they could carry off anything.

Many an otherwise handsome face is disfigured with pimples and blotches, caused by a humor in the blood, which may be thoroughly eradicated by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest blood medicine in the market, being entirely free from arsenic or any deleterious drug.

CORRECT.—This is the way the matter is put by the Philadelphia Record:—There is no successful merchandising that does not grow out of judicious advertising. The pedlar relies on individual exertion; the merchant relies upon public information, and the top-most merchants are the heaviest advertisers.

NEW ALMANAC.—There is now a Boulangier almanac. For every day of the year there is set down one of the General's deeds. For instance—January 29: Adoption of improved sword for light infantry. April 25: The General's patriotic attitude in the Schnaebel affair. May 27: Alteration in the trousers of the infantry officers, and so on.

MUSICAL.—Mr. Earle has been engaged by the Y. M. C. A. to give two grand concerts during the season—the first a secular concert early in January, the other a grand oratorio concert to be given in March. The success attending the series of concerts given by Mr. Earle three years ago, is a guarantee of the superiority of the music to be performed at these concerts. The choruses will consist of upwards of thirty picked voices and the instrumental music promises to be of unusual excellence.

NEARLY SUFFOCATED.—The St. John Sun reports that at an early hour on Friday morning last, Mrs. Harry Rigby was awakened by a strong smell of gas in her home on Main street, Portland. She called Mr. Rigby, and he in an instant saw that the house was filled with gas, and that the inmates were in danger of being suffocated. The gas escaping from the main had found its way into the house by means of the water pipe. A lady boarding in the house was found by Mr. Rigby to be unconscious, and Dr. March was sent for. On his arrival the physician proceeded to bring the lady to, and she soon regained consciousness. Mrs. Rigby was somewhat affected, but is all right now, as is also the other lady.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.—A Twillingate, Nfld., despatch of recent date says: On Sunday, December 2nd, Peter Light went into the woods at Change Islands to pick dogberries. Not returning, a search was made but no trace of him could be discovered till Monday, the 10th inst., when his dead body was found. On Monday Geo. Hellings had his head jammed between two schooners lying at Waterman's wharf, while he was passing a line under their rafter chains. He died within fifteen minutes after the accident. While the schooner Minnie F. was coming out of the bay, on Monday, William Dove was knocked overboard by the mainboom and drowned.

Another accident of a similar nature occurred a few days ago, while the schooner Lady Seymour was coming out of the bay, when Capt. George Lush was knocked overboard, in the same manner, and drowned.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. (April 1 '88)

The Trouble Beginning.

In the French Senate, on Christmas Eve, Admiral Veron alluded to the regrettable effects of the Newfoundland law which prohibited the sale of cod bait to French fishermen. He complained that the British had erected factories for canning lobsters on the French shore, greatly to the prejudice of French fishermen, and asked that the Government put a stop to these encroachments on French rights. M. Goblet minister of foreign affairs, replied that the Government wanted to secure respects for the rights secured the French by the treaty of Utrecht. French fishermen did not now require Newfoundland bait. France only occupied one-fifth of the French shore where English industries had been established. They have been tolerated as long as they did not interfere with French rights. The Government would now, however, cause their removal, and would at once open negotiations with England with the object of suppressing the English lobster factories complained of. He assured the Senate that the Government would neglect nothing calculated to develop the French fisheries.

Four Hundred and One Dollars Stolen

FROM J. B. MACDONALD, DRY GOODS MERCHANT—A WOMAN ARRESTED, BUT AFTERWARDS RELEASED.

On Monday night last, about ten o'clock, Mr. J. B. Macdonald, the well-known dry goods merchant on Queen Street, after totting up the day's sales, laid the open cash box, containing $760, on the counter of the cashier's office in the centre of the store while he was lighting the gas, the electric light having gone out suddenly. After turning on and lighting the gas, which operation occupied over five minutes, he took up the cash box and placed it in the safe without suspecting that anything was wrong. Yesterday forenoon he again counted up the money preparatory to depositing it in the bank, and discovered that he was just $401 short. He at once suspected a country-woman named Finch, who was in the store when the light went out so suddenly, as being the thief, and had a warrant issued for her arrest. The warrant was executed yesterday afternoon, but none of the money being found on her person or about the premises frequented by her, she was released.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Statement Contradicted.

Sir,—On reading your Souris Notes of the 20th inst., especially the paragraph referring to the shipments of produce, I was impelled to take a stroll round the wharves to see the "twenty schooners loading," the excitement of which any person might imagine. On my arrival at the scene it became quite evident to me that your correspondent had been misleading the public. The following schooners were either loading or ready for sea, viz:—

E. D. Brooks, 30 tons, loading oats for McEaclem & Co.

Maud S., 100 tons, loading oats and pork for J. G. Sterns.

Lottie M. Hardy, 80 tons, loading potatoes for Matthew, McLean & Co., Dennis Murphy and others.

Acacia, 117 tons, loading potatoes for J. G. Sterns.

Dominion, 80 tons, loading oats and meat for Mr. Cahill and Thomas Kiekham, M. L. C.

C. A. Ernst, 45 tons, loading oats, pork and butter for J. G. Sterns.

Nutwood, 90 tons, loading oats and meat by Matthew, McLean & Co.

Mary Jane, 65 tons, loaded oats for J. G. Sterns.

Chonore, 90 tons, loading oats and potatoes by Mr. Grant.

Emma Proctor, 35 tons, loading with potatoes, oats and pressed hay by J. G. Sterns.

Latona, 107 tons, completing cargo potatoes by J. G. Sterns and Sterns Bros.

Upon further enquiry referring to same paragraph I learn that Mr. Sterns has loaded no vessels at Grand River for Matthew, McLean & Co., but has loaded three cargoes there on his own account, and one on joint account. On the whole I concluded that your correspondent had made a very small but malicious attempt to injure Mr. Sterns, who has been well-known here for the past twenty-one years as one of the pluckiest and most enterprising shippers.

It might be added that he is under no necessity of playing second fiddle to any person, but conducts his business on his own resources.

Kindly insert this in your first daily issue and oblige

VINDICATOR.

What is Luck?

A philosophical definition of luck is given by an English writer as a capability of being incapable. "The first Rothschild was probably right, from his point of view, when he said that he never would employ an unlucky man. On the other hand, the lucky man is usually the man who fits his fortunes; who, whether apparently able or stupid, can do just what his special circumstances require him to do. Very stupid men are often very ready men, armed with a readiness of dogs when they twist from under a cartwheel unhurt. The fool who makes a fortune is usually a man with just the foresight or just the judgment or intuitive perception of the way things are going—a faculty like long sight or keen hearing, and independent of intellectual power—requisite to make large profits quickly. In fact, the fortunate man is the man, who, in consequence of some hidden quality in his nature, deserves fortune."—Popular Science Monthly.

Health Hints.

Never strike a boy smaller than yourself. He may grow.

Do not try to shovel snow off the slanting roof of a Queen Anne cottage.

Do not practice somnambulism when there is snow on the ground, with the thermometer registering two degrees below zero.

Never attempt to skate in patent leather pumps.

Do not think of paying a snow shoveller in advance.

Never throw snowballs at a policeman just for the fun of the thing.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles!

SYMPTOMS.—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; moist at night; worse by scratching.

If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore.

SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulcerations, and in most cases removes the tumors. All druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.
