"Branch Office, Central St."

The circus parades at 10 this morning.

The Hattie Louisa is loading oats at Bedouque.

Mr. Bowness got two good negatives of the Stavert house yesterday.

Mr. Walter Doull of Charlottetown, was in Summerside yesterday on his way to Bedouque, for a few weeks.

MOVEMENTS of passengers by Steamer Northumberland—Thursday, 37 going 61 returning; Friday, 47 going, 37 returning.

Look out for the fakirs at the circus to day.

We understand that there is a gang of sharpers on the look out for the unwary.

The Rev. Ephraim Reid of Pittsfield, Me., will preach in Ludlow Hall Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock.

The Premier came into port Wednesday night with passengers and mds. She sailed Thursday morning with 14 hogs, 150 cases lobsters, 3 bins mackerel and other freight.

The subject the Y. M. C. A. Gospel meeting Sunday afternoon, Aug. 21, is "Wordly success will not satisfy." Luke 12: 15-32. 1-17. Leader David Montgomery.

Mr. Walter Adams, B. A. Sc., of Montreal, who has been making a tour of the province, and who paid Summerside a short visit, returned home via the Northumberland yesterday morning.

If you want to buy a sewing machine. Call and see what we can do for you before you purchase. Lots of time and a low price, and the best machines in the market. Leonard Morris, Summerside.

All the hair was taken off his head but, strange to say, the scalp is hardly burned at all. He was moved to his father's residence and at this writing he has regained consciousness, but cannot speak or hear.

The county court was held yesterday, Judge Alley of Charlottetown coming up to preside. The business was finished and the judge returned home on the express in the evening. Several cases stand over.

The steamer Fastnet was late this week, reaching here at 12 o'clock, Thursday night. She had four passengers and a general cargo inward, and carried out 210 doz eggs, 544 cans lobsters, 1 ton junk canvas, 8 1/2 tons furniture and sundries, the total value being $4,000. She sailed direct for Halifax.

Mr. Stavert's house at Schurman's Point which was struck by lightning on Wednesday night was visited by quite a large number of sight seers yesterday. The house is a new one and had just been finished. The lightning struck the chimney and then seems to have run down the gutters of the look-out on the south side of the roof as well as running down the north side in a straight line. The south side of the house is terribly torn, the windows being all smashed and the roof all torn off. At the head of the bed where Mr. Stavert was sleeping six feet square of the wall was torn out. The front door on the east side was also shattered and all the glass broken. That there is no part of the house which has not been torn and the half acre of ground near the house is strewn with pieces of brick, zinc, glass and wood. Mr. Stavert was alone in the house and when found in the morning of Thursday was lying on the floor unconscious. The pillow on which his head was lying had been torn and the bed generally shaken up and it is supposed he was thrown to the floor. His left elbow and the palm of his left hand are slightly burned.
