The jailer will recover.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, Nov. 5.

The Standard's Berlin despatch says:—The appearance of an English squadron in Syrian waters is likely to be succeeded by the despatch of German and Austrian vessels of war to the eastern Mediterranean.

A Vienna despatch to the Standard says that accounts have been received from St. Petersburg of the reappearance of the plague, which is not widespread, but is sufficiently serious to demand preventive measures.

Germany is doing all in its power to prevent hostilities between England and Russia.

Affairs in Ireland are assuming a very serious aspect. The Government have sent an agent to investigate the condition of the Irish people. Few Irish landlords can get any rent paid and matters are evidently approaching a crisis.

There was a riot in Exeter, this morning, in connexion with Guy Fawke's celebration. A mob assembled in the yard of the Cathedral around a bonfire, and attempted to demolish the "hoarding" or enclosure erected to protect the City Bank. The Riot Act was read and a company of infantry called out, who fixed bayonets and loaded with ball. The sight of these proceedings, and a free use of policemen's staves, cleared the yard in an hour. Several arrests were made, and the streets patrolled until daylight.

LONDON, Nov. 6.

A correspondent of the Times at Paris says that Prince Jerome Napoleon seems to have abandoned his expectant role and to be decidedly taking the airs of a competitor for the Presidency of the Empire. He has surrounded himself with a complete diplomatic household, including M. Burnet, an ex-navy captain, who accompanied the Princess Clotilde, when she left France on the fall of the Empire, as secretary.

The sale of the Russian (St. Petersburg) Gazette is forbidden in Germany, on account of several articles entitled "German Women," which are full of insults to the German nation.

VIENNA, Nov. 5.

Count Zichy, the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador to Turkey, has suddenly returned to Constantinople. Even if his purpose is to present his letters of recall the suddenness of his return still seems to indicate that it is connected with the present crisis. In view of the indisposition of the Austrian Government, Zichy's intervention can only be for the purpose of assisting the energetic efforts making to compel Turkey to fulfil her promise of reform.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 6.

A correspondent after stating that the report that the British fleet is to proceed to the Gulf of Smyrna has caused embarrassment there, says: "People say that if the Sultan removes the Minister of Interior and other Ministers, in consequence of the menacing position of Beaconsfield, it will be a diplomatic defeat for Russia difficult to support. To prevent this, by sustaining the Sultan in his present choice of Ministers, a counter demonstration in a military direction by Russia might be considered necessary."
