DURING the operation of the Scott Act in the town and county of Peterboro, Ont., thirty-two convictions have been secured. The fines amounted to $1,700 and the costs $100.

THE American papers are already speculating as to who will be the next Pope. The name of Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore, is mentioned as the probable successor of Leo XIII.

A GRAND tea is to be held at Crapaud on the 24th inst., in aid of the Presbyterian Mission at that place. Special rates per steamer Heather Belle. Look out for advertisement to-morrow.

MR. GEORGE SKEFFINGTON, formerly police inspector on the I. C. R., and who was on the Island last year working up the Callaghan murder case, has been appointed to a position on the detective service of the Toronto police force.

THE customs department at Ottawa has sent a communication to the Collector of Montreal in reference to Chinamen employed on the vessel Asia, now in that port. The action of the Collector in demanding and obtaining a deposit of $100 is endorsed.

PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION, 1886.—The Prize List for this Exhibition is now in the hands of the publisher, Mr. Geo. W. Gardiner. Parties intending to give special prizes, or insert advertisements, will please hand them in immediately. A. McNeill, Secretary.

MR. A. DUCHEMIN, of this city, has purchased one of Cowan & Co.'s, surface planers from A. B. Cowan. Mr. Duchemin can rest assured that he will have one of the best surface planers on the Island, as it was one of these planers Cowan & Co. sent to the Colonial Exhibition.

THE St. John Star's special correspondent at the Colonial Exhibition writes (July 1): "The Canadian court is brilliantly decorated to-day with flowers in honor of the anniversary of united Canada's natal day. A special feature has been made of the educational section, Mr. R. Hunt of P. E. Island carrying off the honors for his Island over all competitors."

WE regret to learn that on Sunday evening last a three year old son of Mr. A. Crosby, of the Medical Hall, while playing in his grandfather's yard at West River, was kicked in the forehead by a horse, inflicting a cut some four or five inches in length. The services of a physician were called in as soon as possible and the cut stitched up. The little fellow bore up wonderfully, and is, we are pleased to learn, now doing well.

THE Tea Party at Souris to-day was largely attended. Some four hundred excursionists left this morning, and their number was considerably augmented at every station along the line. Our advice for Souris are to the effect that there are upwards of one thousand persons on the Tea grounds, and that everything is going along splendidly. The train will arrive in the city about 8.15 p. m.

THE St. John Telegraph reports that a terrible accident happened to a young son of Mr. Seth Erb, who lives near Belleisle Bay, King's County, one day last week. The little fellow was leading a horse through a piece of woods with the leading rope carelessly wound around his arm. Suddenly the horse sprang forward and jerked the boy from his feet and bore him along at a terrific rate, knocking his head against every obstacle in the path and bruising it terribly. Finally, giving a terrible jerk, the horse drew the boy's arm from its socket and left him nearer dead than alive. Life was despaired of for some days, but finally the boy rallied a little, and is, strange to say, after such terrible injuries, in no way a fair way to recover.

FROM various parts of the county, says the Summerside Pioneer, come reports of some injury done during the thunder storm of last week. At the Brae a cow is reported killed; at West Point the house of a man named Betts was struck by the electric fluid, but no one was hurt except the family cat, which notwithstanding its numerous lives was struck dead. At Lot 16 the house of a man named Crossman was struck, windows and stove broken and a bed set on fire. We hear of 15 sheep being killed at North St. Eleonor. A male or two east of Summerside several telegraph poles were splintered. Somewhere about Springfield, on the Town Road, a man was driving a span of horses in a truck wagon, the outfit was struck, one horse was knocked down and a dog trotting along under the wagon, was killed.

AT the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court yesterday a woman who violated the Scott Act was fined $50 or one month's imprisonment; a drunk and disorderly was fined $20 or 20 days and a drunk was discharged. This forenoon the docket consisted of two vagrants and a drunk. One of the vagrants, an old grey-headed man, poorly clad and apparently simple minded, said that he belonged to Baldwin's Row, and that he had come to town for amusement. He was remanded back to jail and an application for his admission to the Poor House was ordered to be made. The other vagrant was also grey-headed and apparently simple, but was decently clothed. He said that he had come to town to see his sister but could not find her; he also said that although he had no money on his person he had lots in the bank, and he was the owner of several saw mills at the western part of the Island. The Magistrate instructed the Marshal to have the unfortunate man sent to his home this afternoon. Two truckmen were fined $1 and costs for allowing their horses to run at large, and admonished that should the like ever happen again they should not be let off so easily.

REMEMBER auction at noon to-morrow. Brick warehouse on Weymouth St., three vacant lots adjoining dwelling on Fitzroy St.; also double tenement house on Weymouth St., at half past twelve. A. H. B. Macgowan, auctioneer.

MARTIN HOWARD, a jobber in the shoe trade, Philadelphia, has disappeared, after drawing about $5,000, which he had in the Merchants' National Bank, disposing of a $13,000 stock of shoes, and issuing notes to the value of about $30,000.

SEIZURES of American fishing vessels in Canadian waters for violation of the Dominion customs laws are not properly to get mad about. Every country's customs laws are its own, and it is the custom of every other country to obey them.—Chicago Herald.

THE Moncton Cornet Band excursion to the Island yesterday was a grand success. About 350 excursionists left Moncton in the early train, and the number was largely augmented at Shediac and Point du Chene. The day was all that could be desired, the music excellent, and all present were delighted with the trip.

CAPTAIN EGERTON A. DENISON, youngest son of the late Colonel G. T. Denison, of Toronto, died on board the steamship Vancouver while on his way home on sick leave from the Gold Coast, where he contracted fever. Deceased served through the Sudan campaign under his brother, Colonel F. C. Denison, who was in command of the Canadian voyageurs.

COSTIGAN and PARNELL.—The St. John Star says: "There is an apparent disagreement between Mr. Blake and Mr. Parnell. Mr. Blake says that Mr. Costigan has damaged the cause of home rule by his action on the resolution of last winter. Mr. Parnell writes to Mr. Costigan thanking him for his action, and stating that the home rule cause would be strengthened by it. The question to be settled is, whether Blake or Parnell is the better authority on the home rule cause in Ireland."

DANGEROUS counterfeit bills of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Toronto, are in circulation. The general appearance of the bill is good. The imitation lathework in both counters "10" is fair, but on close inspection is defective. The same one in large green letters in the word "ten" is also defective and unlike the genuine in detail but the general color of same is fair. The form and expression of the lion's mouth, and the form of the under lip, is unlike that on the genuine bill. The counterfeiters have "capital $5,000,000;" the genuine "capital $4,000,000." The back of the counterfeit is a much lighter green than that of the genuine, and the lathework is somewhat indistinct and defective in minute detail. As it is more than likely some of these counterfeiters may drift down in this direction we advise merchants and others to be on their guard.

THE steamer Worcester, Capt. Allen, arrived from Boston about five o'clock this morning, with a mixed cargo and the following passengers: Bertha Allen, Alice Bertram, Mrs. C. McLean, Ellen Kelly, Margaret Kelly, Mrs. DesRoches, Phoebe Campbell, Lizzie Matheson, Laura Matheson, Prof. E. B. Riley, Seymour G. Riley, Mrs. E. G. Geddie, Lizzie McLellan, Jane Mullin, Mrs. G. Clarke, Misses V. Sutherland, T. Dean, S. McKay, J. McKay, M. Cameron, S. Fardown, Annie Fardown, Lillie Fardown, M. Doellan, Mrs. McNamara, Bessie Jamieson, Andrew Cobb, B. Keeping, J. A. McWilliams, George McLeod, J. H. Holland, David Dill, Jessie Farrell, Maggie Carmichael, Mrs. Nicholson, James Holland, David McLean, W. E. McLean, J. S. Kimball, B. Moore, James Dwyer, W. L. McKenzie, Daniel Robertson, W. Es Enman, D. C. Mullin, Mrs. R. Reddin, Miss M. Bohannon, Mrs. J. Wyatt, Mary A. Dwyer, A. Phelan.

ISRAEL McLAUGHLIN, well and unfavorably known throughout the length and breadth of the Island as "John M. Whitman" and "The Tramp," was arraigned before the County Court at Hampton, N. B., on Monday, charged with feloniously entering the residence of Mr. W. O. Stewart, at Hampton, in the early morning of Sunday, the 27th ult., and administering chloroform to Mr. Stewart's daughter, with intent to commit a felonious assault upon her. The courtroom was crowded with spectators, among whom were a goodly number of ladies, and much interest was taken in the proceedings. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when McLaughlin entered the courtroom in charge of the constables, he was the observed of all. He was dressed in a neat blue black suit, and did not appear to have changed much while in jail, other than that his beard had grown a little, and his face was somewhat thinner. McLaughlin, when asked whether he was guilty or not, replied that he was not guilty, and said that he was ready for trial although he had no counsel or the wherewith to employ counsel. The trial then proceeded. The evidence was much the same as at the preliminary examination, the gist of which has already appeared in THE EXAMINER, and was very strong against the prisoner. The case was concluded at 8 p. m., when it was given to the jury, who, after an hour's deliberation, returned with a verdict of "Guilty." McLaughlin was then remanded for sentence.

THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

Hartington's Policy Accepted.

OUTLINE OF THE SCHEME.

LONDON, July 14. An agreement has been arrived at by which Lord Salisbury accepts Hartington's Home Rule policy, which involves the maintenance of the full powers of the Imperial Parliament; by it the powers conferred on local councils in Ireland are delegated—not surrendered—by Parliament which body reserves the right to control and revise the action of said councils; the appointment of judges and legal administrators are to be centred in the Imperial Parliament.

Hartington is still reluctant to join the Conservative ministry, although he is pledged to support coercive measures and the general policy of the Conservatives.

Gladstone will hold a conference with his colleagues on Saturday. The Parnellites say that they will never accept Hartington's scheme and will fight and wait until they have secured the passage of the full Gladstone measure.

The total of members elected up to date is, Conservatives and Unionists, 365; Gladstonians, 241.

"Sport" Misapplied becomes "Murder." BRIDGEWATER, N. S., July 14. One of the most heartless and cold blooded murders ever perpetrated in this Province occurred here yesterday.

A demented old man named O'Connell, who has been tramping around the neighborhood for some time, was near Davidson's mill stream yesterday. In the morning a brutish fellow named John Hebb had thrown the poor old man into the river "to give him a ducking." O'Connell succeeded in getting ashore all right at that time. But towards evening a gang of fiends in the guise of men, named Johnston, Grant, Duffy, Conrod, Colin Conrod, John Hebb, Henry Conrod, and Joseph Feener, concluded to have some "more sport" with the poor old man. Feener accordingly deliberately pushed him from off the boom into the water, the other villains helping to "shake the plank" on which old O'Connell stood. The fiendish crew stood by, refusing to give the drowning man any assistance, and apparently enjoying their so-called "sport" of seeing a human life meeting a miserable end. Feener said he "wouldn't wet his clothes" to save the old man—and O'Connell was allowed to drown before their very eyes and within reach of safety.

A Coroner's Jury held an inquest and returned a verdict that the deceased had been willfully and maliciously thrown off the boom by Joseph Feener, thus causing his death.

Feener was arrested and remanded till to-day. Public opinion is greatly excited, and there is a strong feeling that Feener and his inhuman accomplices ought to be lynched.

Celebrating the Twelfth.

TORONTO, July 14. The anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne was very generally celebrated here with no serious disturbances.

At Peterboro a Home Rule flag was rotten-egged and torn into shreds. An unsuccessful attempt was made to wreck a train on the Canada Atlantic Railway carrying Orange excursionists.
