OBITUARY

Inserted by his family as a tribute to the deceased.
MR. MRS. ERICHOUD
On the morning of February 11th, 1963, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown (Brent) Erikhojd passed peacefully away at the age of 62. Services in his memory were held at the United Church in Westdale, Charlottetown. He was a member of the church and was a member of the Friends and Neighbours who came to pay their last farewell.

Mr. Erikhojd was born in Holland and was of a family of thirteen children. He came to Canada 37 years ago and after working for three years in Western Canada came to farm on Prince Edward Island.

With strong character and with a very cheerful disposition, Mr. Erikhojd bravely fought an insurmountable disease, even after being flown to Halifax where medical treatment failed.

In addition to his relatives in Holland and the United States, he leaves to mourn his wife Rita, three daughters: Mrs. Helen Rose Ekhojd, Hamilton, Ont.; Mrs. Lorne (Shirley) Bartolte, Hamilton, Ont.; (Mrs. Mrs.) Mrs. Fleming (Jean) Holm, New Mills, N.B. and his son, Mr. Cecil Erikhojd of Antigonish, N.S.

With mighty arms he tarried the rocks and stumps aside. And watched and saw crops rise. The rising sun up from the East. Of saw him in the field. The Western sun in dimming glow. Of failed to make him yield. When pain and sickness to him came. He bravely gave a smile. He held our hands, he gave us love. We love - that last long mile.

The pallbearers, his friends and neighbours, were: Mr. Alfred Daye, Mr. Frank MacLean, Mr. Walter Ling, Mr. Robert Stead, and Mr. W. A. Carson. Flower bearers were: Mr. Reginald Charles Andrews, Mr. Theo Sellers and Mr. Orville Stead.

Since you have gone hence, we do walk slowly. Down the road of death we go, and weep. For we would want to overtake you swiftly. And seek the journey's end in grace by your side.
