eng. book wanted

A special appeal is going out to former students of English 381, "American Literature to 1860". Exams are just a few short weeks away and several students in the course do not have texts because it is out of stock at the Bookstore. The text is American Literature: The American Romantics, 1800-1860 ed. by Stern & Gross. It is a volume 2 of the series and has a green cover. If you have a copy of the text, the Bookstore will buy it back from you, or if you wish to loan it, you can take it to the course professor, Brendan O'Grady, Main 101.

Preference given to those disciplines which are relevant to the scientific, political, social economic needs of Canada. Conditions: The candidate must be proceeding toward a Master's degree; and be a graduate of a university or college with standards accepted the AUCC, and be a Canadian citizen.
