CLOSING BANQUET

The executive and players of the Prince County Hockey League rang down the curtain on a highly successful season at a banquet held in the RCAF Station Summer-side Friday night. Squadron Leader Stewart Logan is presenting the John H. Grady trophy to Jim MacLeod of the Borden Nationals who was voted the most valuable player to his team. The MVP was selected by the managers and teams and the selection of MacLeod proved to be a popular one.

Turcotte Reined Entry Leads Way To The Wire

NEW YORK (CP)—Ridden by Grand Falls, N.B., native Ron Turcotte, Tom Rolfe, outlasted Native Charger in the stretch Saturday and won the $6,000 Stepping Stone purse at Louisville, Ky., one of the last major tests for Kentucky Derby hopefuls.

Narushua finished third in the field of seven for the seven-furlong race, opening day attraction at Churchill Downs.

The winner, owned by Powlan Stables, laid back during the early running and made his move as the field started around the turn.

At the head of the stretch Native Charger moved up on the outside and was within 1 1/2 lengths of catching Tom Rolfe as he crossed the finish line.

The time was 1:22 4/5.

Tom Rolfe returned $7, $2.00 and $2.40. Native Charger paid $2.40 and $2.20, while Narushua was worth $3.20 in show.

Quita Dude closed with a rush and won the $85,050 Gray Lag handicap at New York's Aqueduct race track Saturday.

Ismal Valenzuela brought the winner home by one-half length ahead of the favored Tibaldo and covered the 1 1/4 miles in 1:49 2/5, on a fast track.

Lt. Stevens, top-weighted at 128 pounds, was third another 2 1/2 lengths back.

Quita Dude paid $16.90, $6.30 and $3.80. Tibaldo returned $4 and Lt. Stevens $4.70.

The winner, owned by Sidney Factor, received $55,282.50 of the gross purse.

RIDES FIVE WINNERS

At Cherry Hill, N.J., Johnny Sellers rode five winners at Garden State Park Saturday including Time Tested in the $30,150 Delaware Valley Handicap.

Sellers got Time Tested up in the final stride to beat Hi-Hasty by a nose in the six-furlong sprint for three-year-olds.

Record Dash was third in the field of 13.

The winner paid $19.80, $6.60 and $4.40 and was timed in 1:10.

Hi-Hasty returned $4.40 and $3.60 with Record Dash $4.60 to show.

At Boston Meet Me Later won the $15,000-added Pinafore Stakes at Suffolk Downs Saturday, galloping to a 4 1/2-length victory over Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' heavily favored Adorable.

Snooker Tourney Near Completion

There are only 13 players remaining in the first 15 and Snooker Championships being played at both the B and M Club in Summerside and at Mr. Cue in Charlottetown.

Only three players remain undefeated and for everybody else a loss means elimination in the double knock-out tournament.

A big match is scheduled for Summerside Monday with two of the undefeated players meeting and the winner of this match will take on Jack Brown, the other undefeated player, later this week, at Mr. Cue.

Here is the draw for Monday at both clubs, with the players' won-lost record after their names:

7 P.M. Monday at the B and M Club—Summerside: Vern Wedge (3-1) vs Harry Poulton (2-1); Keith Champion (3-0) vs Allison Tulle (3-0).

7 p.m. Monday at Mr. Cue—Charlottetown: Clair Harding (2-1) vs Bob Walton (2-1); John Kane (3-1) vs the winner of Hal Ladner and Jeff Roberts (both 2-1).

Bucks Blast Maple Leafs

VICTORIA (CP)—Portland Buckaroos captured the playoff championship of the Western Hockey League Saturday night with a 3-0 shutout over Victoria Maple Leafs fashioned in superlative netminding by Don Head.

Buckaroos won the best-of-seven series four games to one.

The five-game rout made it a season sweep for Hal Laycoe's rugged crew who added the Lester Patrick Cup to a first-place finish in the regular season.

In wrapping it up Saturday night Buckaroos got a goal from Cliff Schmutz in the first period and two from Gerry Goyer in the third period, the last into an empty net.

Buckaroos made their way to the final by defeating Vancouver Canucks in a semi-final that also went to five games. Leafs, who finished fourth in the schedule, eliminated Seattle Totems in seven.

FISH BORN BALD

A fish has no scales at birth. When one or two inches long, the tiny discs appear, and the fish has a constant number throughout its life.

The high-run for the tournament is still held by Vern Wedge of Summerside with a 41, but this could fall in any match.

The public is invited to come and watch these matches.
