OBITUARY

MRS. BASIL HASLAM

A wide circle of friends and relatives were deeply saddened when it was learned that Mrs. Basil Haslam of Springfield had passed away at the Prince County Hospital on December 11, 1961.

The late Mrs. Haslem was born at Wilmot Valley, May 3, 1912, the daughter of Benjamin and Jessie (Cairns) Jardine.

In 1936 she came as a bride to Springfield where she was dearly loved and will be sadly missed.

Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn two sons, John of Springfield, Frank of Summerside and two grandchildren. Also surviving are two sisters, Annie, (Mrs. Helge Peterson), Chelton; Eunice, Halifax, three brothers, Frank, Summerside East, Austin, St. Stephen's, N.B., and Oren, Bickleigh, Sask.

The funeral was largely attended with a short service at the home and St. Elizabeth's Church, Springfield, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Canon Loder.

The pallbearers were: Wilbur Stavert, Darrell Picketts, John Marchbank, Sutherland MacKay, Robert Howard and Clare Haslam. Interment was in St. Elizabeth's cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Basil Haslam wish to thank their friends and neighbours for their kindness, letters and cards of sympathy and floral tributes. Also Rev. Canon Loder, Dr. Auld, Dr. Beer and staff of the Prince County Hospital during our recent bereavement.

WILLIAM E. HANLAN

A feeling of sadness and loss was cast upon the eastern districts on December 9th, 1961, as the news came of the death of a good friend and neighbor, in the person of William E. Hanlan.

Until a few months previous to his lamented passing, Mr. Hanlan was in his usual robust health, but an infection necessitated the amputation of a leg, and for a time it was hoped that his health would again be regained, but subsequent complications led to hospitalization, and his sudden death on the above date.

Mr. Hanlan's months of pain and suffering were borne with true Christian resignation. He was consoled by frequent visits from his pastor, Rev. W. Keefe, and fortified by the Rites of Holy Mother Church, he calmly departed this life.

Born in New Zealand in 1885, a son of the late Patrick Hanlan, one of the early settlers of the community. In 1910 Bill chose his faithful spouse Flora Villold of New Zealand who lives to mourn the loss of a devoted and provident husband, whose industry provided them one of the most spacious and comfortable homes in the area, wherein kindliness, hospitality and generosity reigned supreme. A genial host, with an abundance of humor, Mr. Hanlan was keenly interested in local affairs and all developments and improvements in his community were a source of pride to him.

This couple not being blessed with children, took into its heart and home, at an early age three children Etta, John and Albert, who will ever mourn the loss of a loving foster father. Also left to mourn beside the sorrowing widow are one brother James A., New Zealand, two sisters, Laura, Mrs. James Otto, Mass., and Mary, Mrs. Harry Whalen, New Zealand, along with a score of nephews and nieces who will ever cherish his memory.

He entered the service of the C.N.R. as a sectionman in 1912, and was later promoted to section foreman at Elmira, on which capacity he worked at Georgetown, Morell, Selkirk, Souris and Harmony Jct., where he served till his retirement in 1949. Always a great favorite among all his associates, many a tough assignment, was lightened by his cheerful approach and ready wit.

The funeral was held from his late residence on Monday, Dec. 11th, to St. Alexis Church, Rollo Bay, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Wilfred Keefe. A life time friend, Rev. Reginald MacDonald was present in the sanctuary and conducted service at the grave. Honorary Pall Bearers were: James R. Manning, Edward Whalen, John Doucette, William Hewlett, George E. MacDonald, John R. MacLean, M.L.A., Melvin J. McQuaid, M.L.A., and T. J. Kickam.

Active Pall Bearers were: five nephews, Garfield and Harry Mallard, Frank and Elmer Whalen, Peter MacInnis, and Joseph Conway.

May he rest in peace. Amen.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late William E. Hanlan, wish to express sincere appreciation and gratitude to the Doctors, Nurses, Clergy and Sisters at the Charlottetown Hospital for the kindness and consideration shown Mr. Hanlon while he was a patient there. A special thank you to all those who sent mass cards, flowers and messages of sympathy. Thanks also to their neighbours and friends for thoughtfulness and kindness shown during their recent sad bereavement.
