McLaine-Hamm Wedding Saturday

A lovely June wedding was solemnized in the Charlottetown Baptist Church on Saturday the fifth when the Rev. J. D. Davison united in marriage Emma Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hamm, to Wendell Hansen McLaine, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Rankin McLaine of this city. The double ring ceremony was used.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white poeonia narcissus and tulips, while the guest pews were marked with lily of the valley.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked charming in her wedding gown of brocaded satin, with sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves and short train. Her veil of bridal illusion fell from a coronet of pearls and rhinestones, and she carried a bouquet of Aristocrat roses.

Miss Lois Shaw, as maid of honor, wore a gown of rose romance taffeta with bustle, while the bridesmaid, Miss Jeanette Ladner, wore a similar gown of royal turquoise. The ensembles of both attendants were completed by head-dresses of flowers and net, and cascade bouquets of white carnations.

Mr. Harry Thomsen was best man, while the ushers were Messrs. Ross Down, Kenneth Carver and Allison Jewell.

The bride's mother wore a lace and crepe gown of heavenly blue, with pink and navy accessories. Her corsage was of Sweetheart roses. Mrs. McLaine wore a gown of navy lace over taffeta with mauve accessories, and corsage of white carnations.

During the signing of the register, Miss Betty Beers sang "Through the Years." The nuptial music was rendered by Mr. Roy Mugford, church organist.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at "The Charlottetown," where the happy young couple received the best wishes of relatives and friends. Several telegrams of congratulation were read from friends abroad. The toast to the bride, proposed by her cousin, Mr. Harold Lawton, was responded to by the groom.

Pouring were Mrs. Rose Down, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Walter Pickard, sister of the groom. Serving were Mrs. Harry Thomsen, Miss Lois MacLean, Miss Val Rogers, Miss Betty Proctor, Miss Jeanne Pickard, Miss Greta Hansen and Miss Shirley Down.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. McLaine left by car for a honeymoon trip in the United States. For travelling the bride wore a turquoise acetate suit with pink accessories and a corsage of Sweetheart rosebuds. On their return they will reside in Charlottetown.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lawton and family, Moncton, N. B.; Mr. and Mrs. Warren McKinnon, Chatham, N. B.; Mr. and Mrs. George Estey, Fredericton, N. B.

Joint Luncheon Of Underwriters And Rotary Club

"You are your most precious property" said Alden C. Palmer, chairman of the Board of Insurance Research and Review Service, Indianapolis, Ind., in addressing a joint luncheon meeting of the Charlottetown Rotary Club and the Life Underwriters Association of P. E. Island at the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday.

The speaker quoted Adam Smith who said many years ago "All wealth comes from men at work" and went on to illustrate the earning power of an individual at any given yearly rate, over a stated period of time. "This," he said, "is the power to create wealth for yourself in your own shoes." He described how changing modes of living brought property earning power to an end, partial disability and total disability wears out earning power. "The two sound sources of income are men at work and money at work," the speaker said. "You must save, be thrifty and make sound investments based on responsibility." He described in detail the routine of monthly savings which would have no shrinkage and be available when needed. "Life insurance property is the most sacred that is, he said, and is built up by sacrifice. In denying self for those you love."

On concluding the speaker was thanked by Co. chairman W. A. Stewart for his admirable address. Visiting Rotarians were: Mr. R. Chappell, Sydney, N. S.; D. H. Gallant, Summerside; Norman T. Avard, Amherst, N.S.; Len Maaron, Medicine Hat, Alta. Guests of Rotary were: G. H. Griffin, Montreal; M. L. MacLean, Black Harbour, N. B.; J. A. Webster, City; Dr. R. H. Barrett, City; George Allan, Sydney, N. S. Walter Hyndman was chairman. Randy Manning was pianist.

EXPLOSION TOLL CLIMBS

TEHRAN, Iran. (AP)—The death toll from Thursday's explosion in a Tehran glass factory has climbed to 19. Gen. Teimour Bakhtiar, the city's military governor, said at least 60 of the estimated 200 injured are dead. Many of the injured, he added, are children from 9 to 15 years old who were employed at the plant.

To Visit City

Pictured above is Mr. Jack Charles Sims, Ottawa, national president of the Canadian Restaurant Association, who will visit this city June 11 on his first official call to this Province. He will be accompanied by Mr. C. H. Millbourn, immediate past president, Mrs. Millbourn and Mrs. F. G. Montgomery, managing director of the Association.

Award Received By Mr. Lloyd Jenkins

A former Charlottetown newspaper man was awarded a coveted honour at Detroit, Mich., by the International Council of Business Publications. The award was presented to Mr. Lloyd H. Jenkins, editor of Ford Graphic, a business magazine published in Windsor, Ont., and sent out to all Ford dealers. This was the only Canadian business magazine to receive top honours, with a mark of 98 points out of a possible 100. The other awards went to United States and South American publications.

Mr. Jenkins is a son of the late Mr. Harold Jenkins, M.P. for Queens, and a brother of Mrs. Fred Gates, West Royals, and Mrs. E. A. Hough, Ottawa. After several years' experience on the staff of the Ottawa Citizen, he served overseas with the R.C.A.F. and later as chief historical officer. After the war he was appointed a member of the International Refugee Personnel in Europe. Returning to Ottawa, he worked with the National Film Board and later with the R. C. A. Association as assistant executive secretary. From this position he moved last September to Windsor as editor of Ford Graphic. His success in his new field, as indicated in the award above noted, will be learned with interest by many friends here.
