MISCELLANEOUS.

Advertising as a Moral Duty!

A NEW VIEW OF THE SUBJECT.

Some years ago it was proposed by an American physician that members of the Faculty should advertise their remedies and modes of treating diseases in the newspapers. It was a bold and manly idea. It was scouted, however, by the profession generally, as infra dig. But is there any degradation in publicity? Is it not rather the great touchstone that vies pretensions and universalises the practical benefits of all valuable inventions and discoveries? Should not a profession that aims at the mitigation of suffering and the preservation of life make the means of attaining these grand objects known through the channel of information most accessible to all classes and conditions—the columns of the public press? If it declines to do so, the natural inference is, either that the desire of secrecy arises from a sordid, monopolising, egotistic spirit, or from a lack of faith in its own prescriptions.

Viewing the subject in this light, we may presume, Professor Holloway some twenty years ago overleaped the barriers which the profession had erected between itself and the public, and plunged fearlessly into the newspaper arena. He had discovered, or rather invented after years of research and experiments, two preparations which he believed to be specifics for nearly all the diseases of mankind; and as an indication of his confidence in them, and a proof of his philanthropic wish that, if really valuable, they should be accessible to the whole world, he advertised them where ever advertising media existed This was the severest ordeal to which he could have submitted them—the experimentum crucis He threw them at once, as it were, before the sick of all regions. He stated their properties, proclaimed what they would do, and staked reputation and fortune upon the issue. That issue has been all that he or the world could have desired. The rich and the poor, the learned and the ignorant, physicians, statesmen, monarchs, a nation of enlightened freemen, have sanctioned used and extolled them. They are fixed facts in medical history!

Is not this better than hiding light under a bushel? Is it not better than writing prescriptions in a dead language, and putting weights and quantities into hieroglyphics?

If any thing is worth knowing, it is worthy of being universally known. So thinking, Holloway proclaimed the virtues of his medicines through the press; and fortune, fame, and the gratitude of millions have been his reward.

'And so you're going out to the East Hingies my darling Mrs. Marooney, said an old Irish lady to the young wife of a soldier about to embark for Madras. 'I have been in them parts myself and well do I remember the torment I went through night and day, the muscatoes. They have long suckers hanging down from their heads, and they I draw the blood of ye, before ye can say peace'

This terrifying account lasted in the memory of the young woman. The vessel mad the Madras Roads; the decks were soon crowded—all hands were delighted at the sight of land, Mrs. Maroony among the rest, but her joy was of short duration, for, on shore, she perceived an elephant. Horro struck at the sight, and breathless agitation, she approached the mate, exclaiming, with up-lifted hands, 'Holy Mother! is that a muscatoe?'

HOW ADAM FELL.—In a small town in Hartford county Conn, resides a clergyman who is the pastor of a small flock who esteem him very highly, and whom he is fond of catechising. A few days since, while he was taking a ramble through the village, he stopped at the house of one of his parishoners, and after the usual salutations had been exchanged, the conversation ran as follows: 'Well, sister W——, can you tell me how Adam fell?' The lady commenced to smile audibly, and finally replied: Why, my dear doctor, your'e not serious? 'Very serious indeed,' responded the doctor. Mrs W——, whose husband's name happens to be Adam, replied: 'Well, well, you will have it, Doctor. You see Adam went to climb over the fence the other night to go to Deacon M——'s for a bottle of whiskey, when an oar lying on the ground took his foot. Over Adam fell and barked his shin, and that's the whole truth of the matter

'MORE'N YOU'L KEEP.'—Some years ago, an old sign painter, who was very cross, very gruff, and a little deaf, was engaged to paint the Ten Commandments on some tablets in a church He worked two days at it, and the close of the second day the pastor of the church came to see how the work progressed The old man stood by, smoking a short pipe, as the reverned gentleman ran his eye over the tablets

'Eh!' said the pastor, as his familiar eye detected something wrong in the wording of the holy precepts, 'why you careless old person, you have left a part of one of the commandments entirely out—dont you see?'

'No—no such thing,' said the old man, putting on his spectacles, 'no nothing left out—where?'

'Why, there persisted the pastor; 'here, look at them in the Bible—you have left some of the commandments out

'Well, what if I have, said obstinancy, as he ran his eye complacently over his work—'what if I have? There's a confounded sight more there now than you'll keep!'

Another artist was employed next day.

Charles Lamb was in the habit of wearing a white cravat, and in consequence was sometimes taken for a clergyman. Once at a dinner-table, among a large number of guests, his white cravat caused such a mistake to be made, and he was called on to 'say grace' Looking up and down the table, he asked, in his inimitable, lisping manner:

'Is there no cl cl cle gyman present?'

'No, sir,' answered the guest.

'Th-then,' said Lamb, bowing his head, 'let us thank God.'

At Westerly, R. I. there is a brisk rivalry between the missionary of the Christian Association and an advertiser of Patent Medicine. The former painted on the fence, 'What shall I do to be saved?' and the latter put under it 'Use ———'s German Bitters!' The missionary retaliated by printing in another place, under 'Use ——s German Bitters,' the text, 'Prepare to meet thy God!'

Josh Billings was asked. 'How fast does sound travel?' and his idea is that it depends a good deal upon the noise you are talking about. 'The sound of a dinner horn, for instance, travels half a mile in a second, while an invitashun 2 get up in the morning I hev known 2 be 3 quarters uv an hour goin up 2 pairs of stairs and then not hev strength left to be heard.'

A newspaper published in the regions of Lake Memphremagog and Winnepesaukee, says that the fish in Lake Holleyhunkemum, Me, are said to be superior to those of either Lakes Weeleyobacook or Moosetockmegantnel. Those of Chanhungogungamanug were very fine, but they all got choked to death trying to tell where they lived.

'Your honor,' said a lawyer to a judge, 'every man who knows me, knows that I am incapable of lending my aid to a mean cause' 'That's so, said his opponent, 'the gentleman never lends himself to a mean cause, he always gets cash down.'

'Ah! said a pious Sunday School teacher, 'Caroline Jones what do you think you would have been without your good father and mother?' 'I suppose mum, said Caroline, 'I suppose as I should ha' been a horphan.'

A young dandy, about starting on a sea voyage, went to purchase his life preserver. 'Oh, you will not want it,' suggested the clerk; 'bags of wind won't sink.'

A conductor of a newspaper, speaking of a contemporary, says 'He was formerly a member of Congress, but rapidly rose till he obtained a respectable position as editor—a noble example of perseverance under depressing circumstances'

A debating society had under consideration the question, 'Is it wrong to cheat a lawyer?' The decision arrived at was, 'No, but impossible!'

'Time works wonders,' as the lady said when she got married after an eight year's courtship.'

UTTERLY IMPOSSIBLE.—That the old lady who believes "in signs and symptons," always looks out for the new moon over her left shoulder, and never makes pickles on a Friday, will not know "something to happen" within the year particularly if she has the bad luck to break the looking glass! As the old Dutch farmer said, "Things is always happening, most years."

That the man who says, "plenty of time, there's no hurry," should not miss the boats lose the trains, and get generally behindhand. Just notice whether people that have 'plenty of time,' don't usually end with having no time at all.

That the woman who puts off her baking until the weather is a little warmer, and sits down to read a dog's-eared novel in the meantime, should have anything but a drinking husband, shiftless children, and a desolate home.

That the man who carries his hands in his trowsers pockets, should ever possess anything else to carry in his pockets!

That the young lady who sleeps in kid gloves and powders her face "for the benefit of her complexion," should have more than here share of common sense.

That the man who wears an imitation diamond ring, will ever own a real one! For mock jewelry indicates a lack of brains and it takes a certain amount of brains to make money enough for real diamonds, or anything else that is genuine—From Phrenological Journal.

TYING A KNOT.—A young fellow was taking a sleigh ride with a pretty girl, when he met a Methodist minister, who was somewhat celebrated for tying matrimonial knots on short notice. He stopped him and asked hurriedly:

'Can you tie a knot for me?'

'Yes,' said brother B, 'I guess so; when do you want it done?'

'Well, right away,' was the reply; is it lawful, though here in the highway?'

'Oh yes—this is as good a place as any—safe as in the church itself.'

'Well, then, I want a knot tied in my horse's tail, to keep it out of the snow!' shouted the wicked wag as he drove rapidly away, fearing lest the minister in his wrath should fall from grace.

FIFTH.—It is more permanent than common Inks

SIXTH.—The color, when first written, is a beautiful dark green, but in a remarkably short time it changes to a BRILLIANT JET BLACK—not a brownish black.

SEVENTH.—It is admirably adapted to the most delicate writing, and ALWAYS "makes its mark"

This Ink is warranted to flow as freely as any other Writing Fluid now in use; to give as perfect a copy as any Copying Ink; and not to mould.

Which have been extensively used in Great Britain and the United States, the past eight years for which they claim the undermentioned advantages over those in ordinary use, the proof of which may be seen in their constantly increasing business during the past eight years.

The Most Reliable Friend!

Hollowy's Ointment,

Its Searching & Healing Properties are known and recognized throughout the World.

The number of years this invaluable Ointment has stood the test of public opinion, (and the longer known the better appreciated) is a testimony of itself more convincing than anything that could be written in praise of its truly wonderful healing properties. In the cure of bad legs, bad breasts, sores, wounds, and ulcers, its effect is marvellous. For ring-worm, scald-head, scrofula, and diseases of the scalp generally, there is no remedy to be compared to it. When assidiously rubbed upon the skin (previously well bathed in warm water this Ointment is quickly absorbed into the system, and cleanses, in its passage, every part to which it is applied.

Glandular Swellings, Mumps Bronchitis, Quinsey, Sore Throats and Diptheria.

In any of the above diseases, immediate and permanent relief is obtained by effectually rubbing this detergent Ointment, twice a day, upon the neck, chest and back Its acts upon the very mainsprings of life; for through the glands pass all new matter required for the body's reparation and all old particles detrimental to its preservation. The Ointment, used conjointly with Holloway's Pills, will act so searchingly and certainly as to effect cures in the most hopeless cases.

Rheumatism, Lumbago, Contracted and Stiff Joints.

Many thousands of martyrs from the above complaints have found life almost unsupportable; yet, if Holloway's Ointment be briskly and perseveringly rubbed upon the parts affected, ease may be safely guaranteed, especially if the pores of the skin by previously opened by fomentations with warm water The gross humors require expulsion from the system; it is therefore necessary to have recourse to Holloway's admirable Pills, which, by purifying and strengthening the system, greatly assist the operation of the Ointment and facilitate and confirm they cure

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, and Ulcerations of all kinds.

There is no medicinal preparation in the world which may be so thoroughly relied upon, in the treatment of the above ailments, as Holloway's Ointment. Nothing can be so simple or safe as the manner in which it is applied, or its action on the body, both locally and constitutionally. The Ointment, rubbed around the part affected, enters the pores just as salt enters meat. It quickly penetrates to the source of the evil and drives it from the system.

Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores

In all irritations of the skin, sores, ulcers, burn or scrofulous enlargements of any kind, Holloway's Ointment presents a ready and easy means of cure. It manifests a peculiar power in restraining inflammation, removing stagnation, cooling the heated blood, and checking all acrimonious and unhealthy discharge.

Diseases attendant on Childhood.

Diseases incident to early life fall more under the management of the mother than the medicine man Holloway's Ointment should therefore be regarded by her as a "Household Treasure," as it never fails in bringing out the rash in measles and scarlatina; and for the removal of all skin diseases its effect is miraculous In cases of whooping cough and croup, this invaluable Ointment should be rubbed twice a day upon the throat and chest, and the youngest invalid will derive therefrom the most soothing relief. Two or three of Holloway's famous Pills, reduced to a powder, will augment the curative powers of the Unguent.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs	Corns (soft)	Rheumatism
Bad Breasts	Cancers	Scald Heads
Burns	Contracted and Stiff Joints	Sore Nipples
Bunions		Sore Throats
Bite of Moschetoes and Sand Flies	Elephantiasis	Skin Diseases
	Fistulas	Scurvy
	Gout	Sore Heads
Coco bay	Glandular Swellings	Tumours

Chilblains	Lumbago	Wounds

In the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Maiden, handsome and gay,

But who now has raven locks, they say,
Because he used the Cure that lay
