Weekly Meeting Trinity Y.P.U.

On Tuesday evening Nov. 14, Trinity United Church Young People's Union held its weekly meeting in the social hall. There were about one hundred and twenty people present.

The meeting opened with a lively songing led by Leith Stetson. The worship service, led by Mary Watts and Dorothy McLaren, opened with the hymn, "Jesus shall reign," followed by scripture reading from Proverb 27. Mary Watts then led in prayer. An interesting article on learning to find God wherever you are, entitled, "Practising the Presence of God" was read by Dorothy McLaren. The service closed with the hymn "This is my fathers world" and the Mizpah benediction.

Blanche Howatt gave a stirring talk on home and foreign missions and on the need to put more money in the red side of the church envelope.

Mr. Ashford conveyed to the group the message of thanks received from Mrs. Garret of the Infirmary staff for going out with entertainment on several occasions.

The business period was opened with the minutes of the last meeting. Stewart Smith, the president announced that the union now has four bowling alleys at the Y.M.C.A. every Friday evening.

The following committees have been appointed by the executive: Programme Advertising Committee — Leith Stetson-Chairman, Earle Hobbs assistant.

Costumes Committee — Joyce Procter and Donnie Livingston.

Girls Chorus Committee — Dorothy McLaren, chairman.

Earle Hobbs was appointed to build the tower needed for the forthcoming play "Little Women".

Y. M. C. A. News

Last Wednesday the Program Committee of the "Y" discussed the pending craft classes to be held this year. Mrs. Marion McCallum, a graduate of MacDonald College, will be teaching leatherwork. Mr. A. Pryce is going to look after the metal work classes and the Y's men are refitting the wordwork shop. This year wood-working classes are fortunate to have two wood lathes and a small jig saw thanks to the kindness of Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Osborne of the Y's Men's Club. Besides this there will be stamp groups, model aircraft classes, wood carving, and other handicrafts more suited to younger girls. Those interested are asked to leave their names at the desk at the "Y".

The new Phalanx executive was elected at a special meeting last Thursday night, following Mr. George Fitches address at the Y's Men's meeting. Mr. Charles Downe was elected Primus for the coming year. Other officers are Harold Dobson, Proprius; Bruce McLaren, Tribune; and Leith Stetson, Quaster.

Acmy Hi-Y was busy on Friday. Mary Morrison was placed in charge of the sacred concert to be held in the church in the near future.

The recreation was led by Wilms Watts and Ian Ashford. Everyone enjoyed the games played: Acquaintance game, zip and zap sliding chairs and a word relay race.

After recreation the groups went to their rooms to plan projects for the coming week. After the group reports the meeting was closed by singing, "Good Night Ladies".

Mary Morrison was the pianist for the evening.

night, voting in two new members and electing a new executive. The new members taken into the club are John McDougall and Briar Chandler. After "brilliant" speeches by the candidates for office, the voting took place. Bruce Leitch of Prince Street School was elected president. Vice president is Harold Warren, treasurer Jackie Turner, and Don Large is the secretary. After elections the boys adjourned to the gym where a rousing game of floor hockey was played. No bones were broken.

The pre-Christmas So-Ed series got off to a fine start on Monday night as many new So-Ed's registered for the new series, along with many of last year's members. Under the leadership of Ivan Robinson, with Stirling Walker at the piano, the group sang its way through an hour of carols and other old favorites. From 9:00 until 10:30 the centre of a great deal of controversy, equal rights for women, was aired by a panel of speakers. Mrs. J. P. Lantz and Mrs. Tim Tyler represented the woman's point of view, while Mr. C. F. Hine and Mr. Bob Beggs upheld the arguments of the male point of view. The entire discussion was of considerable interest to the group present, and the group is now looking forward to the future panel discussions on alcoholism, and the high school question. Following lunch, the So-Ed's danced to the music of many bands, and enjoyed novelties such as the "Turnip Dance" for the remainder of the evening.

Beta Phi at a special meeting Monday night, finished her preparations for the opening of their new checking service this Wednesday night operating from the cloakroom next to the bowling alley stairs, the girls will provide a safe and efficient checking service for bowling alley patrons, as well as for those attending meetings in the "Y" club rooms.

Dorothy Dix Says—

is the most complicated job on earth and every day it gets more and more involved. For a woman's emotional life always clashes with her business life and each one unfits her for the other and makes her dissatisfied with the other.

THE MONEY WILL HELP

More money will ease the husband's burden and perhaps give the baby a better environment in which to live, but business is a jealous mistress and any woman who goes into it must give her first thought, her best energies to her job. Moreover, a husband who has a wife who works outside of the home must often pinch-hit for her in it and make allowances for the nerves and exhaustion of a woman who has had a hard day at the office and whose boss has been grumpy. And nothing on earth can make up to a child for not having been reared by its mother and not having had the divine love and patience that only a mother can give. Money cannot hire anyone who can take a mother's place. And the poorest child who has a mother's hand to guide it, a mother's voice to teach it, a mother's heart to understand it, is better off and has a better chance in the world than the little millionaire who is turned over to the rearing of servants and governesses and tutors.

I am firmly convinced that no woman has a right to have a baby unless she is going to give it her personal attention.

DEAR MISS DIX: A rich girl is very much in love with me and has proposed marriage to me. I like her all right and because of her financial advantage over the other girls I go with I am tempted to accept her offer. However, she thinks I would look after her financial affairs and I object to the work it would require of me. Also she wants me to settle down, while I want to travel. Please tell me UNDECIDED

ANSWER: I should earnestly advise you to say "No" to the rich girl and firmly decline to accept her hand and fortune. For it doesn't seem to me that you are able to make a fair return for all she gives you. You haven't any love to bestow upon her and you aren't even willing to clip her coupons, which has always seemed to me a light and pleasing occupation. However, not having had the experience in this line of endeavor, I do not speak with authority. Anyway, for a man to marry for money is a contemptible thing for him to do. It is selling himself to some woman who will have him on the leash and whose bidding he has to do. She makes him sit up and eat out of her hand or roll over and play dead or jump through the hoop, and it takes a man with mighty little spirit and independence of character to be willing to do it. I have never seen the poor husband of a rich wife who looked happy or contented.

DEAR MISS DIX: I have been wanting to go to Texas and be a cowboy for years, but my mother won't let me. I am 15. There will never be any happiness for the rest of my life if I can't be a cowboy. What shall I do?

TEXAS

ANSWER: My boy, there isn't any more wild, free life of the plains nor picturesque cowboys such as you see in the moving pic-
