

Winter Carnival 1984

"Wasted on the Way"

The 1984 Winter Carnival Committee has something for everyone, whether you drink or not, and whether you prefer live bands or not.

January 30 - February 4 promises to be a fun-filled, spirited week of laughs and entertainment.

Activities include:

- The annual Campus Cabaret and Kloset Queen contest, which is always one of the highlights of Winter Carnival Week.
- An evening with Damant the Hypnotist in Duffy Amphitheatre.
- Gilt returns to UPEI, to be followed by the suicide Skate, which is an experience to be remembered by all who participate.
- The all-new Smurf Game — a guaranteed good time even if you only want to watch.
- The Dating Game and Rocky Horror Picture Show are also on the agenda.
- The new Hilton International Convention Centre is hosting the annual Coronation Dance; music is being provided by Copperfield.
- Car rally, scavenger hunt, snow golf, capture the flag, and a host of other activities.
- Noisemaker nights at both Panther basketball and hockey games.
- Black and White Night at the Barn.
- Ball hockey tournament throughout the week.

Everyone is urged to get out and participate. The Winter Carnival will only be as memorable as the students make it!!!
