Grant's Cat Gets Rent Argument

NEW YORK (AP)—The pet of U. Thant, acting secretary general at the United Nations, has come into the picture, in a legal argument over how much apartment rent Thant should be paying.
Thant subsidizes his 11-room apartment on East 22nd Street from William S. Wholey.
Herman, a contractor, Robert E. Herman contends Thant was paying $1,300 a month for the furnished apartment, and that the legal rent was $402.50. Herman began the action in state supreme court before the city recently took over its own rent administration.
Herman, on behalf of the state, is suing Wholey for triple damages paid to $1,971.
State rent administrator Dino Cerutti, said "rentous damage" to be furnished amounting to $6,477, of which Thant paid $1,074.
There was no indication in court as to how the damages were calculated. Justice Owen McClellan reserved decision.
