SEE Beer Bros. bargain corner. HAND at the Rink to-night. Good ice. THIS EVENING.—Go to the Scotch concert this evening. THE WEATHER is mild, with indications of rain. About eight inches of snow fell on the level during last night and this morning. THE STANLEY left Georgetown for Pictou at 10 15 this morning, and at 1 45 this afternoon returned to port owing to the thick weather outside. FAST DRIVING.—It is said that some twelve or fourteen summonses are being prepared for persons charged with fast driving on the streets of the city. THE STEAMSHIP COMBINE.—A gentleman said to be well versed in steamship matters informs the St. John Sun that there is probably nothing in the story of the proposed steamship combine.

SELLING AFTER HOURS.—This forenoon a summons was served on Charles McMillan for selling intoxicants between six o'clock on Saturday evening and seven o'clock on Monday morning, contrary to the provisions of the Liquor Regulation Act. The summons is returnable on Monday.

OUT OF SEASON.—Mr. John Newson informs us that he saw a robin on a tree near Mr. Unsworth's residence on Upper Prince Street on Monday morning last; and the Summer side correspondent of the Guardian is authority for the statement that a wild plant in full bloom was picked on the Island Park on Tuesday.

ANOTHER PAPER.—Mr. Thos. W. Schurman, formerly of Summerside, has established a daily paper at Calais, Me., the first number of which is at hand this morning. The paper is called the Daily St. Croix News. It is an eight page sheet, five columns to a page, and is published with interesting reading matter. It is the best wishes of THE EXAMINER.

TO BE GIVEN AWAY.—Miss Hutchison, who three years ago built a fine structure at St. John, for a sailors' home and has personally managed it ever since, called a meeting a few evenings ago and explained that she is no longer able to carry on the work, her health having broken down under it. She offers to make over the property, which cost her some $20,000, to a trust to manage it in the interest of sailors visiting the port.

W. C. T. U.—A Young Women's Christian Temperance Union has been organized here with the following officers: President, Miss Fannie Johnson; Vice Presidents, Miss McDonald, Miss Amy Desbriay, Miss Gregor; Secretary, Miss Mitchell; Treasurer, Miss Lurg; Auditor, Miss Ashley; Press Superintendent, Miss Maud Johnson. A meeting will be held at the W. C. T. U. rooms, when all young women interested are requested to attend.

MILITIA PROMOTIONS.—The Canada Gazette at hand this morning contains the following interesting items: Prince Edward Island Garrison Artillery Brigade, Charlottetown.—To be promoted: Captain John Augustus Longworth, R. S. A., from No. 2 battery, vice F. S. Moore, promoted. No. 2 battery, Charlottetown.—To be promoted: Lieutenant Frederick William Louis Moore, R. S. A., vice J. A. Longworth, promoted. THE EXAMINER heartily congratulates both gentlemen on their promotion.

WON'T PAY TAXES.—The Halifax Herald says: An important matter will come up before the Supreme Court in a few days. The Sisters of Charity are assessed by the city for taxes on buildings occupied by them and property therein. The city collector has sent notices to them to pay up, but they claim that under the Halifax tax exemption act they are released from taxes. As a result of their refusal to pay, a stated case in which the statements of both the city and the Sisters of Charity will fully appear will be at once prepared and submitted to the Supreme Court for a decision.

THE KIND THAT PAYS.—A neat illustration of the value of sagacious advertising was given at the Portland, Me., Young Men's Christian Association meeting on Sunday, when General Secretary McDonald stated that he had some curiosity to know what method of advertising reached the most people. He had circulated thousands of little doggers, giving notice of the meeting, and he asked those who had seen them and had been moved to come through that means to rise. The hall was packed as full as it could hold, and of the entire number about 15 arose. Then Mr. McDonald asked all those who had read the notice in the newspapers and had been influenced by them, to rise, and the crowd rose in a body.

WHY HE DISAPPEARED.—The cause of the mysterious disappearance from Freeport, N. S., recently of a young man named Horner, to which reference was made in THE EXAMINER a few days ago, is explained by the Digby correspondent of the Halifax Herald as follows: Horner, who was a country school master, drawing the fabulous salary of $2000 per annum, seems to have become imbued with the time honored notion that what was not enough for one was sufficient for two, and after due consideration of the matter, decided to take unto himself a wife, with whom to share his worldly goods and profits. The honeymoon was yet young, however, when Horner was almost surprised into a fit of ague by his better half bringing to the house a number of small children, who clamorously hailed him as "pa," and who it appears belonged to his wife, she having been a widow. All this, as was doubtless meant as most pleasing news for Mr. Horner, did not have the effect which glad tidings are supposed to produce. He grew thoughtful and pensive, and finally vanished before the blissful period of the honeymoon had passed.

Regret.

If I had known That when the morrow dawned the roses would be dead, I would have filled my hands with blossoms white and red, If I had known!

If I had known That I would be to-day deaf to all happy birds, I would have lain for hours to listen to your words, If I had known!

If I had known That with to-morrow's light you would be gone for aye, I would have been more kind—sweet Love had had his way, If I had known.

Sophie M. Almon-Hensley, in Dominion Illustrated for January.

Bravery Recognized.

The Montague correspondent of the Patriot writes: "THE EXAMINER of late contains two communications from a thoughtful correspondent regarding the bravery displayed by Mr. James Gillis, of this place, in saving several lives at the imminent peril of his own. The writer of the letters deserves credit for the energy displayed by him in bringing the matter so prominently before the people of Montague. It is evident from the facts published in THE EXAMINER that Mr. Gillis is in every way entitled to something substantial for his almost unexampled bravery in saving the lives of so many of his fellowmen. More especially is this the case at present on account of his being an invalid and under treatment in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. As the writer in THE EXAMINER wields a ready pen and is quite familiar with the heroic deeds of Mr. Gillis, who else is better qualified than he to bring the matter before the proper authorities? Let him rest assured that he shall receive the sympathy and influence of our highly respected clergyman as well as all others of influence in the community."

Facts for Reflection.

The Empire's Ottawa correspondent furnishes some very striking and significant figures from the public returns of last year. The foreign trade of the Dominion in 1892 was the greatest on record, and the exports were nearly $12,000,000 greater than in any year of the country's history. Our commerce has been gravitating towards the Mother country, the West Indies, China and Japan, precisely in those directions where our Government has been trying to cultivate it.

In certain products the showing of 1892 is a magnificent one. Free sugar has induced a largely increased import of that article, though we do not observe that the temper of our political opponents is any sweeter in consequence. In 1893 Canada imported 189,282,237 pounds; last year, 258,642,211 pounds.

In eggs, butter and cheese the triumphs of Canadian exporters have been remarkable. Compared with 1890 when 3,600 eggs valued at $820 were sent to Britain, last year saw 3,987,655 dozen valued at $582,218 sent there.

Of cheese 1892 saw 128,410,720 lbs. exported—mostly to Britain of course—valued at $12,554,280, the greatest figure yet reached in this important branch of our farmer's trade.

Canadian butter is going ahead by leaps and bounds, the export in 1892 being 5,736,696 lbs., valued at $1,056,058. This is splendid. The market in Britain again.

The genus "tariff reformer" will please note that the customs duties in 1892 were $4 25 per head, compared with $4 84 per head in 1891, $5 23 per head in 1883.

The Inland Revenue returns show an increase of revenue. The consumption of tobacco is about the same, the number of cigars manufactured being much greater. The people drank less spirits, beer and wine than they did the previous year.
