dangerous route, inasmuch as the least digression from the track might lead the traveller out into the gulf. We would urge upon the inhabitants of Fifteen Point, who are accustomed to travel on the ice, to attend to this matter. Only let such men as William Hibbett or Charles Howat undertake the bushing of this ice, and we feel confident they will not want for men to help them perform the work.

☞ We had occasion the other day to visit the extensive Carriage Factory of William Tuplin, Esq., situated on Water Street, in this place. Mr. Tuplin, for many years, carried on his business in Margate, but, like many others he foresaw that Summerside was to be the emporium of trade of Prince County, and some two years ago he moved in here and erected a very large workshop. In the wood work department of this establishment we observed quite a number of hands employed, as also in the smith's department. On the second floor we found Mr. Tuplin himself, with some of his men, putting the finishing touch, with the brush, to some sleighs. We were shown some twenty or more as handsome and well built sleighs as we ever saw, and we are fully convinced that Mr. Tuplin deserves the reputation he has gained for himself as a first class Carriage and Sleigh Builder. It would not, perhaps, be out of place for us to mention here that Mr. Tuplin has this summer erected a very fine dwelling house. It is, we think, one of the largest in the Town and has a very nice verandah all around it, and a cupola on the top, from which a fine view may be had of the harbor and surrounding country. Mr. Mathew Dempsy was the architect.

☞ Blackwood for November has been received. The contents are:—"Brownlows;" "At the Alps again;" "Conversation;" "Linda Tressel;" "Reynolds and the Portrait Painters of the Past Century;" "Cornelius O'Dowd;" A very popular fallacy — 24th August in Australia — Garibaldi's Last — "Women in the Middle Ages;" "The Impending crisis in America." It is a very interesting number. As Debating Clubs are now being formed we would urge upon members the necessity of obtaining Blackwood or some one of the Reviews. The first of the year is the time to subscribe. Send in your orders to Harvie's, Laird's, or Bertram's Book Store.

☞ We learn that the dwelling house of Mr. Richard Taylor, of Mill River, New London, was totally consumed by fire on Wednesday morning the 11th instant. Mr. Taylor and his sister, the only inmates of the house, barely escaped with their lives, in their night clothes. They lost everything they had. The fire originated from a barrel of ashes.

☞ On Monday last we had quite an old-fashioned snow storm; it was accompanied, however, with high winds, and the snow has drifted very much in some places, and the road is bare in other places. We want more snow to make good roads.

Yesterday at 2 o'clock, p.m., the remains of the late Hon. Edward Whelan were followed to their last resting place in the Roman Catholic cemetery, by one of the largest funeral processions which we have seen in this city. The Irish Volunteers and the Members of the Benevolent Irish Society, in mourning, headed the cortege.—Patriot.

On Tuesday morning last, Mr. John Henderson, of the Winsloe Road, was found on the Princetown Road frozen to death. Mr. Henderson was an aged man, and some few years since lived on the Brackley Point Road, where he had Mills.—Isl.

Found at Last.—A remedy that not only relieves, but cures Consumption, and its numerous satellites, which revolve around it in the shape of coughs, colds, influenza, Bronchitis, &c. This remedy is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

☞ We have not received a Colonial or a Foreign Mail here for the last two weeks, in consequence of which we are unable to furnish a summary of the latest news. We give below the latest telegram.

We have just heard that three boats crossed over yesterday to this side, bringing no less than fifteen mail bags. We may look out for a big lot to-night.

We understand that the Masonic Brethren of Summerside and St. Eleanor's intend having a Supper on St. John Day.

Summerside Debating Society.

This Institute was opened on Monday evening last, by the President, Finlay McNeill, Esq., with a short and appropriate address, after which the subject of debate for the evening—"Were the British Government justified in permitting the execution of the Manchester Fenians?"—was opened by Mr. H. Lawson, and kept up with much vigor for some time. On the question being put it was decided in the affirmative.

The subject for debate next Monday evening will be—"Should Education be made compulsory by the State?" To be opened by Daniel Enman, Esq.

She was a native of Uist, Hebrides, Scotland, and emigrated to this Colony 26 years ago. As one of the last genuine relics of an age and race widely differing from the present both in language and manners, her departure is felt by a large connection of relations and descendants as leaving behind it an ineffaceable blank. "Behold thou hast made my days as an handbreadth, and mine age is as nothing before thee."

At Charlottetown, on Sabbath, 1st inst., Jane Campbell, wife of Mr. John McKinnon, aged 55 years.

On the 5th inst., Annabella Ellen, infant daughter of Mr. Allen, Forsyth, of Alberton, aged 2 years.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quincy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and lungs, prevail in our changeable climate at all seasons of the year; few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important it is then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaint. Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam to an extent not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health,

Mr. JOHN BUNTO,

Of Baldwin, Chemung Co., N. Y.—writes:

"I was urged by a neighbor to get one bottle of the Balsam for my wife, being assured by him that in case it did not produce good effects, he would pay for the bottle himself. On the strength of such practical evidence of its merits, I procured a bottle. My wife at this time was so low with what the Physicians termed Seated Consumption as to be unable to raise herself from the bed, coughing constantly and raising more or less blood. I commenced giving the Balsam as directed, and was so much pleased with its operation that I obtained another bottle, and continued giving it. Before this bottle was entirely used, she ceased coughing and was strong enough to sit up. The fifth bottle entirely restored her to health, doing that which several physicians had tried to do but had failed."
