Freetown Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Auld were visitors to Charlottetown recently.
Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Smith have moved into their new home near Freetown village.
Mr. and Mrs. Allan Clow, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Taylor, Mrs. Mary Bearlsto and Mrs. Norman Clow were visitors to Summerside airport on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burns and Mrs. Russell Burns were visitors to Charlottetown on Sunday at the home of Mr. Arthur M. Burns, Upper Prince St.
Some very fine trout still being caught in the Dunk River. On Saturday Edgar Taylor hauled in a beauty. It tipped the scales at six pounds. Can anyone beat this.
Mr. Artemas Jardine of Charlottetown was a recent visitor to Freetown at the home of his cousin Mr. George Jardine and Mrs. Jardine.

The sympathy of this community is extended to the family and relatives of the late Wilfred Connolly who passed away suddenly at his home in Central Bedque on Saturday May 13th.

Mr. and Mrs. Colby Lewis were visitors to Tryon and Albany last week, while there they visited Mr. Lewis' aunt Mrs. Joseph Lewis at the home of her daughter Mrs. Clayton Thomas. It is pleasing to know that Mrs. Lewis is much improved in health.

The Kensington Presbyterian Young Adult Club presented their three-act comedy — "The Ready-Made Family" in Freetown Hall on Monday evening May 22nd to a large and appreciative audience. The different parts in the play were well taken and the specialties between acts were of high order. A nice sum of money was realized.

Quite a number of people from Freetown attended the variety concert held in Central Bedque Hall on Tuesday evening May 16th. The concert which consisted of local talent was sponsored by the Central Bedque Women's Institute and was a decided success financially and functionally. A repeated performance may be staged in the near future.

Friends in Freetown heard with regret of the sudden death of Rev. S. Johnson McArthur at his home in Moncton N. B. a few days ago. He was at one time the Pastor of North Bedque and Freetown Churches, and is kindly remembered by all. His wife is the former Miss Elizabeth Carruthers of North Bedque. Rev. Mr. McArthur was a native of Tyne Valley P. E. Island. The sincere sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family.

At the service on Sunday morning May 7th in Freetown United Church awards were given to the twenty-one children who had written the Temperance Course Examinations. The presentations were made by the Freetown Women's Christian Temperance Union. President Mrs. Wallace Reeves, a programme of suitable selections was given by several of the children, and an inspiring temperance address was given by the Pastor, Rev. Ralph R. Wagner.

Enjoyed a lively game of Twenty Questions and a sing-song. The meeting was closed by singing Taps.

Rev. Eric Robin was visiting in Howland and vicinity.

Mr. Willis McLean of Locke Road was a visitor on Sunday at the home of his grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Silliker.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Foley were visitors at the home of Mrs. Foley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Livingstone Glenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Silliker were visitors at the home of Mrs. Silliker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crossman.

WHEATLEY RIVER C.G.I.T.

The regular meeting of the Wheatley River C.G.I.T. was held on May 26 at the home of Helen Rose and Shirley Eikhoud, with nine members and two visitors present. The meeting opened with the purpose followed by the C. G. I. T. hymn. The scripture lesson was from Matthew. A story, "The Three Questions" was read, after which the hymn "Jesus Saves" was sung by the group. The leader, Mrs. Harold Chandler, led in prayer.
The business period opened by the secretary's reading the minutes of the last meeting. The roll call was answered by a verse of scripture; the collection amounted to 62 cents. It was decided that each member is to bring two pounds of candy to be sold the evening the Seven Thirty Gang are at the hall. The leader talked about members going to camp. Alice MacLean is to have the next meeting at her home. After luncheon, everyone en-
