is now doubly interesting to us, and will ever have our deepest sympathy and interest, particularly on account of your proximity to the great Republic on your borders. (Cheers.)

The Delegates having then been invited to partake of a glass of champagne,

Col. GRAY proposed a bumper to "the Mayor and Corporation of Belleville."

The toast was drunk with all honours.

Cheers were proposed and most heartily given for "The Delegates," and for "The Canadian Administration," and the Delegates having again got on board, a parting salute was fired, and the train moved off amidst the cheers of the assemblage.

At the Colborne Station, a number of persons were assembled, who warmly cheered the Delegates as the train slowed in passing the station.

At Coburg, which was reached at half-past six o'clock, His Worship Mayor Daintry and the Town Council were present to receive the visitors. Among other gentlemen present were the Hon. A. Burnham, Hon. G. S. Boulton, Dr. Beatty, Professor Kingston, Judge Boswell, Hon. James Cockburn, Mr. Barrow, Head Master Grammar School, and the Very Rev. Archdeacon Bethune.

Mayor Daintry read the following address:—

To the Honourable the Delegates from the Maritime Provinces of British North America.

We, the Mayor and Town Councillors of the Town of Coburg, respectfully beg leave to avail ourselves of this opportunity of giving you a hearty welcome, and we regret that the demands on your valuable time will not admit of your passing a longer period amongst us.

We recur with pleasure to the recollection of the unbounded hospitalities extended to the Canadian visitors to the Maritime Provinces in August last, and had an opportunity been afforded us of reciprocating them in a more suitable manner, we should gladly have embraced it. The mission on which you are engaged has our cordial concurrence, and we trust that nothing may transpire to prevent our becoming intimately connected with you both commercially and politically. We look forward with great satisfaction to the time when a band of iron, as well as the ties of brotherhood, shall unite us in one common country, and we feel sure that should our vast territories be at any time invaded, you will stand shoulder to shoulder with with us in defence of the empire of British America.

Wishing you a prosperous journey and a safe return to the bosoms of your families, and hoping that when we next meet it will be as the happy inhabitants of a united country, we beg respectfully to bid you farewell.

G. S. DAINTRY.

Col. GRAY, of Prince Edward Island, addressing the Mayor and Corporation, said—As Chairman of the Convention of Maritime Delegates, I have to return you our sincere, united, and cordial thanks for this very handsome testimonial of your approbation of our work. I have to repeat to you what I said a little ago to the Mayor and Corporation of Belleville, that, since we first entered upon the soil of Canada, the reception we have met with has been such as cannot fail to have the effect of uniting us still more closely in the ties of brotherhood. As regards our proceedings in Conference, although to a certain extent confidential, enough has been made known through the press to satisfy you that the enterprise in which we have been engaged has for its object to unite us indissolubly as a band of brothers (Cheers.) And I need not say to you, on behalf of the Maritime Provinces, that, should the hour of danger ever come — though we trust that it is far distant — you will find us ready to stand shoulder to shoulder with you to repel any aggressor. (Cheers.) When the Confederation is carried out, we will have a territory extending across the continent from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and I doubt not will be able to maintain ourselves as a nation among the proudest on the face of the earth. (Cheers.) I think we must all admit that the hand of a far greater Power than ourselves has been directing our labours. He who controls all events, I have no doubt, controlled those apparently fortuitous circumstances out of which sprung the holding of this Convention. (Hear, hear.) Who would have ventured to foretell, a twelvemonth ago, that so soon thirty-three representatives of the different Provinces, then separated by so many local prejudices and interests, should have met together, and agreed with such singular unanimity on a plan of uniting these Provinces? (Cheers.) We are proud of having been received as we have been in this Province, and shall carry home to our respective Peoples most grateful recollections of the kindness with which we have been treated by our Canadian brethren. (Cheers.)

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXAMINER.

SIR:—I find by your editorial of Monday last, that what I have written on the Colonial Federation Scheme has given you great offence, and therefore in return I am handled without gloves. You state that I "insinuate plainly, though not in direct terms, that because Mr. Whelan, who at first was disinclined to the Union, but now seems to be in favor of it, the change in his sentiments concerning that question can have been brought about by nothing short of actual corruption, that nothing can account for it but the supposition that he has sold himself for a price to the Canadian advocates of the scheme, and is a traitor to his country." Sir, I made no such charge, nor do I now make any such charge; nor do I believe that what I have written will bear any such construction; nor is it my intention in any thing I may feel it my duty to write for the future, to impeach either the patriotism or political morality of either Mr. Whelan or any other person who may take an opposite view of this most important subject. But, Sir, you must admit that these "wiley Canadians," these Wizards of the North, have exercised an almost magical influence or power, inasmuch as they have fused the most discordant materials — in these lower Provinces — into a pliable yielding concurrent mass. From the tone of your editorial, I presume you think I am a believer in the doctrine that "every man has his price." Sir, I have no sympathy with that doctrine, nor with any one that holds it. I believe there have been thousands of persons so purely devoted to their God and their country, that they have preferred to suffer even unto death rather than turn traitor to either. Sir, I as fully believe that there are this day among the subjects of our most gracious and noble Queen thousands more of like character — men who are beyond "price." I trust and believe that Prince Edward Island is not deficient of men of this stamp. At the same time, we are none of us, I presume, ignorant of the frailty of human nature, that even men of experience and talent, when for a length of time they are most gorgeously feted and sumptuously entertained, are liable to become, as it were, bewitched or infatuated, and adopt a course which, in their more thoughtful moments, they either have or will condemn. Sir, with your permission, I will ask you one question bearing on the subject of Federation. It is this: Have not the Canadians already broken faith with our Island Delegates? If I was correctly informed, there was a positive promise made by the Canadians, before our Island Delegates left here for Canada, that we should have a large sum of money either loaned us or given us, with which we should be enabled to purchase out the balance of the Township lands. By answering the above question, and inserting in your next issue this short communication, you will much oblige,

Yours truly,
GEORGE BEER.

Charlottetown, 26th Nov. 1864.

Mr. Whelan begs to say that he did not write the article in this paper referred to by Mr. Beer; nor is he prepared to say how far the words quoted were justified by the whole tenor of Mr. Beer's remarks. It is, however, a matter of no importance whatever whether Mr. Beer regarded Mr. Whelan as corrupt, or the reverse. Both persons may be safely left to the judgment of their fellow-colonists and constituents. But Mr. W. may take this opportunity to assure his friend, Mr. Beer, that he was not "bewitched or infatuated" by the "gorgeous feting" and "sumptuous entertainment" of Canada. It is probable that such things exercise an influence on some minds. When Mr. W. gives proof of the "infatuation," it will be time enough to deplore his fate. So far, Mr. W. has given by his own hand no very decided expression of opinion for or against the numerous details of the Confederation Scheme. He is studying the whole question, and striving to arrive at safe conclusions upon it, without imitating the example of some people, who, from captious motives, or small personal feeling, make a furious outcry against the proposed Confederacy, let the details be arranged whatever way they may. It would be better if such people could be "infatuated and bewitched" by wine and wassail than become the victims of their own bad tempers, and slaves to paltry prejudice. Mr. W. will take an early opportunity of communicating his opinions at length, to his constituents, on the question of Confederation. To them he is accountable for his public conduct. In the meanwhile, the Examiner will furnish information wherever it can be obtained, relative to the union; and its columns will be open to discussion on both sides of the question.

With respect to the question proposed by Mr. Beer, he heard no pledge made by the Canadians to advance a sum of money for the purchase of our Township lands. He has understood, indeed, that one of his co-Delegates held some informal conversation with some of the Canadian Ministers on the subject, and that they were disposed to give a favourable consideration to it. Having answered Mr. Beer's question, will he answer one in turn? He is a friend and supporter of the Government, and ought to understand their policy and proceedings. Did the Government of this Island ask the Canadian Ministry to pledge themselves to purchase the Proprietors' lands in this Island, in the event of Confederation? Or did they, individually or collectively, interest themselves in the matter in any shape?

"When the Hon Mr. Coles moved, and the Hon. Mr. Palmer seconded, in the Quebec Convention, a Resolution asking for a grant of £200,000 wherewith to buy up proprietary interests on this Island, they were laughed at by the Canadians who scouted, and cast aside the Resolution. Let the tenants remember this.—Herald."

THE foregoing paragraph has found its way into more than one of the Charlottetown papers, but it is quite untrue. 1st.—Mr. Palmer did not second the resolution mentioned: if he did, no one heard him. He certainly did not offer one remark upon it, which, at least, might have been expected from the seconder of so important a resolution. 2nd.—The resolution was not laughed at by the Canadians. 3rd. Mr. Coles did not ask for a grant of £200,000. He certainly proposed that the interest on that sum should be paid by the Federal Government; but all the Delegates from the other Provinces: Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Newfoundland: seemed to be of opinion that the Island could draw upon its per capita allowance of the two millions and odd dollars, for the purchase of lands, whenever they could be offered for sale, and quietly negatived the resolution, as many other resolutions were negatived at the Conference. Canada was no more to blame for the negative than the other Provinces. If the members of the Island Government, who were present at the Conference, urged Mr. Coles's proposition before the Special Finance Committee, it might have been favourably received. But it could hardly be expected to meet with a better fate, when it came before the Conference, without a word in its favour from the Government of the country which it concerned.

LATEST NEWS FROM EUROPE.

THE English Mail, per Steamship Asia, arrived in Halifax on Friday morning last. The Mail for this Island by the same arrival, reached here on Saturday night. We are indebted to the Halifax Evening Express of Friday last for the following interesting summary of the news:—

BRITISH AND FOREIGN NEWS.

Lord Wodehouse made his public entry into Dublin on Tuesday, as Viceroy of Ireland, and met with a very friendly reception. His reply on Wednesday to the Address of the Corporation was naturally very guarded, but its tone was good and healthy, and free from the trashy platitudes that so often have disfigured such documents. If the new Viceroy will act upon and carry into effect the principles he lays down, that the man who promotes the prosperity of Ireland is a benefactor to the Empire, he will establish a claim to the gratitude of the nation which will be universally admitted.

Latest advices from Maderia confirm the report that the steamer Laurel, from Liverpool, had transferred a crew to a large screw steamer, named the Sea King, off Madeira. Thirty-six men, however, refused to join the Sea King, and were sent back to Liverpool.

The English papers publish the official correspondence between the American Consul at Bahia and the President of that Province, in which the *former protests against any privileges being ex*tended to the Florida, and demands her detention for a violation of the sovereignity of Brazil; and the latter replies that the Florida will be allowed such assistance as the law permits to recognised belligerents, and that he has no authority to cause the detention of the vessel.

In a second leter the President protests against the outrage committed by the Federal steamer Wachusett, and the Consul's connivance therein, and breaks off official relations with the Consul, and closes Brazilian ports to the Wachusett.

Under this correspondence several of the English journals reiterate their denunciations of the seizure, and the Star says that, though the Federal accounts have not yet been received, there can be no doubt that a very gross violation of neutrality law has been committed, and it hopes the United States Government will repudiate the transaction, and offer satisfaction to Brazil. It says:—"The American Government is strong enough to wait for the capture of the Confederate cruiser in due form. The triumph of the Kearsage has lost none of its eclat from the previous career of its victim; and we know nothing which could so raise the reputation of the Government of the United States among its friends in Europe as a prompt offer of reparation to Brazil for this unquestionable and unpardonable outrage."

La France announces that the Brazilian Government has broken off friendly relations with the United States.

The Army and Navy Gazette says:—"A very considerable number of officers of the British army have visited the American camps, both North and South. No instance of affront or annoyance offered to them has ever reached us; and if any officer desires to see what is passing in American camps, we believe he can accomplish his object by simply presenting himself in proper uniform to any superior officer."

A statement having been put forth that Garibaldi had virtually expressed himself in favor of the South, a private letter from the General is published, in which he asserts he has been misunderstood, and says:—"My opinion on the American question is well known. Not only do I hope from it the abolition of slavery, but I consider it a question to be one affecting all mankind, and woe to the world if the North did not come out victorious from the struggle."

Earl Russell had been installed Rector of Aberdeen University. In the course of his speech he said:—"There is another portion of the Globe where we still have to lament scenes of bloodshed. We still have to lament that the bloody arbitrament of war has not been brought to a close; and if there is any bright spot in that dark scene, it is for the African race. But I cannot but believe that the civil war in America, whichever way it may end, whether the States again unite, or whether there is to be a final separation,—I cannot but believe that out of these events the African race are to receive their freedom."

Hon. J. E. Scarlett (late British Minister at Athens) is appointed Ambassador to Mexico.

The Saxonia had gone into dock at Southampton for repairs — the passengers, mails, &c. for Hamburg having been transferred to the Bavaria. The accident to Saxonia's machinery occurred five days after she left New York. She broke her stern box and had to lay to for five days during a heavy gale. Her stern pipe compartment filled with water, but, with the exception of a few bags of coffee, the cargo sustained no damage. She was driven so much out of her course as to have been within 200 miles of Greenland.

Memorials in favor of Muller have been presented to Sir Geo. Grey. Home Secretary. The result not yet announced, but report says he declines to interfere. Preparations for Muller's execution on 14th were progressing at Newgate.

Admiral Sir M. Stopford is dead. Lord Pelham Clinton, son of the late Duke of Newcastle, a young midshipman in the Navy, has been dismissed from service by Court Martial, for desertion.

General Tom Thumb and suite were giving private receptions to leading people in Liverpool.

THE CIVIL WAR IN THE STATES

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Confederate accounts from Sherman say he was 25 miles from Macon, Ga., on the 19th inst. He had met with no opposition thus far..... The brig Lady of the Lake, from Jacmel, brings captain Nickerson and crew of the brig Vivid, of Halifax, sunk at sea. Captain Nickerson reports that a few hours after his vessel sunk he spoke the brig Express, Captain Howard of Halifax, and requested that he and his exhausted crew, who were in an open boat, might be taken on board, but captain Howard refused, and he also heartlessly refused to tow the boat in towards shore. They finally succeeded in reaching land, but not before being exposed to a gale which burst upon them..... Gold 220.

LATER.—Late Richmond papers state that Sherman had captured several members of the Georgia Legislature and occupied the suburbs of Macon. They acknowledge that the Georgia militia cannot defend the city. Sherman had captured the town of Griffin in his march. Sherman spread out his forces, sweeping a wide swathe of devastation, and creating universal panic..... Another column was reported as moving on Augusta and Millidgeville.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Advices from Grant's army report continuous rain for thirty-six hours. Deserters report the withdrawal of the Confederate forces from General Butler's front with the exception of a skirmish line, and the garrison necessary to man the fortifications..... Mr. Stanton, Secretary of War, continues quite ill.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22, p. m.—The Confederates report the exchange of prisoners progressing at Savannah and one paper says it will continue at City Point..... The operations in Georgia and Tennessee are characterized as "vast campaigns singularly complicated." Breckenridge, in East Tennessee, is endeavouring to win the people to alliance to Jeff Davis, and has declared an amnesty to all who will lay down their arms and cease bushwacking his troops..... Gold 225..... Steamship Moravian has arrived at Portland, with dates to the 11th. The Bank of England has reduced its rate of discount to 8 per cent. Bullion in the Bank of England increased £334,000. Consols closed at 90⅞ a 91⅛ for money..... The Lower House of the Danish Rigsraad has adopted the Treaty of Peace by a large majority..... Breadstuffs steady and firmer, except corn, which is dull. Provisions quiet and steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Reported Hood is marching on Paluski, Tennessee, intending to operate in middle East Tennessee and Kentucky. reckenridge and Forest are also demonstrating in Tennessee..... There was a severe cavalry fight in Shenandoah, on Tuesday last, for six hours without definite results... Nothing reliable from Sherman. ..... Asia at Halifax this morning..... Steamer Laurell transferred crew to Semmes' new cruiser, the Sea King, off Medera..... Both branches of Danish Legislature affirmed Treaty of Peace. Home Secretary refused to reprieve Muller..... Reported England called upon great powers to protest collectively against seizure of Florida. .... Discount market easy, but full average demand..... Consols 91¼..... Gold 215.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Savannah papers state, that Sherman's expedition is burning and devastating the country. Macon, Millidgeville, Monticello, Hillsboro', and Canton reported captured and partially destroyed..... Governor Brown's residence burned..... Beauregard issued an appeal to Georgians to rally and drive back invaders. .....Last night fires were seen in nearly all the leading Hotels in New York, and in Barnum's Museum great panic, and many robberies committed during confusion. Fires extinguished without serious damage..... Strong Confederate force reported near Columbia, Kentucky. Thought battle fought there yesterday..... Military movements active in Louisiana.... Buckner reported at Alexandria with 10,000 Confederates.... Steamers for Europe to-day took a million and a half specie. .... Gold 216.

☞ We hear that the inauguration of the new Organ of St. Dunstan's Cathedral will take place on Wednesday, 7th of December. The St. Cecilia Choral Society—consisting of 150 members—will perform several Chorusses from Mozart, Marcello, Pucita, Handel, &c. &c.

LECTURE ON TEMPERANCE.—The Rev. A. McDonald. Rector of St. Dunstan's College, will deliver a Lecture on TEMPERANCE, at St. Andrew's Hall, Pownal Street, on Monday the 5th December. Admision free. Doors open at 7 o'clock; Lecture to commence at 8 o'clock ——(Papers favorable to the cause of Temperance will please copy this notice.)

☞ THE entertainment at Temperance Hall this evening, by a magician named Simmons, will be seen duly announced in another column. If he performs all the wonderful feats in which he is said to be an adept, there can be no doubt about his connection with the Prince of Darkness. We are not surprised at his coming to Charlottetown to exhibit his devilish tricks. The place is congenial to such a spirit.

☞ WE desire to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Professor Leonhard in another column. Every lady and gentleman should, if possible, acquire a knowledge of French and German, if they failed to do so in early life. When joined in the bonds of political union with Lower Canada, and our social, and commercial intercourse enlarged thereby. French especially will become a necessity in our daily walk and conversation. Now is a good time to begin to learn it.

☞ By the Advertisement of Mr. Isaac J. Waldron, in another column of our paper, our readers will observe that Glass Ware and Jewellery in great variety, are offered for sale at greatly reduced prices at that gentleman's Store, next door to Mr. M. W. Skinner's Drug Store.

COMMERCIAL.—Oats have remained all week about 2s. Potatoes were looking rather up yesterday, some selling as high as 1s 3d. Pork is at from 4d to 5d—the largest carcasses bringing the latter price; considerable business doing, James Reddin, Esq., having purchased 20 carcasses during the week—5000 lbs; Owen Connoly, Esq., 70 carcasses—21,0 0 lbs; H. Longworth, Esq. some 20 or 30 carcasses. Mr. Connolly shipped 70 bbls pork this week per Commerce to Halifax—in all, last three weeks, 200 bbls—where it brings a higher price than the best American mess Pork. The Commerce, which left on Wednesday, took in all 200 bbls pork, 10,000 bushels oats, and a variety of other articles The 'Atlanta'—owned by Mr. J. White—sails to-day for Newfoundland, loaded by H. Longworth and W. Mitchell, Esqrs; cargo consisting of 3 700 bushels potatoes, 800 do. turnips, 1400 oats, 80 bbls carrots and parsnips, 48 do. pork, 22 do. oysters, 4 casks Coles's ale, 30 carcasses mutton, geese, turkeys, etc. The barque 'Lotus' has been loading during the week with live stock for Bermuda, and brig 'W. W. Lord' with oats for the United States —latter being shipped by J S. Carvell, Esq. Since June last James Reddin, Esqr, purchased 12,500 lbs butter, 3 00 of which he sold to the Hon. D. Davies, 5000 to J. S. Carvell, Esqr, and 4500 lbs he exported at his own risk; on one day he bought 1280 lbs.—Prot.

BROADWAY THEATRE—MR. SIMMONS.—There is a veritable revival in the black art. The Devenport Brothers and a magician, with the suggestive name of Heller, mystify large audiences nightly at different establishments, and a third magician, with the unmagical and unpretending name of Simmons, made his first bow last night at the pleasant little theatre formerly known as Wallack's, now called the Broadway. Having three entertainments of this description in operation in the city at the same time, the number is complete, and the charm, we suppose, perfect; and whatever the public may do, the magicians themselves may conscientiously hope that their number may not be increased. Simmons is a small man, and to all appearance very much like other men. He wears a black dress coat and has his hair cut short. He has no apparatus but the hats of the audience. He has pockets in his hands. He has a hole in his left shoulder, in which he carries four quarts of water. He keeps a devil in a tumbler. He is tied in his chair with ropes by four strong men, and he gets out in a manner that would have been thought wonderful in Jack Sheppard. He astonishes the people, of course. —N. Y. Herald.

The Toronto Leader reports a rumor to the effect that the vacant Judgeship caused by the death of the late Vice Chancellor Esten, has been offered to the Hon. Mr. Mowatt, who enjoys a very high reputation as a Chancery lawyer.

Married.
