Mushrooms Are Important Factor In Everyday Meal

By DAVID BAILEY ALLEN. Two hundred and fifty people attended the recent mushroom show...

As a percent of the country's mushrooms are produced in Pennsylvania, the greatest number of people came from that state. Others came from Chicago, Canada, Texas, California, to find...

NOT AN EXTRAVAGANCE. The mushroom is not a mere tidbit or food extravagance. It contains vegetable protein...

DISH OF CREOLES. If you're of the majority who are not fond of the mushroom, you're having a real treat-try this mushroom jambalaya...

Wedding Of Interest Is Solemnized At Bloomfield

Bloomfield United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon, October 26, 1957, when Alberta Jane MacAnisland of Bloomfield was united in marriage to John Henry Kean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Kean, Mrs. Creighton MacArthur played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Mary Haddock as she sang 'The Wedding Prayer' before the ceremony and 'The Voice That Spoke O'er Eden' during the singing of the register.

The church was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers, pot-plant, evergreens and fall leaf tapers. Nosegays of yellow chrysanthemums with white and pink satin ribbons marked the best seats.

The lovely young bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a floor length gown of home of the bride's parents, which was attractive with wedding veil and white tulle. The bride's bouquet was of white and pink flowers, tied with a white ribbon.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HENRY SCALES AND ATTENDANTS

Mr. Keith Harrington took charge of the guest book. For going away the bride wore a winter white tulle suit fleecy lined with black, with black bow collar, and beige hat. Her accessories were black and she wore a corsage of yellow roses.

When they return from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Scales will reside in Freetown. (Photo by Sears.)

Mrs. W. A. Currie entertained the East End bridge club Monday evening.

Mrs. Maynard Schurman, Curran Ave., entertained friends at bridge on Monday evening, recently from a motor trip to Atlantic Beach, where Mr. Donald received treatment in the Labco Clinic.

The King of Morocco began his 18 day tour of the United States by spending a day at Williamsburg, where those who entertained for the King were the Hon. Murray of Virginia, the Hon. Murray of Virginia, the Hon. Murray of Virginia.

Dame Leslie preferred her remarks by saying: "We must not become too complacent. We need a sense of urgency. Time is NOT on our side."

Guide authorities will be confined to groups not all related. The Guide notes the contrast of a charming and informal talk. But also it was a talk in which she related the humorous and the dramatic.

Dame Leslie told of many of the countries she had visited. Her own home is in the lovely village of London, where she has been born, and she is a natural citizen of the United Kingdom.

Dame Leslie is almost pure Irish. She was born in London but she spent her childhood in Ireland and that has been her home ever since.

There was an abundance of gifts devoting herself to the charity work. She has been a member of the Red Cross and the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

With all Dame Leslie's many qualities which include a fine intellect, a sense of humor, and a warm Irish heart were her too. As all the listeners thanked this remarkable woman for her hospitality, combined with the simplicity of the presentation, she was presented with a statuette of the Order of the British Empire.

The Guild on Prince Edward Island are indeed honored to have brought this distinguished visitor here. There is a theater in the town.

MARY HAWORTH

Dear Mary Haworth: I am a girl of 22, a college graduate, earning a low wage, I live with my parents, who are very kind and brother, financially comfortable, with all the family love a girl.

The problem is my fiancé—call him Bob. I dated all kinds of boys in my senior year, but nevertheless I received marriage proposals, which I refused, and they were in relation to him. You are making it very difficult for me to see and if I make a mistake, I will regret it for the rest of my life.
