Housewarming For Kensington Couple

A jolly crowd of neighbors and friends assembled at the newly occupied home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arsenault on Wednesday night January 7th. The occasion was to welcome them to their new home on the Malpeque Road, the former Andrew Bonness residence.

Mr. James L. Saunders, the M. C. in an impromptu address expressed the sentiments of all by paying tributes to Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault for their attributes of industry and thrift in acquiring this fine home. He told some of the historical highlights of the district since it was settled in the 1840's by a great influx of Irish immigrants.

On behalf of the assembled guests Mr. Percy McCarville made the presentation of an appropriate gift.

Mr. Arsenault in a few well chosen words thanked one and all for their warm welcome and gift and recounted some of his experiences in military service in World War II and the struggle through the depression years.

Music for the dancing which followed was of a high order and was played by Messrs Norman Mill, Peter Perry, John Inglis, Willard and Mrs. Brown. A feature of the programme was exhibitions of step dancing by Messrs. Peter Perry and Sterling Chappelle and Miss Carrie Bridges. A bountiful lunch was served by the ladies.

In the wee sma' hours the guests wended their way homeward with many sincere wishes that the Arsenault family would have abundant happiness and success in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Milligan, Picou, spent the Christmas season at their home in Poplar Grove and have returned to Picou, where Mr. Milligan is employed for the winter.

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Erving Smith on Tuesday evening January 6th with fifteen members answering the roll-call. The members decided to make a quilt for the Protestant Orphanage. They also agreed that a contribution would be made to the expenses of the Convention, to be held in Toronto next August. It was moved and seconded that all out-standing bills be paid. The meeting closed by repeating the Mizpah benediction. A delectable lunch was served by the hostesses and a neat sum realized from the collection and an auction sale.
