Murphy - Moran Wedding

— St. Bridget's Parish Church, Lot 11, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday morning when Rev. Leonard McKenna united in marriage Lois, daughter of Mrs. Bessie Moran and the late Mr. Moran, to Alban, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.J. Murphy of Summerside.

The bride looked lovely in her wedding gown of white satin and veil and she carried a prayer book and rosary.

Miss Kathleen Murphy, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and she was attired in a gown of turquoise tulle with hat to match. She carried a prayer book and rosary. Mr. Edgar Moran, brother of the bride was groomsmen. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for a large number of guests was held at the home of the bride's mother. The bride's table with its artistic arrangement of cut flowers and lighted tapers was centred with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left on a honeymoon trip throughout the Maritime Provinces and will reside in Montreal. — S

25th Wedding Anniversary

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Murray, Augustine Cove; the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Over a hundred neighbors and friends gathered to extend congratulations and good wishes.

After the guests had assembled, Mr. E. C. Bell called the gathering to order, and called upon Mr. Harry MacFarlane who read an address on behalf of all present, while Miss Margaret Murphy, and Mrs. Harry Dawson presented them with a beautiful clock. There were also other gifts and a sum of money.

Mr. Murray feelingly replied on behalf of himself and his wife. Thanked all present for their kind and generous gifts, after which complimentary remarks were made by Louis O'Connor, Jack McDonald and Bruce Campbell. After which all sang "For They are Jolly Good Fellows". The groom was well bounced.

A dainty lunch was served by the ladies present. Dancing was then enjoyed by all, including the "Wedding Reel". The music was furnished by Allen Boswell, Tony Noonan and Elsworth Newson.

All dispersed to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Murray health and happiness, in celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

The following is the address: Dear Mr. and Mrs. Murray: This is an occasion where a speech is utterly unnecessary for the fact of our being here, speaks more eloquently than the words of even the most learned man.

On June 24th, twenty-five years ago our respected friends, Mr. and Mrs. Murray went to the altar and exchanged their marriage vows. To-day we see before us, the bride and bridegroom in soul and heart. The bride and bridegroom of a quarter of a century. Hand in hand they are ascending the hill of life, the peak of which we hope for them lies many years ahead. But every hill has its declining side and we hope, that when they come to that side, they will find a valley lighted with the undying lamp of faithfulness, love and devotion. Time has brought them their joys, and no doubt, their sorrows, but it has been kind to them and has garlanded them with its choicest wreath, a family of young men and women, of whom they may justly be proud; a family in whom we believe they have done their best to fulfill God's command and bring them up in the nurture and admonition of their Lord. In their home, community, school and church life they have always been ready
