O'Leary and Vicinity

Alfred Rogerson of Unionvale, has enlisted for active service in the Army.

Mrs. Bruce MacNaught of Carleton, Lot 6, is confined to her bed and her legion of friends wish her a speedy recovery.

The ice has gone out of Trout River at Carleton, Lot 6 fully one month earlier than usual due to the prolonged spell of very mild weather.

Miss Marion MacLean of Mass. and her sister, Dorothy, (Mrs. Broom) of New York have arrived in West Devon where they will spend several weeks the guests of their mother, Mrs. MacLean and their sister, Mrs. Edward Adams of West Devon and Mr. Adams.

Mrs. William Vincent of West Devon has been confined to her home for some considerable time and her continued illness is giving grounds for some anxiety. The many friends of this dear old lady wish or a speedy improvement in health.

All the dirt roads are exceptionally soft and the going is very heavy. Some of the roads, for instance, the Howland Road, near O'Leary, was reported well nigh impassable on Sunday Feb. 25, for cars.

The World Wide Baptist Guild of Knutsford Baptist Church held a very successful Pantry Sale on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 24 at the O'Leary Co-Op store. Despite inclement weather, the sale was well patronized and the dainty food on display found ready purchasers.

Mrs. Mae Palmer, primary teacher of the O'Leary School, will be leaving on Wednesday of this week for Littleton, New Hampshire, U. S. A., where she will visit at the home of her sister Laura, Mrs. Harry Hartigan and Mr. Hartigan. Mrs. Hartigan is on the sick list and Mrs. Palmer will help her sister in the time that she is ill. She expects to be away from O'Leary for about one month and during that time the teacher of the Primary room will be Mrs. Kenneth Campbell of O'Leary.

The Wolf Cubs of the O'Leary Pack and a few Boy Scouts of the First O'Leary Troop paraded to the O'Leary United Church on Sunday night, Feb. 26, in honor of Boy Scout and Wolf Cub week with their leader, Mrs. Marne Kennedy. They were cordially welcomed by the minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson, who recited a special piece of poetry entitled "Be Prepared" and also led in a special prayer for the Scouts. He spoke of the Community's debt to the leaders of the Scout movement in O'Leary namely Mrs. Marne Kennedy for the Wolf Cubs and her assistant, Mrs. Alton Rayner and Douglas Hardy, Scoutmaster and his assistant, Emerson Smallman.

The funeral service for the late Mr. Harry MacAusland of Bloomfield Station who passed away after an operation and after being a patient for six years in the Provincial Sanatorium in Charlottetown, was held on Sunday afternoon Feb. 25 from the home of his sister, Mrs. Frances MacDougall of Bloomfield Station. There was a short service at the home conducted by Rev. W. G. Dickson of O'Leary and Rev. W. C. Wilcox of Elmdale. The main service was held in the Bloomfield United Church which was filled with sorrowing friends, neighbors and relatives, who had come to pay their last respects to one who had been so universally loved and respected. The floral tributes were many and pretty and testified to the esteem in which the deceased young man was held.

Mr. MacAusland was only 43 years of age. He was a faithful husband, a kindly father, a sincere friend and a sterling citizen. He was a humble follower of his Lord and Master. Despite very heavy muddy roads, the Bloomfield Church was filled, the choir with Mrs. Alban Craswell as organist rendered the special hymns: "The Lord's My Shepherd", "Rock of Ages" and "The Old Rugged Cross." A fine solo was sung by Alvin Ashley of Casumpec. The service was conducted by Rev. W. G. Dickson who brought a very comforting message on "The Christians View of Death." He was assisted by Rev. W. C. Wilcox who read the Scripture.

Besides his sorrowing wife, he leaves to mourn his loss three children: Jean in Charlottetown; Robin in Toronto and Alvin at home. The following sisters and brothers survive:— Mrs. Fraser MacDougall, Bloomfield Station; Mrs. Elsie Horne of Rosebank; Mrs. Theodore Lewis of Alberton; Mrs. Russel Jenkins of Charlottetown and the following brothers: Robert in Worcester, Mass; Arthur in Ashland, Maine and George in Bloomfield. The pallbearers were:— Cecil MacDougall, David MacDougall; Sydney Smith, Raymond Smith; Erskine Smith and George Callaghan. The flower bearers were: Roy Smith, Vance MacKay, Donald MacDougall and a: Herb MacAusland. Interment was made in the Bloomfield cemetery.

MARGATE W. M. S.
The regular monthly meeting of the Margate W. M. S. met on Tuesday evening Feb. 26 at the home of Mrs. Charles Dennis. The president, Mrs. Wilbur Dennis presided over the meeting. Worship service was conducted by Mrs. Heath Mayhew. Theme being, "His Silent Presence." Scripture was taken from Psalm 28 followed by hymn 266.

Roll call was responded to by twelve members each repeating a Scripture Verse with the word love in it.
Mrs. Preston Woodside gave a few thoughts on Temperance.
After some discussion, it was decided to have a Penny a week fund which was to go for expenses, pertaining to the society. Mrs. W. B. Warren and Selina Johnson are in charge of it.
Place of next meeting was not definitely decided. Sick calls were reported.
Mrs. Arthur Proffitt gave a report from Presbyterian.
A letter received by Mrs. Wilbur Dennis from Rev. E. J. O. Fraser was read which was of much interest to members.

Members expressed their desire to have Dr. Fraser speak in the church when he was available.
Mrs. Arthur Proffitt will be in charge of worship service and Selina Johnson for programme.
Roll call will be answered with an Easter Verse.
Mrs. W. Dennis was in charge of programme, assisted by Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Turner Glydon, Mrs. Art Proffitt, Selina Johnson and Mrs. Heath Mayhew.

Hymn 261 followed by silent Prayer for W. M. S. Missionary and Benediction closed the meeting.
A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess.

TOKYO, Feb. 26 — (Reuters) — United States Far East Air Force "combat cargo" air division has carried 100,000 sick or wounded troops since the beginning of airlift operations in Korea, it was announced today.
