MEMBER FROM YUKON CALLED PC'S BEST SPEAR-THROWER

OTTAWA (CP)—Erling Nielsen once called John Diefenbaker "the best spear-thrower in the party."

And like his Progressive Conservative chief he practised his spear-throwing art in the law courts before entering the Commons in a 1957 by-election.

The 40-year-old Regina-born lawyer, member for Yukon, is one of the most colorful opposition members and perhaps one of the most feared by the Liberals.

Once on the scene of government actions which he considers misconduct he is like a ferocious warrior his prey.

A link, jur-jured son of Danish-English parentage, Nielsen has been at the helm of articles as well. Following the sale the usual weekly bingo boom.
