MR. AND MRS. BOWSER. He illustrates the Better Side of the House to the Mystery of Parlor Athletics. "My case? What do you mean?" she asked. "Why, your being all run down in flesh, dependent on nothing, not able to sleep nights, and so on."

"I do not think I need any exercise of the kind," she quietly observed. "But you certainly do. If you run down hill for another month, you will be looked for the graveyard."

"I can't believe that chasing around the room after a balloon is good for anybody's health. Mr. Bowser, I wish you would drop all these queer notions."

AFTER DANGERS OF LA GRIPPE. A Boston paper facetiously remarked that "La Grippe is seldom fatal unless you use the remedies recommended for it. They are correct. The writer fully believes that the end of the poor 'grip' victim, if he tried all the patent medicines that have adorned (?) the pages of our leading newspapers as 'sure cures for La Grippe,' would be like Mark Twain, who for his famous cold tried every remedy advised by friends, until his stomach became so weak he began to vomit and continued until, as he says, 'he was like to throw up his immortal soul.' We notice one of the leading advertisers of the day has been conspicuous at this opportune time by the absence of any claim to cure the 'grip,' and we feel like giving them a free 'ad' for their conspicuous omission upon our readers. The more so for the reason that probably more people have used their remedy, that good old family medicine, John-o-an-Angely's Liniment, than all the other 'cures' combined. And why not? Certainly no other will relieve catarrhal colds, coughs, bronchial troubles or influenza, as completely as that same old John-o-an-Angely's Liniment. The real after dangers from this epidemic disease is, it leaves the mucous membrane linings of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes tender and very susceptible to the catarrhal, bronchial troubles and pneumonia, which come with February and March in our northern climate. The Proprietor, I. S. Johnson & Co., Boston, Mass., will send their well-illustrated book, 'Treatment for Diseases,' free to any person for the asking.

A LIBERAL FARMER. He Would Pay $100 For One Fifty Cent Article if the Price Were Halved That High.

NEWCOMB MILLS, Feb. 25. - Chester Loomis of this place is willing to pay $100 for what can now be bought for fifty cents, in case the price rose to that figure. Mr. Loomis says Dodd's Kidney Pills are worth that to him or any man afflicted with kidney disease. He ought to know, too, for he had kidney disease so bad for some years that it could do no work and could not ride in a log because of the pain it gave him to do so. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him and he is willing to make affidavit to his own plain statement if not thought sufficient.

SEIZE THE OPPORTUNITY AT ONCE. When the opportunity occurs to escape from death only lunatics will refuse to do it. But there are many consumptive people lying on death beds who can escape the threatened doom if they will take Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

Some are not aware of such a preparation, and if they die it will be the result of ignorance. Those who know that Miller's Emulsion makes new blood and enables the consumptive to get strength to overcome the disease are self-destroyers if they still neglect to obtain the life-giving remedy. Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthener and blood maker, and cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Scrofula, and all Lung Affections. In Big Bottles, 50c. and $1. at all Drug Stores.

The 5d stamp of New South Wales has remained unchanged for a longer period than any other adhesive postage stamp. The paper and color are practically the same as when issued in 1854.

They Do Not Despair. An utter loss of hope is not characteristic of Consumptives, though no other form of disease is so fatal, unless its progress is arrested by use of Scott's Emulsion, which is Cod Liver Oil made as palatable as cream.

There are 48 different materials used in constructing a piano, laying no fewer than 16 different countries under contribution, and employing 45 different hands.
