THE Most Reverend Daniel McCarthy, Roman Catholic Bishop of Kerry, is dead. THE Sultan has resolved to leave Midhat Pasha's fate to be decided by the children of Abdul Aziz. THE Steamer Edger Stuart arrived from Halifax this morning with a small freight. She will sail on return at 6 o'clock. It is said that Vice President Arthur, of the United States, will, in a few days, join the Governor-General's Party in Manitoba.

JUDGE HENSLY, wife, and daughters, returned from England on Tuesday night. They are all, we are pleased to see, enjoying excellent health.

THE steamer "Seed" leaves Pictou Landing for Georgetown, Souris and Magdalen Islands, every Tuesday, on arrival of Express Train from Halifax.

ADVISES from Edinburgh give accounts of a fearful storm on Thursday last on the coast of the Shetland Islands. Many fishing boats were destroyed and sixty-three lives lost.

JUDGE HENRY is not hearing the Railway case to-day. The evidence will be finished to-morrow, and Counsel will address the Judge.

WILLIAM PERADWILL and family, who left here twenty-two years ago, have returned on a visit to their friends. They are staying at the "Rockin House."

JOHN JOY informs us that he cannot accept the challenge of Mr. Duchemin to a single scull race, because he has no shell and Mr. Duchemin friends refused to sell or lend him one.

EARL GRANVILLE has written to the British Minister at Washington, instructing him to invite the Government of the United States to join in a collective note to Russia on the treatment of the Jews.

It turns out that the "wholesome beverage," Kaoka, is nothing but a composition of barley bran and molasses. In consequence of this discovery, the factory at St. Thomas, Ont., has shut down and $11,000 has been sunk in the business.

AN Ottawa exchange says: The fierce summer heat which we have had for the last two weeks has been favorable for corn, but the cold wave has come upon us again. Hay will be a fine crop. Some farmers will cut two tons to the acre.

GARDEN GROWERS must keep a sharp look out now. Thieves have been infesting some of the gardens in town. Last evening the grounds of E. J. Hodgson were robbed of fruit, and some little damage done. The police are on the track of the scoundrels.

A HORRIBLE CRIME.—Five children of Thomas Killen, New Orleans, were poisoned by a colored servant girl, Eliza Bartley, who put rat poison in their soup, on the 25th, out of revenge, she says, for calling her "nigger." One little girl, aged three years, is dead, but the others may recover.

ST. DUN-TAN'S COLLEGE will open on the 1st of September, with Rev. Dr. Chaisson as Rector. He will be assisted by Rev. William Grant, and a staff of well-trained teachers. This is one of the most convenient, comfortable and well-fitted colleges in the Province, and under the new management we predict for it much success. Parents intending to send their children the coming term should make arrangements with Dr. Chaisson at once.

MR. ROOR, the Canadian Agent of the Great Cotton Exhibition, to be held at Atlanta, Georgia, has visited the Caudiere Falls, and is enthusiastic in his views as to the possibilities of Ottawa as a great manufacturing centre. As a cotton producer and cotton manufacturer, Mr. Roor measures the power and possibilities from a cotton standpoint. He says Ottawa has the power to far excel Lowell as a manufacturing centre, and could run over 600,000 spindles.

MR. WALKER, organist of the Episcopal Church, Lowell, Mass., gave an interesting recital in St. Paul's Church last evening. The performance showed off in a quiet manner the richness of the soft organ. Mr. Walker restricted himself to Andante pieces, which, though played tastefully, were not always correct. We were rather surprised to hear from the church such airs as "The last Rose of Summer," and the "Ah Che la Morte." Very good authority tells us that there is a place for everything and all things in its place.

THE funeral of the late John P. Irving, Esq., took place to-day. It was attended by three companies of volunteers, headed by the band of the 82nd Battalion; the members of St. Lawrence Lodge, I. O. M., and a large concourse of citizens. As the cortege moved slowly from the church to the Railway Station, with the band playing the "Dead March in Saul," it presented a most imposing appearance, and showed that the deceased was one earnestly beloved and respected by all with whom he was acquainted.

Miss Dorothy Dix, the distinguished philanthropist, is slowly lying at Washington. TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

EUROPE AND THE EAST. LONDON, July 26. In the House of Commons, Sir Michl Hicks Beach moved a vote of censure in relation to the course pursued by the Government in regard to the rising in Transvaal, etc., and said the Opposition had refrained from over questioning the Government on the subject, because they believed the policy announced in the Queen's speech at the opening of Parliament would be carried out; but when they discovered that that policy was reversed, they considered it necessary to afford the earliest opportunity for ministerial explanation. Rathbone (Liberal) moved an amendment that the House, believing the continuance of the war in the Transvaal would not have advanced the honor or the interests of England, approves of the steps taken by the Government to effect a peaceful settlement, and feels confident that every care will be taken to guard the interests of the natives, etc. Beach's motion was rejected: 314 to 205.

The funeral of Dean Stanley took place on Monday afternoon. The rear of the procession included deputations from the American Educational Aid Association, and American Exchange in Europe.

PARIS, July 26. In the Senate on Monday the Duke de Broglie (Orleanist) inquired whether the Government intended to advance in Tunisia, and demanded the Government's promise that in the advent of grave complications arising they should enter into no engagement without consulting Parliament. St. Hilaire replied that "the Government labored to maintain the Bey's power and it was with the object that the bombardment of Sfax was undertaken. We desire neither conquest nor annexation. The question of Tripoli was raised by imprudent publicists, but do not show yourselves less amenable than the English Cabinet who have been reassured by our declarations." Speaking of Italy he said the passions excited by recent events had been appeased. The budget was then adopted.

LONDON, July 26. The British press, irrespective of politics of the individual papers, agree in expressing the belief that England can rely on the good faith of America in endeavoring to prevent a renewal of any overt attempts by conspirators against the British Government.

UNITED STATES. WASHINGTON, July 27. EXECUTIVE MANSION, 7 p. m. Official Bulletin—The President has done well during the day. At the dressing of his wound, after the morning bulletin was issued, a displaced spiculum of the broken rib, about half an inch long, was removed. The track of the wound at this point was dilated and a larger tube inserted for the purpose of facilitating the discharge of pus. Since that time he has had several quiet naps. He has taken more nourishment than any of the last five days without gastric irritation and when the wound was dressed this evening, the discharge of healthy pus was satisfactorily abundant. At noon the pulse was 106; temperature, 98.4; respiration, 19. At 6 p. m. the pulse was 104; temperature, 100.7; respiration, 22. Signed by the six physicians.

Secretary Blaine sent the following at 11 p. m. To Mr. Lowell, Minister at London: "At 11 p. m. the President's physicians report the temperature and respiration normal and pulse 96. This was the report at the same hour for five nights. The entire day has been most encouraging and a feeling of confidence is rapidly returning."

"[Signed] BLAINE, Secretary."
