THE DILLONS.

The Star publishes a lengthy sketch of the family history of the Dillons, John Dillon, of Montreal, having recently instituted proceedings to obtain the earldom of Roscommon. The blue and aristocratic blood of a Norman Knight courses through the veins of the Dillons. Their ancestor was Henri Le Lion, who participated in the invasion of Ireland in 1185 with John, afterwards King John, of England. According to Burke's Peerage a standard authority, so frequently consulted by American heiress, Sir James Dillon, an ancestor of the Norman Knight, was named Lord of Kilkenny West by King James 1st, in 1619, and three years later the Earldom of Roscommon was created. The Dillons in the seventeenth century formed one of the most powerful families in Ireland. They were renowned for their prowess in war, and happy is the fate of other clans that infringed on the Dillon preserves in those good old halcyon days. An immense region embracing the modern counties of Galway, Westmeath, Longford, Kilkenny, Roscommon, Heath, and Kilkenny, was known as "Dillon's country."

Three lines of Dillons have decended from the Norman knight. They are represented to-day by Lord Viscount Harold Arthur Lee-Dillon, of Ditchley, Oxford-hire, the Baron of Clonbrock, Luke Gerald Dillon, with a seat in Galway, and John Dillon, of Montreal respectively. Of course noble blood is owned by many other Dillons who are nominally plebians, In England they are found in Dorsetshire, Devonshire and Northampton.

A "PARTIAL LIST."

(Springfield Republican.)

Here is a partial list of the military appointments made by the President to date from among what we have called the aristocracy of "pull":

A son of ex-President Grant.
Another son of ex-President Grant.
A son of ex-President Hayes.
A son of ex-President Harrison.
A grandson of ex-President Grant.
A son of Gen. Logan.
A son of the Astors.
A son of Senator Foraker.
A son of Senator Sewell.
A son of Senator Gray.
Two sons of ex-Senator Calvin Brice.
A son of ex-Mayor Strong, of New York.
A son of ex-Mayor Hewitt, of New York.
A son of Vice President Hobart's brother.
A son of Fitzhugh Lee.
A son of Secretary Alger.
A son of ex-Consul-General New.
A son-in-law of Senator Money, of Mississippi.
A son of Chairman Hull, of the House Military Committee.
A son and son-in law of Senator Lodge.
A son of Vice Presidential candidate English.
A son of the late Congressman Milliken, of Maine.
A son of Senator Murphy, of New York.
A son of Congressman Catchings, of Mississippi.
A son of General Joseph Wheeler, of Alabama.

Practically all of whom are without the slightest military training or knowledge of experience,—men picked up from high social and official circles and advanced over the heads of the government of the United States for just such an emergency as the present, merely to tickle the pride of fond parents or gratify the absurd ambitions of aspiring favorites of fortune in civil life.

Local and Other Items.

PICNIC.—Zion Church Sunday School purpose holding a picnic on Wednesday 6th July next.

FOOTBALL.—There will be a match game of football between the Anchors and Arrows this evening at Victoria Park at 6 o'clock.

ORDINATION.—The Presbytery will meet in Zion Church on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock to ordain Dr. Grierson as missionary to Corea. The public are invited.

PRINCE OF WALES COLLEGE.—The commencement exercises of Prince of Wales College will be held this (Monday) night in the Opera House, beginning at 8 o'clock. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged to defray expenses.

BIG FISH STORY.—There was an eel caught lately in Catalone Lake, which measured 4 feet in length and 23 inches in circumference. The person who caught it had great difficulty in capturing it. This is a fact and can be proven at any time.—Sydney Reporter.

DIED AT NORTH RIVER.—The announce- of the death of Moses Byrne, made elsewhere in today's issue will be read with genuine regret. Mr. Byrne was one of the most successful farmers at North River, and enjoyed the respect and confidence of all who knew him. His bereaved wife, brother and other relatives have our sympathy.

POLICE COURT.—The charges of violating the Liquor Regulation Act preferred against Sarah Jane Higgins, George Offer and Henry C. Connolly engaged the attention of Stipendiary Magistrate Hazzard this morning. After examining some witnesses all three cases were adjourned for one week. A bicyclist was fined $2 or 10 days for riding on the sidewalk.

THE STANLEY.—The winter steamer Stanley has returned from Pictou where she has had her bottom painted, and is now having her deckwork and saloons painted at Connolly's wharf. She will leave on Wednesday for Pictou to "to coal up" preparatory to entering upon her season's work looking after smugglers. The movements of the steamer will be directed by Chief Preventive Officer Jones, of Ottawa, Captain Finlayson will be in command with Capt. Brown as first officer. Chief Engineer McMillan and Steward Lantz will also be at their old posts.

LAID TO REST.—The funeral of the late Mr. D. W. Finlayson, on Saturday afternoon, was one of the largest and most imposing that has been seen in Charlottetown for a long time. The funeral was under the auspices of the Oddfellows and the turnout of members of the order was general. The members of the Caledonian Club and the Fire Department also turned out well. These three organizations led the mournful procession, and with them were two brass bands and a piper. Following the hearse came a large number of citizens on foot and in carriages. The pall bearers were L. E. Prowse, George Stanley, G. D. Wright, F H. Sellar, Isaac Lane and Geo. M. Moore. The service at the house was conducted by Rev. T F. Fullerton, and at the grave the funeral service of the Oddfellows was chanted. The burial was in the People's Cemetery.

When Gladstone was returning to Hawarden to die, he was greeted with frequent cries of "God bless you, sir," "God's richest blessing rest upon you." Upon entering the train Mr. Gladstone turned and said in a clear voice: "God bless you all, and this place, and the land you love." It was a pathetic farewell and an abundant blessing.
