THE KING'S COUNTY ELECTION CASE

THE EVIDENCE.

THE BOTTLE ON THE ROUNDS—CANVASSING, TREATING AND DOING BUSINESS.

CHARLES KEEFE called on behalf of petitioner, sworn and examined by Mr. Hodgson.—I live at Little River, and am an elector for this County, and was so in June last. I remember McLean coming to my house a few days before the Election. There was no particular talk about the Election. James Keefe was in the house and McLean was sitting in the wagon. My brother James was speaking of going through to Grand River. He did not say anything about the election, nor did Mr. McLean. My brother treated the missus and some of the little ones, he said he had a drop for his own use. I rather think I took a taste of it myself. McLean took me to one side and asked me if I would give his party a shove. I told him that I had been canvassed by Dr. McIntyre, and that my mind was not made up and I would not let any body know how I was going to vote. I knew when McLean said if I would give their party a shove, he meant Drs. McIntyre and Robertson. I think I took a drop, I can't say what sort of stuff it was.

Cross-examined by Mr. Davies.—James Keefe that I spoke of was my brother. He went into the house. McLean did not go in. It is customary for him to carry a bottle with him. He was formerly a shipbuilder, and lately he is engaged in the sale of mowing machines, and generally carries a bottle when he goes round on his business.

"LIQUOR FOR NOTHING; BUT NO FREE DRINKS."

LAUCHLIN MCKAY called on behalf of petitioner, sworn and examined by Mr. Hodgson.—I live at Grand River. I know Alexander Martin of Dundas. I was at his house the day of the election. I know Martin personally. I heard him speaking about the election and in support of Drs. Robertson and McIntyre. I was not at Martin's the night of the meeting at Dundas. I would not be certain I was ever in Martin's house before the election day. I got a drink at Martin's house. I think it was Mrs. Martin gave it to me. Martin was not there at the time. I don't recollect seeing Martin about his house that day. Nelson Cantello told me he thought there was something to drink there. I did not get a bill for it yet. I worked for Martin. I expect to be charged for the grog. Could not tell how many drinks I had. It was whiskey I think. $5 or $6 would be an overcharge. Martin owes me a bill. I never asked him if he charged me for the liquor. I offered to pay the money for the liquor; they said not to mind then. They owed me. I offered them the money in notes. It was $5 or $1. I don't recollect how many I saw there. Cantello and I got liquor there. I couldn't say whether Cantello paid for the liquor. Me and Cantello went there together. I saw people I think going in for liquor. I did not see them pay for it. I don't recollect how many I saw. I wouldn't say there wasn't a dozen. I could walk home that night. I was a little the worse of liquor. I did not see anybody else the worse of liquor. I went home about 7 or 8 o'clock. Cantello told me at 10 o'clock that there was liquor at Martin's, and we went there at once. We had about fifty yards to walk. I was there three or four times off and on through the day. I don't recollect if anybody went with me. I might have gone by myself. My memory is not very good. I did not offer to pay for it after the first time. I can't say if anybody else had accounts there. Couldn't say if they offered to pay for the liquor. Couldn't say how much they charged a glass. I did not see anybody pay, nor did I pay, unless it is charged in my bill. I don't recollect how many I told about the liquor up at Martin's. I told them there was liquor there. I did not know if it was free or not. I did not hear that the liquor was given free there. Liquor was not given free to my knowledge. I did not see any money passed. I never got any there before that. I have got liquor there since. I heard there was liquor.

Cross-examined by Mr. Davies—Martin keeps some kind of an inn at Dundas. Since the Election day I have got liquor there, and I expect to find it in my bill. I have treated people there since, and I offered to pay, but they said to never mind it then, and I expect to find it in the bill. I won't swear that Dr. Muttart sent that liquor there, nor will I swear that Dr. McIntyre sent it there. I know nothing about it. There was no liquor given to me on Election day to induce me to vote or for having voted.

LIQUOR DISPENSED CONTRARY TO ORDERS—WHO IS TO PAY THE PIPER?

ALEXANDER MARTIN called on behalf of the petitioner. Sworn and examined by Mr. Hodgson.—I had some liquor in my establishment on Election day, and before Election day. I am an elector of this County. There were people calling at my house during Election day. When I left home I left word that they were not to give one sup to any body from the time the poll opened until the poll was closed. I gave one bottle away myself. I did not canvass much any how. I supported Dr. McIntyre and Robertson. Neither them nor any body else asked me if I was going to vote for them. They understood pretty well who I was going to vote for. The last supply of liquor I got before the Election was the 1st or 10th of June. There was a meeting at Dundas before the Election. I was there myself. I don't remember the day it took place. It was three days before the election at any rate. The first bottle was about 6 or 7 o'clock in the morning. That was the only bottle. They must have misunderstood me, for they had given some after I left the house. I asked about it the next day when I came home. I sold some myself, that was after the poll closed. I was back and forward from my own house all day. When I went in they were drinking liquor, but I didn't know where it came from, they might have brought it with them. The next day she told me how the thing stood. That she had given some and sold some. Most of it was sold on credit and charged to all the parties, and some of it paid for and some not. There was none of it went into the Election expenses. I was not paid a cent by any one for the liquor that was got on Election day except by those who bought. Dr. Robertson and Dr. McIntyre were at my place during their canvass. They were there the night of the Dundas meeting, they put up at my place and their two horses, and every time they went by they called in and fed their horses and themselves too. I couldn't tell how many times. They were there two or three times. They paid their cash every time. I was just as scary as others. Each paid. There was one time Dr. Robertson hadn't change and Dr. McIntyre paid for both of them. I am an elector of this County and was in June last.

Cross-examined by Mr. Davies.—I did not keep an open house on election day for Robertson and McIntyre, nor did they pay me anything for liquor. Not one cent. The liquor I had on election day I bought and paid for myself. I kept a boarding house and until I heard the news about the Scott Act, sold liquor. The first bottle I gave away was to Samuel McDonald, Muttart's agent or inspector, before the poll opened, and he paid me for it. After the poll closed, I sold more liquor and got paid for it. It is false that I kept open house on election day. I don't keep it now. I did not attempt to bribe any voters by giving them any grog, nor did I give them any to vote, nor for having voted.

Court adjourned to eleven o'clock on Wednesday, the 13th December.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.

West Kent Street School.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—As you have been kind enough to correct Mr. Oxenham's statement that your correspondent "has no personal interest in the matter respecting which he has written," it is scarcely necessary for me to further trench on your columns. I may say, however, that my interest in the matter is greater than even you give me credit for—as more than one pupil in whose welfare I am interested has been attending the public schools—and as great, perhaps, as Mr. O.'s, outside of his official duties, for which he is paid. Besides I have, for many years past, publicly and privately, taken a deep interest in common school education, and have done something, in my humble way, in its advocacy. I consider, therefore, that I had every right to call your attention to a matter which directly concerned the educational advantages to be obtained by those closely connected with me, as well as by hundreds of others. I made no attack on Mr O., personally or otherwise. And here, I repeat, I have the greatest respect for that gentleman. I am therefore at a loss to see the propriety of his rushing into print. The matter complained of might have been rectified without anything being written on the subject further than the three lines of your editorial paragraph, and will be remedied, I am led to believe, independent of Mr. O. He may decline as much as he likes to discuss the matter "with any writer, who does not attach his real name to his statements," and his invitation to call at his office for "information with respect to the public schools" is quite unnecessary, as I am enabled to obtain information from a thoroughly reliable outside source. Why Mr. "O" should complain of my "anonymity," while at the same time he says the writer is well known to him, are two things I find difficult to reconcile. I am prepared to stand by my statements, which, I am convinced, are incontrovertible; and which the worthy secretary has not successfully impugned. In closing this short correspondence into which he has dragged me much against my will, I cannot help comparing the Secretary's attitude, in this matter, to that of a certain crowned head, whose exploits were rendered famous in an old nursery rhyme, which, if I remember right, ran thus:

"The King of France, with twenty thousand men,
Drew their swords, and put them up again."

Yours, etc,
PATERFAMILIAS.

The London Truth tells this story of a distinguished London barrister: "When his young wife, to whom he was devotedly attached, was upon her death-bed a heavy and important case in which he was retained came up for hearing. His presence being absolutely indispensable in the interest of his client, Mr. Webster, with wonderful self-control, took his place in court, and spoke for several hours, returning at the end of the day to his wife's side in time to hear her last words. The next morning, though he was heart-broken and overwhelmed with grief, he appeared in court again, pale and determined, and resumed his speech, only leaving when he could safely do so."

A CONSIDERATE PRISONER.—An Irishman, being recently on trial for some offence, pleaded "Not guilty," and, the jury being in the box, the district attorney proceeded to call Mr. —— as a witness. With the utmost innocence, Patrick turned his face to the judge, and said: "Do I understand, yer honor, that Mr. —— is to be a witness foreninst me again?" The judge said, drily, "It seems so." "Well, thin, yer honor, I plade guilty sure, if yer honor plaise, not because I am guilty, for I'm as innocent as yer honor's suckin' babe, but jist on account of savin' Mister ——'s sowl."

The Princess von Hohenlohe was deer stalking recently in the woods near Schloss Randen, when suddenly a full grown wild boar dashed at her from the left, and at the same moment a roebuck in full career crossed in front of her. The Princess raised her rifle, knocked over the buck with her right barrel, and then gave the boar her left. The fierce animal turned over almost at her feet.

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhœa or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, Pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.
