MR. WINSTON H. DINGWELL

The whole countryside was shocked and saddened by the news of the sudden passing at the P.E.I. Hospital on March 19th, 1963, of Winston H. Dingwell, Marie.

Deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Dingwell, and lived on his old homestead all his life, where, with a brother Leyman, they carried on very successful farming operations.

Winston was a member of Marie United Church and a man of fine Christian character. Loved and respected by all who knew him, he was held in high esteem for his many acts of kindness, always ready to help in any time of need, or in any good cause for the betterment of church and community.

In the home he will be greatly missed, where his wise counsel and endearing ways shall always be cherished.

During his illness, which he bore with true Christian patience and perfect trust in his Saviour with the words "Thy Will Be Done", and the blessed hope of the happy home prepared for those that love and serve Him here John XIV.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving brother, a sister Isabelle (Mrs. Lorne MacKay), Truro, N.S., a brother Fulton, Cranaud, P.E.I. and Leyman at home, besides a host of relatives and friends, to all of whom deep sympathy is extended.

His largely attended funeral from Morell United Church, was conducted by a former pastor Rev. Russel MacLeod, assisted by his present pastor Rev. Donald MacLennan. The hymns sung were: "The Lord Is My Shepherd" "Abide With Me", and "There Is A Green Hill Far Away", a favorite of the deceased was beautifully rendered by the choir with Mr. Clark at the organ.

Pallbearers were, Hon. Leo Rossiter, Gordon Hooper, Percy Jay, Colin Jackson, Aeneas Rudighan and Garth Webster.

His remains were laid to rest in Midgell cemetery.

Sleep on beloved. sleep, and take thy rest,
Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour's breast.
We loved thee well, but Jesus loved thee best.
Good-night, good-night, good-night.

BOOST NUCLEAR POWER

Italy plans to spend some $242,000,000 between 1963 and 1968 to expand power output from nuclear energy.

OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

JOHN DANIEL MacDONALD

It was with deep regret that relatives and friends learned of the passing of the late John Daniel MacDonald, who was stricken very suddenly on March 2nd, 1963. Mr. MacDonald was born on May 13, 1891 at Hopedale, P.E.I., son of Alexander MacDonald and Florence (Mackay) MacDonald.

At the age of 23, he enlisted in the Royal Canadian Army on September 2, 1914 and was attached to the 105th Battalion of P.E.I. While serving overseas he was wounded in action at the Battle of Passchendaele, Belgium on November 6, 1917 and was then hospitalized until his return to Canada in May of 1919. After returning to civilian life he farmed for a number of years and in 1937 joined the Fruit and Vegetable Division of the Federal Department of Agriculture where he worked faithfully as an inspector for 20 years until his retirement on May 10, 1957. During his years of service as inspector, he made a lasting impression and was noted by both shippers and inspectors for his just decisions, his attention to duty, his mild manner and true friendship.

Fraternally, he was a member of Berton L.O.L., Milton; St. John's Lodge No. 1, AF and AM; Alexandra Chapter No. 11 R.A.M.; Garden of the Gulf Council No. 9; Prince Edward Preceptory No. 35; and the Island Shrine Club.

Mr. MacDonald was a valued member of the Princetown Road United Church of the Winsloe charge where he gave faithful service with sincerity and purpose as an elder and also was president of the Men's Association in 1961.

He is survived by his widow; two brothers, Duncan of Summerside and Angus who resides at Hopedale; three sisters, Mrs. Daniel Cummings of Milton; Mrs. L.B. MacMillan of Wood Islands; and Mrs. Winsloe Watts of Charlottetown. He was predeceased by a brother Kenneth and a sister Sadie.

He passed away in the P.E.I. Hospital after his sudden illness and funeral was held on March 4th, with burial at Hartsville, P.E.I.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. MacDonald wishes to express her deep gratitude for the flowers and memorial Bibles and the many cards and letters received from friends and neighbors in her recent sad bereavement. She also expresses appreciation and thanks to Rev. Donald Nicholson, Rev. A.E. Piercey and Mr. James Miller for their kindness and consideration at this time.

Clarification Of Dief View On Grain Asked

MONTREAL (CP) — The Montreal Corn Exchange said here it wants clarification from the Progressive Conservative party about remarks on feed grain prices attributed to Prime Minister Diefenbaker during the recent federal election campaign.

Guy de Cotret, president of the exchange, said Mr. Diefenbaker and a number of his advisers have denied that the prime minister accused Montreal grain brokers of profiteering.

During an election rally in Matane, Que., March 11, Mr. Diefenbaker was reported to have said that there had been "unwarranted and unjustified increases" in feed grain prices because of the actions of a "small minority of brokers in Montreal."

Mr. Diefenbaker, in a telegram April 1, said the statement attributed to him in press reports was "a complete invention." He said he "never mentioned brokers in Montreal, small or otherwise, directly or indirectly."

CONGRATS TO MIKE

BONN (Reuters) — Chancellor Adenauer cabled congratulations Friday to the new Canadian prime minister-designate, Lester B. Pearson. He said: I look forward to a good and fruitfull co-operation to the benefit of our two peoples. . .

CHARLES BRUCE

JOHN DAUPHINEE

DOUGLAS AMARON

CP General Superintendent Charles Bruce To Retire

TORONTO (CP) — Charles Bruce, newspaper man, novelist and poet, will retire as general superintendent of The Canadian Press on his 57th birthday May 11. He plans to devote his time to writing.

The announcement was made in the annual report of Gillis Purcell, general manager of Canada's national news-gathering agency.

Bruce has been 35 years with CP, 26 of them in administrative positions. The annual report comments:

"The whole operating structure of CP as a group of working newspaper people took strength from Charlie's constant concern for the individual and the news report gained character from his insistence that style rules are not a straitjacket to curb originality."

A native of Port Shoreham, N.S., Bruce joined CP at New York in 1923 and was at CP Halifax for five years before being moved to Toronto. In 1937 he became general news editor. During the war he was bureau chief at New York and later at London, returning to Canada in 1945 to be appointed general superintendent.

WROTE TWO NOVELS

He is a creative writer as well as a newspaper man. One book of his poems won a Governor-General's Award. He has also written two novels The Channel Shore and The Township of Time. Setting for most of his writing has been his native Nova Scotia.

John Dauphinee, 49, will take over as general superintendent after 26 years with CP. Born at Vancouver, he was successively bureau chief at London, New York, Winnipeg and Edmonton before appointment to his present post as general news editor in 1952.

Douglas Amaron, 48, will become general news editor after nine years at Toronto as executive assistant. Born at Quebec, he has 21 years service with CP, including five years as war correspondent in Britain, Italy and Western Europe.

HONOR JEWISH DEAD

WARSAW (Reuters) — A wreath was placed Friday at the foot of a stone memorial in the old Warsaw ghetto that marks the last stand of the 50,000 Jews who died fighting Nazi troops. Polish officials and Jews from throughout the world are here for ceremonies marking the 20th anniversary of the Ghetto uprising in 1943.
