

THE DAILY EXAMINER. SEPTEMBER 4, 1882.

Legislative Council Abolition.

As the Patriot is studiously careful not to represent any views...

The Patriot contends (1) that the Council should not be abolished...

Now, we ask every intelligent, economical Property-holder...

Let every beneficial Act originating with the Council...

The contention of the Patriot that this little Province cannot do without a second Chamber...

But, do we hear the faintest whisper of a desire to have the abolished Chambers re-established?

It is natural for men (and women, too) to value many things...

We hope the vote in the coming election will be decisive for abolition.

Disastrous to the English Harvest.

The news to-day informs us of the serious damage sustained by the English harvest...

Cetewayo's Return.

The special despatch to THE EXAMINER, last Saturday, brought the news that Cetewayo had sailed for his kingdom...

On the other hand, the majority of the Zulus are preparing to welcome their King with frenzied delight...

An Interesting Decision.

An interesting decision in a will case was recently given in an English Chancery Court...

Hence it appears that there is a limit to one's right to do what he will with his own...

Telegraphic from the Seat of War.

The Times' Alexandria correspondent says: "News has been received from Cairo that at the meeting of the notables, August 29th, at which the Governor of Ismailia was present..."

General Wood has contracted his lines at Ramleh, thus strengthening his position.

Arabi Pasha publishes in Cairo daily reports of English defeats with immense losses.

There is reason to suppose that Arabi Pasha forced many of his men to work on the trenches even in chains...

Sixty-nine Egyptians still remain on the scene of the cavalry charge.

On Thursday morning, General Wilkinson, in command of the Indian cavalry, conducted a reconnaissance on the right and Col Tulloch on the left...

After the return of the Indian cavalry from a reconnoitering expedition yesterday a. m., the enemy's cavalry returned the visit by galloping up and surveying Kassassin from a distance.

Gen. Lowe is concentrating the entire cavalry, including three Indian regiments, at this point.

A wounded Egyptian officer, who has been lying upon the field since Monday's fight, says the Bedouin killed all the wounded they found on the field...

Personal.

SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT is about to visit Manitoba.

MR. MATTHEW ARNOLD is expected in America this autumn.

CARDINAL NEWMAN was a skilful violin player in his earlier years, and even now, when he is more than eighty, he sometimes draws the bow.

A PHILADELPHIA artist who saw Arabi in Alexandria last winter, draws this sketch of his personal appearance:—"A tall, heavy-faced man, sunken, swarthy, with only a pretty clear eye to soften the general harshness of expression..."

MR. JOHN BRIGHT, replying to Mr. Urquhart, of Manchester, who asked the right honorable gentleman to define his position in regard to war, says he believes that all our wars since William III. might have been avoided on principles which do not require the absolute condemnation of war in every possible case...

Current Notes of Latest News.

A wanton case of shooting has occurred near the Prussian capital, the guards at the military range having fired eight shots into a group of workmen, killing one.

It is understood that Mr. Folger, United States Secretary of the Treasury, having declined to run for the governorship of New York State, will resign office, and that this will be made the occasion of a general reorganization of the Cabinet.

In the annual report of the British Postmaster-General, just received, it is stated that the United States sent to Great Britain 9,500,000 of newspapers, and received from there 7,500,000 during the past fiscal year.

Last week a party of immigrants, ex-steamship Sarmation, and numbering 254, arrived in Toronto by the Grand Trunk. Of these 107 remained in the city, and were accommodated with lodgings at the immigrant sheds, while the remainder passed through to the North West.

On Thursday last the Customs officials of St. John made a seizure of a quantity of watch-works imported by Mr. Geo. H. Martin, of King street, on the ground of undervaluation. Mr. Cadlip has a lot more of rods in pickle which he will shortly make use of as a slight testimonial.

The proprietors of the Great Western Railway refreshment rooms have been notified by Mr. Spicer that they must not in the future sell intoxicating liquors. This is as it should be. It is pleasant to know that Mr. Spicer stands firm in the resolution which has done so much to promote sobriety and safety on the Grand Trunk.

The Treasury Department at Washington is in receipt of a copy of an order of the Privy Council of the Dominion of Canada respecting the admission of neat cattle from the United States, which declares Partridge Island, near St. John, N. B., a cattle quarantine station between April 30 and September 30 of each year, and provides that cattle for breeding purposes may be admitted for quarantine at that station, subject to the regulations and restrictions contained in the "Health of Animals Order" of April 23, 1880.

At the Marlborough House Church parade of the London Commissioners on June 18, the anniversary of the battle of Waterloo, one received more attention than John Mackie, who served in the 42nd Highlanders on that great day. He is the sole surviving in-pensioner at Chelsea College, though several out-pensioners are still living in different parts of England.

The death of a remarkable recluse is reported to have occurred in the Grecian monastery in Mount Athos, in Macedonia. He was 94 years of age at his death; and for 68 years had been an inmate of a solitary cell, from which he never emerged except to attend chapel services morning and evening, and he there provided himself with the food needed for the following day. He passed his time in devotions and in painting pictures of the Virgin, which the officials of the monastery then sold. His body, pursuant to his wishes, was buried before the door of his cell. The oldest among his brother monks could not remember ever to have seen him receiving a communication or visitor from the outside world. For 68 years he was practically buried in the monastery. He died with a reputation for great sanctity, and his body will be a treasure to the monastery, as his history was while he lived.

CAPTAIN SHAW, of the London, Eng., fire brigade, reviewed the Quebec firemen on parade on Wednesday, and then addressed them, expressing gratification at the turn out on the day before, but complaining that the water supply is deficient and that the appliances in use are all too clumsy and heavy.

The army worm is putting in heavy work in Newfoundland. They appeared at Fort after a thunder storm and have destroyed half the hay crop, rendering it necessary for many farmers to kill off some of their cattle.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate. In sickness is of great value. Its action on the nerves of the disturbed stomach is soothing and effective. [au 31, col wky.]

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—I wish to call the attention of the indefatigable Chairman of the Street Committee, and of his able co-adjutor the City Surveyor, to the disgraceful state of the sidewalk on the Spring Park Road, particularly from Thon's to the Bridge. Fully one-half of the planks are rotten, and the whole structure displays such a decided tendency to slip off the sidewalk into the gutter, that any pedestrian, desirous of preserving his reputation for a level-head, must either tramp it considerably on the bias or else take the middle of the road. The footpath alongside the bridge is nearly impassable, as the planks are breaking away from their fastenings, and others are badly decayed.

THE Chief of Police of Montreal has received a letter stating that the daughter of a Montreal physician is in New York without proper protection, and should be looked after by her parents or friends, as she is in peril.
