Q:WHAT DO YOU FIND HARDEST ABOUT UNIVERSITY LIFE?!!

ARTSIE

- deciding what to major in
- keeping high enough marks to stay on the deans list.
- having more than 3 classes/week and going to them all.
- having only 6 days per week of free time
- BEING AN ARTSIE

BUSINESS

- Policy, policy
- finding time to go to the movie pub.
- not owning enough Polo shirts
- only having one ski trip per year.

MARIONETTE

- eating cafeteria food
- having to sleep and shower with other guys.(but this is not really a problem)
- wearing ugly jackets
- sneaking sheep into rooms and then keeping them quiet
- BEING A MARIONETTE

BIO

- dodging cars while collecting roadkill on the highway for our labs.
- trying to get fruit flies to mate for genetics lab.
- having to walk 4 flights of stairs to get to our labs.
- BEING A BIO

PSYCH

- feeding lab rats and teaching them how to count
- field trips to Riverside and not being able to leave.
- sharing Psych 362 with !@%$#@ Engineers.

ENGINEERS

- 18 assignments per week
- not having enough money for BEVERages
- not having enough BEVERages

1) This bio walks into a bar with a pig under his arm. The bartender hollers, "Hey, wher'dya get that?" The PIG oinked, "Yesterday at the auction."

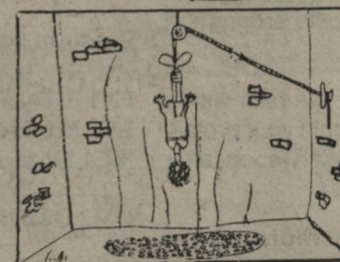

2) This business "student"(I think that's what you call them) took a beautiful girl back to her place. The next day his friend asked, "Why were you home so early last night?" "Well, he replied. We were sitting around having a great chat and she suddenly turned out the lights. I CAN TAKE A HINT. So I went home.

3) Q:What's the one thing all marionettes share ???
A: A RAM--ME'S condom.

4) D'Ya here about the business student who bought a pair of ski-doo boots?
He went through eight pairs of laces trying to start them!!!!

5) Q: Why do doughnuts have holes in them??
A: So "security" can keep an eye on their coffee!!!
