Tignish Shore

Her many friends will be sorry to learn that Mrs. Dominic Deskoche is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital.

The ladies of the District are to be commended for donating a new map of Geographical Terms to the school.

The pupils of Tignish Shore made an excellent showing on March 17th, when they sang two numbers at the annual concert which was held in the Parish Hall at Tignish.

A few evenings ago 14 men and 12 ladies assembled at the school and gave the schoolroom a thorough spring cleaning. The ceiling and walls were dusted and washed after which the men gave the floor a good scrubbing. Where will you find a better spirit? The members of the school board have also secured a work table for Grades 1 and 11. On March 22, the pupils had a pleasant visit from the Rev. J. A. MacDonald P. P.

On the same day the school trustees Mr. Arsene Gallant, Mr. Clifford Gaudet and the Secretary, Mr. E. J. Arsenault accompanied by two members of the Home and School Association, Mrs. Edmund Gaudet and Mrs. Arsene Gallant also visited the school and spent the afternoon with the teacher and his pupils. The visitors were well pleased with the work that is being done and they congratulate the pupils for their skills, and good conduct.

THE EASTER STORY

TODAY, NO. 10: THE CRUCIFIXION

Rembrandt van Rijn, the Dutchman (1606-1669), unquestionably was the greatest etcher of all time. His style was distinctly his own: he avoided straight lines and used broken outline and loose arrangements. He produced more than 1000 etchings and drawings and some 600 paintings. None are more memorable than his etchings Raising of Lazarus, Ecco Homo, and the etching reproduced here, The Crucifixion. Matthew, Mark, Luke and John all have majestic stories of the Crucifixion. This is from St. Matthew 27:45-54:

Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.
And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.
And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.
The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.
Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

And behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;
And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,
And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.
Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

A host of friends join in sending greetings and good wishes to Mr. John H. Bryant, North Enmore, who observed his 84th birthday on March 26th. Mr. Bryant is hale and hearty, is up around every day, reads the papers and enjoys the radio. He is keenly interested in the news of the day. His brother, Havelock, 86 years old, visits him regularly, and they spend happy hours talking over old times.

Mrs. Charles R. Enman, Victoria West, received a telegram on Monday, conveying the sad news that her sister, Annie, wife of the late Allan MacDougall, had passed away at her home in Portland, Maine, after a short illness. Another sister in P. E. Island, Mrs. Alex Wood, Tryon, mourns the loss of a loved one. Mr. and Mrs. MacDougall were former residents of Victoria West.
