

Stengel Has Nine Yanks On Squad For All Star Game

CHICAGO (A.) — Manager Casey Stengel wound up with nine of his own New York Yankees including three pitchers Saturday as he completed the 25-player American League squad for the July 8 all-star game.

As expected, Boston's Ted Williams—omitted from the starting AL lineup named in Friday's poll of players, coaches and managers—was picked by Stengel for his complete squad which has seven pitchers.

The eight players, exclusive of pitchers, who received the highest vote at their respective positions in the player poll will start and play a minimum of three innings. Remainder of the squad was named Saturday by Stengel.

Stengel's complete unit also includes five players from Chicago White Sox; two from Boston Red Sox; three each from Cleveland Indians, Baltimore Orioles and Detroit Tigers; and one each from Kansas City and Washington.

The Yankees, who had first baseman Bill Skowron and center fielder Mickey Mantle named as starters, also will be represented against the National League by pitchers Whitey Ford, Bob Turley and fast-balling Rindol Duren, catcher Yogi Berra, outfielder Elston Howard, shortstop Tony Kubek and second baseman Gil McDougald.

THREE SOUTHPAWS
Stengel will have three top lefties to shoot against the Nationals, including Ford, Billy Pierce of the White Sox and Billy O'Dell of the Orioles. His right-handed mound guns will be Turley, Early Wynn of the White Sox, Duren and Ray Narleski.

Baltimore's Gus Triandos, voted the starting catcher, will be backed up by Berra and Chicago's Sherm Lollar.

The player-balloted starting infield of Boston's Frank Malzone at third, Chicago's Luis Alvarado and Nellie Fox at short and second, and Skowron at first is supported by Cleveland's Mickey Vernon at first, Kubek and Washington's Rocky Bridges at short and McDougald, technically a second baseman, but handy anywhere.

The designated starting outfield includes Mantle in centre, Kansas City's Bob Cerv in left and Boston's Jackie Jensen in right. As capable replacements, Stengel has Williams, Detroit's Al Kaline and Harvey Kuenn and Howard.

Eleven players on this 1958 squad played in last year's game in St. Louis won by the American League 6-5.

Iona, Montague Are Winners

Two games were played yesterday in the Southern Kings softball league for the Jamieson trophy, the game at Vernon being won by Iona 5-2 and in the game at Cardigan, Montague downed the home team 16-6. Large crowds watched both games. Irvin Connely went the distance on the mound for Iona and E. Mooney was his catcher. Ed Murphy and Norbert Fraser did the pitching and catching honors for Vernon River. The highlight of this game was a homer by Connely in the sixth, however there were no one on base.

In the game at Cardigan, Carl Cronin and Pete MacAulay played stand out game for the home team while Bruce Clair and Bus Dutney made a double play for Montague and Harry Stewart brought home two runs with his line drive. Joe MacAulay and Harry Hughes did the honors for Cardigan while Ken Baltum and Hugh Power were their opposition.

Cavan Wins L. Richards Stakes

NEW YORK (CP)—Joseph E. O'Connell's chestnut-coated Cavan, the Irish urchin who romped to victory over Derby and Preakness winner Tim Tam in the Belmont Stakes, Saturday won the $47,900 Leonard Richards Stakes at Delaware Park.

The last of 11 starters at the final turn, he pulled a Silky Sullivan hat trick and outdistanced the field to take $35,000 first money by two lengths and return $3, $2.60, and $2.20 to his backers. He ran the mile and a furlong in 1:49.25.

Walter M. Jeffords' Piano Jim was second, paying $4.60 and $2.80. Third was Windfield Farm's Grey Monarch, who paid $3.80.

In Chicago, millionaire thoroughbred Round Table, ridden by Willie Shoemaker, sky-rocketed his earnings to $1,090,014 when he won the $36,050 Arch Ward Memorial Handicap.

In money matters, he received $33,000, surpassed Citation's $1,085,760 and now is second only to Nashua who has earned $1,288,565.

Cain Hoy Stable's Red God larded over the $27,700 Roseben Handicap at Belmont Park for an easy four-length triumph to pay $30.90 mutual as the second longest price in the field of six. Second came Greentree Stable's Cohoes, the favorite.

Legion Defeats R. C. A. F. Flyers

The Summerside Legion defeated the R.C.A.F. Flyers at the Airport softball diamond yesterday by the score of 1-0. Sonny Stull was pitching for the Legion team while Frank Steele did the flinging for R.C.A.F. Doucette Cardigan while Ken Baltum and Hugh Power were their opposition.

Brazil Wins Soccer Crown

By JOHN FARROW
STOCKHOLM (AP) — Brazil won the world soccer championship Sunday by outclassing Sweden 5-2 in a drama-packed world cup final.

The Brazilians switched on their magic in the first half for a 2-1 lead and treated the sell-out crowd of 50,000 at Stockholm's Rasunda stadium to as fine a display of football ever seen.

Every man in the Brazilian team was a star. The individual brilliance of the South Americans combined with superb team play and precision passing outclassed the Swedes, who fought all the way but never stood a chance.

Brazil had 22 shots at goal during the whole match and the Swedes only seven.

It was the climax to three weeks of gruelling competition that saw 16 teams start out in a bid for world soccer supremacy.

Heavy rain left the ground wet and soggy. Pools of water stood on the ground.

GOAL IN FOURTH MINUTE
The game started dramatically with Swedish inside forward Nils Liedholm scoring for Sweden in the fourth minute. It was a goal that sent the crowd wild with excitement.

But the joy of the home fans was short-lived. Brazilian centre forward Vava, who like many Brazilians uses only one name put the South Americans on even terms in the seventh minute and from then on the Brazilians took complete charge.

Other goals in the match came from Vava in the 32nd minute, Pele for Brazil in the 55th minute, Zagallo for Brazil in the 67th minute, Agne Simonsson for Sweden in the 80th minute and Pele again in the 88th minute.

Brazil deservedly became the first South American team to win the world cup on European soil.

CLEAN GAME
The match was as good natured a world cup final as any in the 28-year history of the competition. There was not an incident to mar it.

Sweden's King Gustaf VI Adolf congratulated the new world champions and the runners-up.

France finished in third place Saturday with a 6-3 victory over West Germany which took fourth place.

Saturday's match was played before only 16,000 at Goteborg's Ullevi stadium. Juste Fontaine, France's star inside forward, scored four goals and sent his personal tournament record to 13 goals—the highest.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .
Bobby Jones won his third United States Open golf title in a lopsided title playoff, 29 years ago today. Jones and Abe Espinosa each had scores of 294 for the regulation 72 holes, but in the 36-hole playoff Jones won by 141 to 164. That was the year before Jones scored his grand slam, victories in the U.S. Open and amateur, and British Open and amateur.

Haney Forms National League All-Star Team

CINCINNATI (AP) — Manager Fred Haney will have six members of his world champion Milwaukee Braves on his squad when he takes the National League team into the annual major league all-star game at Baltimore July 8.

Outfielder Hank Aaron and catcher Del Crandall were selected for the starting lineup by a vote of the league's players and Haney picked four others Saturday as he completed the 25-man squad.

Haney chose pitchers Don McMahon and Warren Spahn, shortstop Johnny Logan and third baseman Eddie Mathews.

According to custom, the manager picks all of the pitchers and Haney rounded out his hurling staff by selecting Johnny Antonelli of San Francisco Giants, Dick Farrell of Philadelphia Phillies, Bob Friend of Pittsburgh Pirates, Larry Jackson of St. Louis Cardinals, Johnny Podres of Los Angeles Dodgers and Bob Purkey of Cincinnati Redlegs.

Haney's other selections were outfielders Richie Ashburn of the Phillies and Walt Moryn and Lee Walls of Chicago Cubs; catchers

John Roseboro of the Dodgers and Bob Schmidt of the Giants, and infielders Don Blasingame of the Cardinals and George Crowe of the Redlegs.

BRAVES SUPPLY MOST

As the squad stands the Braves will have six players, the Pirates four, the Cubs, Cardinals and Giants three each and the Redlegs, Phils and Dodgers two each.

The National League starters, excluding the pitcher, will be Crandall, catcher; Stan Musial of the Cards, first base; Bill Mazeroski of the Pirates, second base; Ernie Banks of the Cubs, shortstop; Frank Thomas of the Pirates, third base, and Willie Mays of the Giants, Bob Skinner of the Pirates and Aaron in the outfield.
